Monastic. Mainline. Elaine A. Heath,Larry Duggins,2014-01-30 Here is the long awaited volume that provides both the theoretical foundations and practical guidance for developing new monastic and missional communities in contexts that are theologically progressive racially and economically diverse and multicultural This book contains the wisdom and perspectives of people who live and serve in missional new monastic communities in United Methodist and other mainline traditions and it describes new forms of theological education that are emerging to resource a new generation of Christian leaders Heath and Duggins challenge Methodists Lutherans Episcopalians Presbyterians and other Christians to reach into their own robust mainline heritage for resources to develop small intentional communities that practice a rigorous life of prayer hospitality and justice Leadership Practices Dr. Widza Bryant,Cedric Bryant,2023-02-09 Leadership the ability to bring people together to accomplish shared goals be it in an organization or a church was instituted by God from the beginning In the context of the church God commissioned church leadership to go and make disciples of all nations to win souls for His kingdom throughout the world instead of standing behind a pulpit in a conventional four walls edifice that we come to know as church or donning themselves with ostentatious titles like bishop apostles prophet or prophetess to cite a few The derailment of God s perspective for church leadership has left billions of people worldwide unreached and disenfranchised from God s words thereby invoking rampant suffering not only from the ravages of wars hunger abject poverty or disease but also the transforming power of the Gospel In the Leadership Practices A Global and Biblical Perspective Drs Cedric and

Widza Bryant underscore God's directives His original intent of authentic biblical leadership designed to reach all people throughout the world All of which are encapsulated in Genesis 1:26 to Adam and Eve to Noah in Genesis 9:1 and in Matthew 28:19-20 Jesus's mandates to the twelve disciples Go and make disciples of all nations Leadership Practices A Global and Biblical Perspective illuminates our understanding of the biblical inerrancy of leadership by probing on scholars relentless pursuit to further their knowledge of leadership definition and to expose different interpretations that provide a clear picture of what leadership is and how to apply it to reach excellence Could the inexorable pursuits to define leadership and align its practices be the cause of man's biased predispositions from God's intended purpose A trend that commenced before humanity even existed The book accentuates the notion that leadership practices according to God's design was to be global and accessible A Christ centered mandate with tangible and pervasive biblical root that compels leaders to be open to change and to submit to God's original practices The manuscript provides the reader with a biblically based model of leadership using numerous scriptural case studies that illustrate the differences between what it means to operate as a leader of this world and what it means to be a Christian leader in this world By following a Christ centered model leaders learn how success begins with change and she emphasizes how leaders must first be willing to submit to change themselves before they can guide the process in others The manuscript is filled with extensive research blending scholarly works with scriptural illustrations which collectively produce an insightful repository for leaders to draw upon as they aspire to become a global Christian leader The book has wide applications for church leaders at the local national and global levels the growth and development of coaching and its application to Christian ministry They show core coaching skills and essential and supporting coaching skills The core skills of focused listening and asking powerful questions reappear throughout the book as the authors demonstrate in real life situations how to use them A TCP Leadership Series title The Leader's Journey Jim Herrington, Trisha Taylor, R. Robert Creech, 2020-01-21 This book helps pastors and church leaders understand the role their personal transformation as Jesus's disciples plays in effective congregational leadership It shifts the focus of leadership from techniques and charisma to spiritual transformation and developing emotional maturity so leaders can effectively lead congregations to embrace change End of chapter discussion questions are included The first edition sold more than 20 000 copies and has been regularly used as a textbook over the past fifteen years The second edition has been revised throughout and includes a greater emphasis on Bowen Family Systems Theory The Surprise Factor Paul Nixon, Kim Shockley, 2013-02-01 Principles for church leadership are important but just as important is knowing when and how to implement them This is strategy and it can make or break a leader's work Those who have been in ministry for a while may have a bag of leadership tricks But what are the results Nixon and Shockley explore eight key leadership behaviors that will help a church move successfully through its first season of transformation putting it well on its way to becoming a dynamic growing body of Christ They report that ninety percent of existing churches never make it out of the first season of transformation and give guidance on how to turn around a stagnant or dying church TILT Erik Rees, Jeff Jernigan, 2010-02-01 A simple tilt can turn something ordinary and commonplace something well understood and familiar into a powerful and unalterably different force Any leader can provide the tools and instruction to enable someone to serve Classes will be taught and church programs will be staffed but boredom and burnout are likely and turnover is high With a few small changes however you can be a leader who inspires people to serve boldly and lead others to passionate ministry as well This subtle shift from being a leader who equips people for ministry tasks to a leader who empowers people to become ministers themselves can have untold impact on the church and the wider community Each chapter looks at a leadership basic from a new angle offering the tilt needed to lead others into true discipleship With practical tools and exercises throughout the book the reader is challenged to examine those things that keep us from releasing control and consequently prevent us from empowering others Readers will rediscover hope and energy for their own ministry as they lead others to active and inspiring ministry as well Gospel Coach Scott Thomas, Tom Wood, 2012-05-08 In order to help pastors and other Christian leaders to lovingly lead God's flock to Jesus Christ and into God's mission Scott Thomas and Tom Wood clarify a process of coaching and shepherding that is rooted in the patterns of the Good Shepherd himself a process in which leaders stir up the gifts passion and calling upon others lives This book addresses the needs of the leader his or her sinful tendencies and church leadership issues It directs the leader to the person and work of Jesus It provides a system to intentionally shepherd leaders to glorify God in their personal spiritual and missional lives Many ministry leaders serving in churches find themselves overwhelmed disillusioned and depressed by the enormous and challenging task of leading and ministering in a congregation. As a result the ministry suffers the leaders suffer and the result is often an unhealthy church existent with little or no Gospel influence. These leaders need someone to shepherd their soul so that they can lead others to the Chief Shepherd Jesus Christ. We suggest that coaching for the church leader looks less like corporate consulting or humanistic psychology and more like biblical shepherding. We suggest that every church leader needs a Gospel Coach to come alongside with words of truth wisdom and experience to encourage admonish comfort and help words drawn from Scripture and godly wisdom grounded in the gracious saving work of Jesus Christ and presented in the context of a trusting relationship. Gospel Coaching is an intentional relationship to skillfully care for others with four ancient shepherding principles: 1 Know the sheep 2 Feed the sheep 3 Lead the sheep and 4 Protect the sheep. A Gospel Coach both inquires about the personal spiritual and missional aspects of a ministry leader's life in a loving yet focused manner and also probes the church leader for compulsive unbelief or selfish motivation or disobedience and sin and leads the ministry leader back to the Gospel through belief repentance and obedience. Churches that desire to be rich in a Gospel application toward their city their relationships with one another their communication and worship as well as their service will benefit to a greater degree by having their leaders being coached by a Gospel centered leader.

