Travellers Gypsies Roma The Demonisation Of Difference:

Travellers, Gypsies, Roma Jean Ryan Hakizimana, 2009-10-02 This volume hopes to act as a catalyst for some new and exciting areas of enquiry in the more liminal interstices of Irish Studies Traveller Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies These disciplines are all relatively new areas of enquiry in modern Ireland a country whose society has witnessed very rapid and wide ranging cultural and demographic change within the short space of a decade The issue of multiculturalism is not one which is particularly new to Irish society as a number of contributors to this volume point out What is new however is an increased acknowledgement of diversity and multiculturalism in Ireland and Europe as a whole Such an acknowledgement makes increased dialogue between mainstream society older minorities such as the Irish Travellers and the many newer immigrant communities such as the Roma all the more necessary For such constructive dialogue to take place it is vital that migratory peoples and their particular expressions of postcolonial identity be voiced and valued These identities are both complex and diverse and frequently straddle a number of countries and national identities It is hoped that this volume will go some way towards the cultivation of such dialogue Gypsies and Travellers Joanna Richardson, Andrew Richard Ryder, 2012 This title brings together some of the top experts in their fields to help the reader to understand Gypsy and traveller identity Gypsies David Cressy, 2018-06-28 Gypsies Egyptians Romanies and more recently Travellers Who are these marginal and mysterious people who first arrived in England in early Tudor times Are claims of their distant origins on the Indian subcontinent true or just another of the many myths and stories that have accreted around them over time Can they even be regarded as a single people or ethnicity at all Gypsies have frequently been vilified and not much less frequently romanticized by the settled population over the centuries Social historian David Cressy now attempts to disentangle the myth from the reality of Gypsy life over more than half a millennium of English history In this the first comprehensive historical study of the doings and dealings of Gypsies in England he draws on original archival research and a wide range of reading to trace the many moments when Gypsy lives became entangled with those of villagers and townsfolk religious and secular authorities and social and moral reformers Crucially it is a story not just of the Gypsy community and its peculiarities but also of England's treatment of that community from draconian Elizabethan statutes through various degrees of toleration and fascination right up to the tabloid newspaper campaigns against Gypsy and Traveller encampments of more recent years Romani Politics in Contemporary Europe N. Sigona, N. Trehan, 2009-11-30 This book examines experiences of Romani political participation in eastern and western Europe providing an understanding of the emerging political space that over 8 million Romani citizens occupy within the EU and addressing issues related to the socio political circumstances of Romani communities within European countries Making Sense of Place Ian Convery, Gerard Corsane, Peter Davis, 2014 Essays dealing with the question of how sense of place is constructed in a variety of locations and media The term sense of place is an important multidisciplinary concept used to understand the complex processes through which individuals and groups define themselves and their relationship to their natural and cultural environments and which over the last twenty years or so has been increasingly defined theorized and used across diverse disciplines in different ways Sense of place mediates our relationship with the world and with each other it provides a profoundly important foundation for individual and community identity It can be an intimate deeply personal experience yet also something which we share with others It is at once recognizable but never constant rather it is embodied in the flux between familiarity and difference Research in this area requires culturally and geographically nuanced analyses approaches that are sensitive to difference and specificity event and locale The essays collected here drawn from a variety of disciplines including but not limited to sociology history geography outdoor education museum and heritage studies health and English literature offer an international perspective on the relationship between people and place via five interlinked sections Histories Landscapes and Identities Rural Sense of Place Urban Sense of Place Cultural Landscapes Conservation Biodiversity and Tourism Ian Convery is Reader in Conservation and Forestry National School of Forestry University of Cumbria Gerard Corsane is Senior Lecturer in Heritage Museum and Gallery Studies International Centre for Cultural and Heritage Studies Newcastle University Peter Davis is Professor of Museology International Centre for Cultural and Heritage Studies Newcastle University Contributors Doreen Massey Ian Convery Gerard Corsane Peter Davis David Storey Mark Haywood Penny Bradshaw Vincent O'Brien Michael Woods Jesse Heley Carol Richards Suzie Watkin Lois Mansfield Kenesh Djusipov Tamara Kudaibergenova Jennifer Rogers Eunice Simmons Andrew Weatherall Amanda Bingley Michael Clark Rhiannon Mason Chris Whitehead Helen Graham Christopher Hartworth Joanne Hartworth Ian Thompson Paul Cammack Philippe Dub Josie Baxter Maggie Roe Lyn Leader Elliott John Studley Stephanie K Hawke D Jared Bowers Mark Toogood Owen T Nevin Peter Swain Rachel M Dunk Mary Ann Smyth Lisa J Gibson Stefaan Dondeyne Randi Kaarhus Gaia Allison Ellie Lindsay Andrew Ramsay European Roma Professor Eve Rosenhaft, María Sierra, 2022-03-01 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book designed as a resource for scholars educators activists and non specialist readers presents the results of new research on the role of Romani groups in European culture and society since the nineteenth century Its specific focus is on the ways in which Romani actors in their interactions with non Romanies have contributed to shaping Europe's public spaces Twelve chapters recount the experiences and accomplishments of individuals and families from across Europe England France Spain Germany Poland Hungary Romania and Finland and Canada All based on new research and maintaining a focus on the real lives and activities of Romani people rather than on the perspective of the majority societies these studies exemplify the creative presence of Romani people in the fields of politics economics and culture We see them as writers artists and performers political activists and resistance fighters traders and entrepreneurs circus and cinema managers and purveyors of popular science Sensitive to the ambivalent position from which Roma act the cases are linked and contextualized by a general introduction and by section introductions written by leading scholars of

Romani Writing Paola Toninato,2013-12-17 The Roma commonly known as Gypsies have largely been depicted in writings and in popular culture as an illiterate group However as Romani Writing shows the Roma have a deep understanding of literacy and its implications and use writing for a range of different purposes While some Romani writers adopt an oral use of the written medium which aims at opposing and deconstructing anti Gypsy stereotypes other Romani authors use writing for purposes of identity building Writing is for Romani activists and intellectuals a key factor in establishing a shared identity and introducing a common language that transcends linguistic and geographical boundaries between different Romani groups Romani authors acting in between different cultures and communication systems regard writing as an act of cultural mediation through which they are able to rewrite Gypsy images and negotiate their identity while retaining their ethnic specificity Indeed Romani Writing demonstrates how Romani authors have started to create self images in which the Roma are no longer portrayed as objects but become subjects of written representation
