Modernism on the Nile Alex Dika Seggerman,2019-08-13 Analyzing the modernist art movement that arose in Cairo and Alexandria from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s Alex Dika Seggerman reveals how the visual arts were part of a multifaceted transnational modernism While the work of diverse major Egyptian artists during this era may have appeared to be secular she argues it reflected the subtle but essential inflection of Islam as a faith history and lived experience in the overarching development of Middle Eastern modernity Challenging typical views of modernism in art history as solely Euro American and expanding the conventional periodization of Islamic art history Seggerman theorizes a constellational modernism for the emerging field of global modernism Rather than seeing modernism in a generalized hyperconnected network she finds that art and artists circulated in distinct constellations that encompassed finite local and transnational relations Such constellations which could engage visual systems both along and beyond the Nile from Los Angeles to Delhi were materialized in visual culture that ranged from oil paintings and sculpture to photography and prints Based on extensive research in Egypt Europe and the United States this richly illustrated book poses a compelling argument for the importance of Muslim networks to global modernism

Everyday Islamic Law and the Making of Modern South Asia Elizabeth Lhost,2022-05-10 Beginning in the late eighteenth century British rule transformed the relationship between law society and the state in South Asia But qazis and muftis alongside ordinary people without formal training in law fought back as the colonial system in India sidelined Islamic legal experts They petitioned the East India Company for employment lobbied imperial legislators for recognition and built robust institutions to serve their communities By bringing legal debates into the public sphere they resisted the colonial state s authority over personal law and rejected legal codification by embracing flexibility and possibility

With postcards letters and telegrams they made everyday Islamic law vibrant and resilient and challenged the hegemony of the Anglo Indian legal system Following these developments from the beginning of the Raj through independence Elizabeth Lhost rejects narratives of stagnation and decline to show how an unexpected coterie of scholars practitioners and ordinary individuals negotiated the contests and challenges of colonial legal change The rich archive of unpublished fatwa files qazi notebooks and legal documents they left behind chronicles their efforts to make Islamic law relevant for everyday life even beyond colonial courtrooms and the confines of family law Lhost shows how ordinary Muslims shaped colonial legal life and how their diversity and difference have contributed to contemporary debates about religion law pluralism and democracy in South Asia and beyond

Hajj to the Heart Scott Kugle, 2021-12-28 Against the sweeping backdrop of South Asian history this is a story of journeys taken by sixteenth century reformist Muslim scholars and Sufi mystics from India to Arabia At the center is the influential Sufi scholar Shaykh Ali Muttaqi and his little known network of disciples Scott Kugle relates how Ali Muttaqi an expert in Arabic scriptural hermeneutics and hadith left his native South Asia and traversed treacherous seas to make the Hajj to Mecca Settling in Mecca he continued to influence his homeland from overseas Kugle draws on his original translations of Arabic and Persian manuscripts never before available in English to trace Ali Muttaqi's devotional writings revealing how the Hajj transformed his spiritual life and political loyalties The story expands across three generations of peripatetic Sufi masters in the Muttaqi lineage as they travel for purposes of pilgrimage scholarship and sometimes simply for survival along Indian Ocean maritime routes linking global Muslim communities Exploring the political intrigue scholarly debates and diverse social milieus that shaped the colorful personalities of his Sufi subjects Kugle argues for the importance of Indian Sufi thought in the study of hadith and of ethics in

Bülent Batuman, 2017-12-22 New Islamist Architecture and Urbanism claims that in today's world a research agenda concerning the relation between Islam and space has to consider the role of Islamism rather than Islam in shaping and in return being shaped by the built environment The book tackles this task through an analysis of the ongoing transformation of Turkey under the rule of the pro Islamic Justice and Development Party In this regard it is a topical book a rare description of a political regime's reshaping of urban and architectural forms whilst the process is alive Defining Turkey's transformation in the past two decades as a process of new Islamist nation re building the book investigates the role of the built environment in the making of an Islamist milieu Drawing on political economy and cultural studies it explores the prevailing primacy of nation and nationalism for new Islamism and the spatial negotiations between nation and Islam It discusses the role of architecture in the deployment of history in the rewriting of nationhood and that of space in the expansion of Islamist social networks and cultural practices Looking at examples of housing compounds mosques public spaces and the new presidential residence New Islamist Architecture and Urbanism scrutinizes the spatial making of new Islamism in Turkey through comparisons with relevant cases across the globe urban renewal projects in Beirut and Amman nativization of Soviet modernism in Baku and Astana the presidential palaces of Ashgabat and Putrajaya and the neo Ottoman mosques built in diverse locations such as Tokyo and Washington DC Society of the Righteous Kimberly T.