Christ-Centered Coaching Jane Creswell, 2006-05-01 Creswell draws from her extensive corporate and ministry coaching experience to provide ministers and other church leaders a clear definition of what coaching is and the seven basic benefits an individual church or group can receive through a qualified coach. Solidly based in experience each chapter is built upon an actual scenario growing out of Creswell's own coaching experience. Along with the illustration she provides scriptural teaching gives explicit information on the purpose and merits of coaching additional resources and tips for coaching.

Coach Joel Comiskey, My favorite coach is John Wooden During his time coaching college basketball with the UCLA Bruins Wooden won ten NCAA titles including seven in a row from 1967 to 1973 His UCLA teams also had a record winning streak of eighty eight games four perfect 30 0 seasons and won thirty eight straight games in NCAA Tournaments Yet Wooden wasn't overly focused on winning basketball games He was more concerned about building character in his players He stimulated his players to be successful in their school studies attitudes and behavior which ultimately resulted in success on the basketball court And Wooden lived the life that he asked his players to follow Wooden was an amazing coach because he built into the lives of his players and developed their character Coaching small group leaders has similar characteristics The goal of Christian coaches is to move people toward Jesus Christ The Christian coach strives to lead people forward to conformity with Jesus Christ knowing that the ultimate crown is the one that will last forever 1 Corinthians 9 25 While Christ like character is most important a small group coach also equips leaders with the tools knowledge and opportunities they need to develop themselves and become more effective in small group ministry A cell coach encourages nourishes and challenges cell leaders to grow and multiply their cell groups The word coach is descriptive of the role a person plays as he or she supports cell leaders under his or her care It is not a sacred term In fact churches use many terms to identify the role played by the cell group coach supervisor section leader G 12 leader cell overseer cell sponsor even L which is the roman numeral for 50 This book provides step by step instructions on how to coach a small group leader from the initial stages of leading the group all the way to giving birth to a new one Those who have never coached before will receive clear information on how to take the small group leader to the next level And someone who is already coaching a small group leader will also find the eight lessons in this book invaluable to empower others to lead fruitful groups I have another more in depth book on coaching called How to be a Great Cell Group Coach Some of the same concepts are covered in both books but the major difference is that this book is a hands on training manual to prepare someone to be a coach of small group leaders My other book How to be a Great Cell Group Coach would be a great reference manual to use alongside this book

Coaching Based Ministry Mike McGervey, Tim Cosby, 2011-11 Traditional models of spiritual transformation and leader development depend on the ability of experts to impart their knowledge experience and advice to others But what we have discovered is that receiving information and advice alone does not lead to transformation and growth This happens only when a person becomes internally motivated to change Coaching empowers people to change without telling them what to do To be empowered means to take ownership of and responsibility for shaping your own future This is based on the principle that the people you coach will understand value and apply for themselves what you help them to discover not what you tell them We are also convinced that as churches and faith based organizations discover the power and possibilities of coaching there will be a growing effort to rebuild ministries and develop leaders around what we call the Coaching Based Ministry TM model This book is built around helping you find answers to three key questions Why coaching What is it like to be coached What does it take to become an effective coach It is our hope and prayer that you will find meaningful answers to those questions and will then join us in bringing Coaching Based Ministry TM to the churches and faith based organizations in your area Mike McGervey Tim Cosby
