Traveling Backward Elayne Wareing Fitzpatrick,2009-07-06 TRAVELING BACKWARD is a highly original philosophic romp beyond the youth of old age with a quixotic journalist turned mom turned academic turned peasant It s a kind of light hearted guide to the wisdom of the ages from Socrates to existentialism and beyond gleaned during a struggle to recover the images that fi rst touched her heart and to answer two questions Who am I really Where does the world come from It s a colorful occasionally poignant journey that could help you look at life through the reverent eyes of a child again GLIMPSES OF TRAVELING BACKWARD You two remind me of Peter Pan Trouble is I m not sure which one of you is Peter Pan Well I was taken aback But my mate took action Muttering something negative about fairy stories he headed for the door and disappeared down the hall I started to follow him but changed my mind Instead I headed for the public library to reread Peter Pan Had I missed something Elayne Wareing Fitzpatrick Human life indeed all life is poetry It s we who live it

unconsciously day by day Yet in its inviolable wholeness it lives us it composes us We are works of art but we are not the artist Dare everything need nothing Lou Andreas Salome I relate to Andreas Salome s passionate struggle for truth to her ultimate reverence for all life and to her desire to enjoy intellectual friendships with a variety of men free of sexual overtones Fitzpatrick I was discovering that deep down I didn t really take to popular culture crowds and bustling cities regardless of my curiosity regardless of my journalist s delight in writing about all of it Fitzpatrick If you can t change the world change worlds St Francis of Assisi If I were ever to choose a place away from my country it would surely be a Greek island outside Athens In Greece I feel completely at home Maybe that s because as the poet Shelley said We re all Greeks Our laws our literature our religion our arts have their roots in Greece Fitzpatrick Back straight and head held high he would place his left arm on my right shoulder snap his fingers and lead me in the graceful deliberate movements of the Zorba dance accompanied by a recording of Mozart s 40th played on the bouzouki This against a backdrop of tinkling goat bells and singing monks gathered in a distant church Fitzpatrick Many of the highs and lows in my life have resulted from conflict born of the struggle between my own strong loving nesting needs and my equally strong needs for freedom to think to adventure to discover to express myself Fitzpatrick All parts of this one organic whole this one God are different expressions of the same energy and they are all in communication with each other influencing each other therefore parts of one organic whole Robinson Jeffers How did matter happen that makes the stars and cool planets and living beings And how did the space happen that contains the stars and planets Much is still very hypothetical Much is still unknown Much we will never know Life is struggle pain and suffering But it is also extraordinarily glorious creativity Dr Kai Woehler Like Socrates I ve experienced an inner voice that usually let s me know when I m about to go off track and I ve come to believe with Kant in a moral law within Fitzpatrick Nature wonderful and awe inspiring as it is can t participate in a verbal dialogue can t exchange and explore ideas with the human mind We can relate to the animals the birds the insects the fish and the flora with our most primitive instincts and feel joy spiritual ecstasy in so recognizing our kinship Yet nothing in Nature can compare with the human need for a warm

Belated Travelers Ali Behdad, 1994-08-12 In Belated Travelers Ali Behdad offers a compelling cultural critique of nineteenth century travel writing and its dynamic function in European colonialism Arriving too late to the Orient at a time when tourism and colonialism had already turned the exotic into the familiar late nineteenth century European travelers to the Middle East experienced a sense of belatedness of having missed the authentic experience once offered by a world that was already disappearing Behdad argues that this nostalgic desire for the other contains an implicit critique of Western superiority a split within European discourses of otherness Working from these insights and using analyses of power derived from Foucault Behdad engages in a new critique of orientalism No longer viewed as a coherent and unified phenomenon or a single developmental tradition it is seen as a complex and shifting field of practices that has relied upon its own ambivalence and moments of discontinuity to ensure and maintain its power as a discourse of dominance

Through readings of Flaubert Nerval Kipling Blunt and Eberhardt and following the transition in travel literature from travelog to tourist guide Belated Travelers addresses the specific historical conditions of late nineteenth century orientalism implicated in the discourses of desire and power Behdad also views a broad range of issues in addition to nostalgia and tourism including transvestism and melancholia to specifically demonstrate the ways in which the heterogeneity of orientalism and the plurality of its practice is an enabling force in the production and transformation of colonial power An exceptional work that provides an important critique of issues at the forefront of critical practice today Belated Travelers will be eagerly awaited by specialists in nineteenth century British and French literatures and all concerned with colonial and post colonial discourse

American Travellers Abroad Harold Frederick Smith,1999 Demonstrates that US travelers abroad were not limited to the rich and privileged even in previous centuries by presenting over 2 000 titles with full bibliographic citations and brief evaluative descriptions Arranged alphabetically by author and indexed by place and author s occupation Updated from the 1969 edition with titles subsequently discovered Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

American Travelers on the Nile Andrew Oliver,2015-01-01 The Treaty of Ghent signed in 1814 ending the War of 1812 allowed Americans once again to travel abroad Medical students went to Paris artists to Rome academics to G ttingen and tourists to all European capitals More intrepid Americans ventured to Athens to Constantinople and even to Egypt Beginning with two eighteenth century travelers this book then turns to the 25 year period after 1815 that saw young men from East Coast cities among them graduates of Harvard Yale and Columbia traveling to the lands of the Bible and of the Greek and Latin authors they had first known as teenagers Naval officers off ships of the Mediterranean squadron visited Cairo to see the pyramids Two groups went on business one importing steam powered rice and cotton mills from New York the other exporting giraffes from the Kalahari Desert for wild animal shows in New York Drawing on unpublished letters and diaries together with previously neglected newspaper accounts as well as a handful of published accounts this book offers a new look at the early American experience in Egypt and the eastern Mediterranean world More than thirty illustrations complement the stories told by the travelers themselves

Decay and Afterlife Aleksandra Prica,2022-02-17

Covering 800 years of intellectual and literary history Prica considers the textual forms of ruins Western ruins have long been understood as objects riddled with temporal contradictions whether they appear in baroque poetry and drama Romanticism's nostalgic view of history eighteenth century paintings of classical subjects or even recent photographic histories of the ruins of postindustrial Detroit Decay and Afterlife pivots away from our immediate visual fascination with ruins focusing instead on the textuality of ruins in works about disintegration and survival Combining an impressive array of literary philosophical and historiographical works both canonical and neglected and encompassing Latin Italian French German and English sources Aleksandra Prica addresses ruins as textual forms examining them in their extraordinary geographical and temporal breadth highlighting their variability and reflexivity and uncovering new lines of aesthetic and intellectual affinity Through close readings she traverses eight hundred years of intellectual and literary history from Seneca and Petrarch to Hegel Goethe and Georg Simmel She tracks European discourses on ruins as they metamorphose over time identifying surprising resemblances and resonances ignored contrasts and tensions as well as the shared apprehensions and ideas that come to light in the excavation of these discourses
