Transforming The Church In Africa A New Contextually Relevant Discipleship Model:

Transforming the Church in Africa Vernon E. Light, 2012 This book is a must read for serious Christians hoping to obey the Great Commission to make disciples in Africa Vernon strikes an admirable balance between academic depth and practical application helping us to appreciate the interface between the gospel of Jesus Christ and the traditional African worldview I heartily recommend this book to all thinking Christian leaders in Africa pastors teachers and missionaries Kevin G Smith DLitt PhD Vernon Light wrote this book with an apostolic passion in the way the apostles presented and proclaimed the Gospel to world religions and cultures It is an exciting study of African traditional religion and its relation to Christianity It shows that for Christianity to thrive and be relevant biblically and transformationally in Africa firstly Christian scholars and theologians are needed who understand and address Africa s traditional heritage and Western modern postmodern and pluralistic ideologies and secondly the Gospel must be contextually relevantly meaningfully and practically taught through an effective discipleship program The book based on extensive research and massive use of resources is a valuable tool for students pastors scholars and theologians interested in the state of Christianity and religious change in Africa Professor Yusufu Turaki PhD Much more than being a useful resource this is a book with a mission Like Jeremiah of old Jer 20 9 Vernon is a man with a passion and message from God to the society to which God has called him Like Jeremiah Vernon is totally convinced of the absolute truth of his message in the midst of a myriad of conflicting opinions and that his message will change society from disaster to hope Would that it is heard Professor David T Williams DTh The Rev Vernon E Light BSc BDHons MTh is a member of the academic staff at the South African Theological Seminary

In this book Dr Robert Falconer offers the reader a holistic understanding of Jesus's atoning work that powerfully addresses African realities and concerns. Grounded in Scripture and Christian theology, this book gives careful attention to the implications of the atonement for African traditional spirituality. Presenting a biblical perspective of the cross, one rooted in penal substitution and Christus Victor theology, Falconer demonstrates Christ's power in all aspects of our lives, including over ancestors' evil spirits, witchcraft, and sin. This book provides a deeper understanding of contextual issues facing the African church while also demonstrating the role of the atonement in addressing our cultural concerns and restoring the hope of liberty, reconciliation, redemption, and resurrection. When Evil Strikes Sunday Bobai Agang, 2016-06-22 Human hostility is not the narrative of a selected few. Since the fall of the grandparents of the human family, Adam and Eve, all humans have continued to participate in the reality of evil. Accordingly, the question is no longer whether evil will strike but rather when evil strikes, how should humans, particularly Christians, respond to it. This book offers a relevant and effective theology and ethics for addressing the issue of Christian response to violence in Nigeria and beyond. It situates the whole gamut of the reign of human hostility in its various manifestations: self-interest and greed for power, deception, and social injustices, governmental official corruption, terrorism, and so on. It encourages humans to take seriously both the fact of God creating humans good and the fall serving as the gateway of evil into the human race. It recognizes the complexity of human problems. Yet it offers possibility for just peacemaking. In spite of the horrific violence across the globe, humans are still able to do tremendous good. Thus, the book recognizes the paradox of humanity: humans are capable of doing tremendous good and equally capable of doing tremendous evil. Victory Over Fear: Charms, Witchcraft and Worldview in South-Central Malawi Robert Beaton, 2023-05-25 In this volume, the author presents much of his field research into the use of African traditional religious charms in the Zambezi Evangelical churches of South Central Malawi. He details the kinds of charms used by whom, exactly how the underlying motives and the particular purposes. He shows how charm dependency creates a problem for discipleship within the churches. An anthology of real-life stories of charm usage is presented, which makes for interesting reading. The basic tenets of a Chewa worldview are also articulated to demonstrate how charm dependency and other witchcraft-related activities are stimulated and perpetuated by deep-seated worldview assumptions. The voices of local pastors, student pastors, and African authors are heard throughout, providing a contextual feel. This book is an excellent practical resource for teaching and learning for those involved in discipleship, theology, ATR missions, and cultural perspectives. ,2022-06-08 There is a dire need today to create spaces in which people can make meaning of their existence in the world abiding by cultural frameworks and practices that acknowledge and validate a meaningful existence for all People are not just isolated individuals but are connected in diverse ways with other persons within our natural and social environment which is part of the whole universe The African philosophy of uBuntu or humaneness is re emerging for its timely relevance and potential as indispensable in our quest for global citizenship peace and mutual understanding in securing sustainable human development in the broader ecosystem Comparative educationists have the challenge to devise theoretical frameworks epistemological and pedagogical constructs as well as pragmatic useful and effective ways of promoting the virtues of compassion and recognition of our common humanity in eliminating the ills of domination and control that are guided by greed hatred jealousy and intolerance Comparative Education for Global Citizenship Peace and Shared Living through Ubuntu paves the way for a better understanding of the critical importance of the collective search and endeavor towards achieving the virtues of nonviolence peace shared values of living together global citizenship improved quality of life for all and a better appreciation of the positive implications of interdependence African Pentecostal Theology Mookgo Solomon Kgatle,2023-12-11 African Pentecostal Theology Modality Disciplinarity and Decoloniality explores research methodology theological disciplines and contextualization as important aspects in the process of studying Pentecostal theology in an African context Mookgo Solomon Kgatle outlines different data collection and data analysis methods including the skills of interpreting and presenting research findings in a responsible manner This book illustrates that Pentecostal theology given its pneumatological approach goes beyond conventional theological disciplines in transdisciplinary research The development of knowledge in African Pentecostal Theology should recognize African Indigenous Knowledge Systems AIKS African oral and traditional cultures and African indigenous languages to be relevant to Africans Pentecostal theologians from different theological disciplines in Africa and globally will find this book a worthwhile read

Phenomenological Approaches to Religion and Spirituality Essien, Essien D.,2021-01-29 There is an interesting knowledge trajectory that God remains incomprehensible not imperceptible This lends credence to the fact that religious study since the Enlightenment has dedicated itself almost entirely to the problem of reconciling the non existence of God in the physical world with his necessary existence in the metaphysical world When seriously examined it would be discovered that these two aspects are logically contradictory and this is a problem with no solution But interpreting God not as a physical being but as a phenomenological thing changes the nature of the problem enough that a solution emerges almost automatically In this phenomenological model the crux of the matter is that God does not exist but God is real Therefore it is imperative to return to experience and verifiability hence purging it of unexamined and often hidden assumptions Phenomenological Approaches to Religion and Spirituality brings together the different disciplines and research approaches to provide a comprehensive analysis of the phenomenology of God and spirituality as well as offering an effective epistemological apparatus capable of dealing with this concept The book employs multidisciplinary approaches from religious studies theology philosophy anthropology and other segments to dissect the subject matter for efficient evaluation and all inclusive findings While covering various aspects of religion such as the testaments of the Bible the church the religious experience and various aspects of spirituality this book is intended for theologians philosophers religious leaders policymakers academicians researchers students public institutions and agencies with a special interest in religious matters values knowledge and truth

A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church

Towards a Contextual Transformational Practical Theology for Leadership Education in South Africa Gordon E. Dames, 2016 Towards a contextual transformational practical theology for leadership education in South Africa is a courageous effort by a prominent South African practical theologian to develop a framework for the theory and practice of leadership education in an African context Taking the harsh realities of South Africa as point of departure the author demonstrates how an indigenous South African practical theology can be developed through a critical interaction between Western and African ideas Prof Jaco S Dreyer Professor of Practical Theology University of South Africa
