Traveling Literary America A Complete Guide To Literary Landmarks:

Traveling Literary America B. J. Welborn, 2005 Readers and travelers are guided to more than 200 homes and historic sites of America's greatest writers from the Jack London Ranch in northern California to William Faulkner's home in Oxford Mississippi Clear driving directions and visitor instructions are combined with unique tidbits about each site and author such as the story of Jack London's custom made furniture and the roll top desk and Dictaphone on display in his study Literary enthusiasts are guided to the site of Thoreau's bean field where they can poke around an exact replica of his cabin They can drop in on Margaret Mitchell's recently restored Atlanta apartment or visit John Steinbeck's haunts in the cozy California seaside town of Pacific Grove This family oriented user friendly guide teaches literary folk about writers work their philosophies and the forces that compelled them to write All 50 states are represented and the literary sites are divided by geographic regions

Material Cultures in Canada Thomas Allen, Jennifer Blair, 2015-06-18 Material Cultures in Canada presents the vibrant and diverse field of material culture studies in Canadian literary artistic and political contexts today The first of its kind this collection features sixteen essays by leading scholars in Canada each of whom examines a different object of study including the beaver geraniums comics water a musical playlist and the human body The book's three sections focus in turn on objects that are persistently material on things whose materiality blends into the immaterial and on the materials of spaces Contributors highlight some of the most exciting new developments in the field such as the emergence of new materialism affect theory globalization studies and environmental criticism Although the book has a Canadian centre the majority of its contributors consider objects that cross borders or otherwise resist national affiliation This collection will be valuable to readers within and outside of Canada who are interested in material culture studies and in addition will appeal to anyone interested in the central debates taking place in Canadian political and cultural life today such as climate change citizenship shifts in urban and small town life and the persistence of imperialism
