Transnational Labour Migration, Remittances and the Changing Family in Asia L. Hoang, B. Yeoh, 2015-05-13 The contributors investigate the inter relationships between migrant remittances and the family in Asia They argue that in the context of Asian transnational labour migration where remittances tend to become a primary currency of care the making or breaking of the family unit is mainly contingent on how individuals handle remittance processes Handbook on Migration and the Family Johanna L. Waters, Brenda S.A. Yeoh, 2023-03-02 This Handbook is a timely and critical intervention into debates on changing family dynamics in the face of globalization population migration and uneven mobilities By capturing the diversity of family types arrangements and strategies across a global setting the volume highlights how migration is inextricably linked to complex familial relationships often in supportive and nurturing ways but also violent and oppressive at other times Women, Gender, Remittances and Development in the Global South Ton van Naerssen, Lothar Smith, Marianne H. Marchand, 2016-03-09 This book endeavours to take the conceptualisation of the relationship between transnational remittance exchanges and gender to a new level Thus inevitably it provides a number of case studies of relationships between gender and remittances from around the world highlighting different processes and practises Thereby the authors seek to understand the impact of remittances on gender and gender relations both at the sending as well as at the receiving end For each case study authors ask how remittances affect gender identities and relationships but also vice versa By itself this already adds a wealth of insights to a field that is remarkably understudied despite a volume of studies on gender and the feminization of migration in developing contexts Chapters take an open explorative approach to the relationship between gender and remittance behaviour with the aid of case studies focusing on transnational flows between migrants and countries of origin With the wide variety of cases this book is able to provide conceptual insights to better understand how remittances affect gender identity roles and relations at both the receiving and sending end and give specific attention to the roles of various actors directly and indirectly involved in remittance sending in current collectively organized remittance schemes from around the world Handbook on Transnationalism Yeoh, Brenda S.A., Collins, Francis L., 2022-01-18 Providing a critical overview of transnationalism as a concept this Handbook looks at its growing influence in an era of high speed globalised interconnectivity It offers crucial insights on how approaches to transnationalism have altered how we think about social life from the family to the nation state whilst also challenging the predominance of methodologically nationalist analyses Merchants of Migrant Domestic Labour Liberty L. Chee, 2025-08-31 This open access book discusses the market logic of recruitment agencies who deploy migrant domestic workers in Southeast Asia Agencies are involved in all stages of worker migration trajectory from their selection to their training and their management at the destination The book describes how and why these private actors play such an outsized role in this kind of worker mobility and examines their relations with employers workers and state apparatuses It focuses on agents operating in the largest migrant sending countries the Philippines and Indonesia and receiving countries Malaysia and Singapore in Southeast Asia These pioneering migration industries in the region have established practices and norms that have and continue to diffuse to other world regions This book is of interest to policymakers practitioners students and researchers in migration studies global governance gender and migration globalization and development Southeast Asian studies and area studies in political science

Social networks, collective organizing, and freedom of association: A qualitative participatory action research study with women migrant domestic workers in Lebanon Abdulrahim, Sawsan,Adra, May,2023-06-02 Worldwide women migrant domestic workers WMDWs occupy a weak position in the global economy due to intersections of gender race and global economic inequalities Lebanon hosts more than 250 000 WMDWs who are recruited and employed through the infamous Kafala system that binds a worker to one employer With Lebanon s economic crisis a large number of WMDWs are currently working as freelancers whereby giving and receiving support from other workers plays a crucial role in their adaptation and economic survival This study is a component of an international evaluation of the Work in Freedom Project carried out by the International Labour Organization It focuses on Lebanon and aims to assess the impact of the project on the ability of WMDWs in Lebanon to maintain viable social networks and organize collectively Its main objective is to investigate the different ways in which WMDWs have maintained social networks and engaged in collective organizing efforts at the individual meso and macro levels to improve their lives and to ensure non exploitative work conditions

Political Ecologies of COVID-19 Andrea J. Nightingale, Seema Arora-Jonsson, Nitin Devdas Rai, Juanita Sundberg, 2023-08-02 By March 2020 COVID 19 had affected nearly every community on earth either with infections or with mobility restrictions Significant peer reviewed research effort has gone into understanding the virus and its spread mainly from an epidemiological and medical perspective Political ecologists have been somewhat critical of such analyses because of their failure to understand the sociality of COVID 19 and its emergence They emphasise the need to look for how the virus has acted upon inclusions and exclusions and current cleavages in society despite the fact that it can potentially attack anyone anywhere Commentaries have therefore drawn attention to the more than human assemblages that allowed COVID 19 to infect humans global food chains and capitalism and social inequalities that underpin uneven exposure and access to health care In this Research Topic we seek papers that engage with political ecologies of COVID 19 We welcome articles that are based on empirical research in specific contexts attempting to understand the impacts of the viral outbreak as well as articles which lay out research agendas for political ecologies of COVID 19 What questions need to be asked What does it mean to take a socionatural and political ecological approach What can we learn from the state s response in different places How can such analyses add to the global conversation about the pandemic
