Transnational Narration Home And Homeland In Nineteenth Century American Literature:

Transnational Na(rra)tion John Dolis, 2015-05-12 This book examines American literary texts whose portrayal of American identity involves the incorporation of a foreign body as the precondition for a comprehensive understanding of itself This nexus of disconcerting textual dynamics arises precisely insofar as both citizen subject and national identity depend upon a certain alterity an other which constitutes the secondary term of a binary structure American identity thus finds itself ironically confused and interwoven with another culture or another nation double crossed in the enactment of itself Individual chapters are devoted to Benjamin Franklin Washington Irving Frederick Douglass Louisa May Alcott Nathaniel Hawthorne and Mark Twain Nathaniel Hawthorne in Context Monika M. Elbert, 2018-11-15 This volume provides a comprehensive overview of Nathaniel Hawthorne and demonstrates why he continues to be a critically significant figure in American literature The first section focuses on Hawthorne's interest in and knowledge of past Puritan and colonial and contemporary nineteenth century history women's African American Native American as the inspiration for his writings and the source of his literary success The second section explores his fascination with social history and popular culture by examining topics as mesmerism utopian life styles theatrical performances and artistic innovations The third section looks at how Hawthorne succeeded and excelled in the literary marketplace as an author of children's literature literary sketches and historical romances In the fourth section Hawthorne's literary precursors peers colleagues and successors are analyzed In the final section Hawthorne's attachment to family nature and home is examined as the source of creative inspiration and philosophical questing American Modernist Fiction John Dolis, 2023-07-31 American Modernist Fiction Psychoanalytic Recitations of Identity addresses five American Modernist novels in light of Lacanian psychoanalytic theory Nathanael West's Miss Lonelyhearts Kay Boyle's Process Djuna Barnes's Nightwood Thornton Wilder's The Cabala and F Scott Fitzgerald's Tender Is the Night Dolis's dynamic readings constitute a spirited performance of the narrative deploying his own innovative form of literary analysis what he calls performance criticism These psychoanalytic studies simultaneously stage the narrative and re-enact its putative significance provoke and question its intent thereby establishing a dialectics of desire what both affects the body of the narrative and equally the critic's subjectivity Geography and the Production of Space in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Hsuan L. Hsu, 2010-05-06 This book examines how literature represents different kinds of spaces from the single family home to the globe It focuses on how nineteenth century authors drew on literary tools including rhetoric setting and point of view to mediate between individuals and different spaces and re-examines how local spaces were incorporated into global networks Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics Transnational Latina Narratives in the Twenty-first Century Juanita Heredia,2009-08-03

Transnational Latina Narratives is the first critical study of its kind to examine twenty first century Latina narratives by female authors of diverse Latin American heritages based in the U S Heredia s comparative perspective on gender race and migrations between Latin America and the U S demonstrates the changing national landscape that needs to accommodate an ever growing Latino a presence This book draws on the work of Denise Ch vez Sandra Cisneros Marta Moreno Vega Angie Cruz and Marie Arana as well as a diverse blend of popular culture Heredia s thought provoking insights seek to empower the representation of women who are transnational ambassadors in modern trans American literature Transnational Women's Fiction S. Strehle,2008-04-01 This study argues that the private homes in transnational women s fiction reflect public legacies of colonialism Published in Australia Canada India Nigeria Puerto Rico and the United States between 1995 and 2005 the novels use fictional houses to criticize and unsettle home and homeland depicting their linked oppressions and exclusions Transnational Russian-American Travel Writing Margarita Marinova,2012-05-22 In this study Marinova examines the diverse practices of crossing boundaries tactics of translation and experiences of double and multiple political and national attachments evident in texts about Russo American encounters from the end of the American Civil War to the Russian Revolution of 1905 Marinova brings together published writings archival materials and personal correspondence of well or less known travelers of diverse ethnic backgrounds and artistic predilections from the quintessential American Mark Twain to the Russian Jewish ethnographer and revolutionary Vladimir Bogoraz from masters of realist prose such as the Ukrainian born Vladimir Korolenko and the Jewish Russian American Abraham Cahan to romantic wanderers like Edna Proctor Isabel Hapgood or Grigorii Machtet By highlighting the reification of problematic stereotypes of ethnic and racial difference in these texts Marinova illuminates the astonishing success of the Cold War period s rhetoric of mutual hatred and exclusion and its continuing legacy today Diasporic Inquiries into South Asian Women's Narratives Shilpa Daithota Bhat,2020-02-28 The South Asian women s diaspora engages in spatio temporal interactions and power differentials in a variety of narratives articulating agency multiplicities of belonging and culturally integrative practices highlighting homing paradigms The sense of alienness in a new homeland rather in worldwide home places triggers rethinking of diasporic conceptions and epistemes of individual and group histories personal and collective experiences Some of the questions that this anthology seeks to consider are How do women from the South Asian diaspora represent cultural negotiations and alienness of the adopted homeland in various narratives What are the themes issues they select to portray their perceptions of foreignness How do culture history and politics intervene in their portrayal of lived experiences How do they locate themselves in the matrix of foreignness and diaspora The contributors to this anthology examine narratives depicting South

Asian women their complexly positioned voices gesturing at the proliferating challenges and reflecting the grim realities of a globalized world Nineteenth-Century Transatlantic Reprinting and the Embodied Book Jessica DeSpain, 2016-05-06 Until the Chace Act in 1891 no international copyright law existed between Britain and the United States which meant publishers were free to edit text excerpt whole passages add new illustrations and substantially redesign a book's appearance In spite of this ongoing process of transatlantic transformation of texts the metaphor of the book as a physical embodiment of its author persisted Jessica DeSpain's study of this period of textual instability examines how the physical book acted as a major form of cultural exchange between Britain and the United States that called attention to volatile texts and the identities they manifested Focusing on four influential works Charles Dickens's American Notes for General Circulation Susan Warner's The Wide Wide World Fanny Kemble's Journal of a Residence on a Georgian Plantation and Walt Whitman's Democratic Vistas DeSpain shows that for authors readers and publishers struggling with the unpredictability of the textual body the physical book and the physical body became interchangeable metaphors of flux At the same time discourses of destabilized bodies inflected issues essential to transatlantic culture including class gender religion and slavery while the practice of reprinting challenged the concepts of individual identity personal property and national identity
