Transforming Together Authentic Spiritual Mentoring:

Transforming Together Ele Parrott, 2009-05-01 Young women are crying out for someone older to care about them to help them Older women desire to be useful and productive Those who have invested years of walking with the Lord themselves desire to be teamed up with this generation of younger women who are yearning for someone to show them how to walk through life with genuine faith in Christ Transforming Together presents the model for genuine spiritual mentoring through the power and work of Christ in the lives of women faithfully pouring into one another Women both young and old will appreciate the dual focus on the roles of mentor and mentee Building on real life testimonies and her experience as a committed mentor Ele Parrott will guide women as they seek to walk with one another to greater faithfulness in Christ

The Generative Church Cory Seibel, 2019-10-10 Virtually all churches aim to invest meaningfully in the faith development of the younger generations who have been entrusted into their care Some churches have a longstanding track record of faithfulness in living out this commitment Some lose sight of this priority over time and allow their intentionality to fade This book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of children's youth and young adult ministries by appropriating Erik Erikson's concept of generativity the interest in establishing and guiding the next generation as a way of exploring congregational life Eleven accomplished authors representing five different countries provide diverse theological and cultural perspectives on key aspects of what it means for churches to invest intentionally in the faith development of the members of emerging generations Their chapters challenge us to think about the intergenerational dynamics of our churches the crucial partnership between church and parents and what it means to involve young people meaningfully in the life of the church The intriguing topics explored by this group of authors and the diverse contexts from which they write promise to broaden and enrich our thinking about caring for children youth and young adults as a vital responsibility shared by the entire congregation

Leading Women Who Wound Sue Edwards, Kelley Mathews, 2009-02-01 As more churches add women's ministry programs there is a growing need to address the issues that naturally arise as women minister alongside one another and to one another Given the fallen nature of the human heart as well as the complexities of personalities conflict is an inevitable aspect of ministry How do women deal with emotions when other women are insensitive manipulative or just plain mean What does the Bible tell us To be equipped for conflict women must understand and master strategies specifically related to conflict with other women Leading Women Who Wound shows women how to effectively deal with conflict within their ministries Seasoned women's ministry leaders themselves Sue Edwards and Kelley Mathews walk through several different aspects of conflict resolution including self examination identification of potential sources of conflict tools for conflict resolution and insight on how to prevent and move beyond conflict to minister to those who have been sources of contention Recognizing that not all conflict results in a happy ending Leading Women Who Wound gives the tools necessary to minister effectively and move forward with integrity
