We Want You To Know Kids Talk About Bullying:

We Want You to Know Deborah Ellis, 2009-02-01 Through her association with a community anti bullying campaign launched in Haldimand Norfolk and neighboring communities in Southern Ontario children s author Deborah Ellis asked students from the ages of nine to nineteen to talk about their experiences with bullying The results are thoughtful candid and often harrowing accounts of business as usual in and around today s schools The kids in this book raise questions about the way parents teachers and school administrators cope with bullies They talk about which methods have helped and which ones with the best of intentions have failed to protect them And some kids reveal how they have been able to overcome their fear and anger to become strong advocates for the rights of others This is a book for reading and sharing Each interview is followed by questions that will encourage open discussion about the nature of bullying and the ways in which individuals and schools could deal more effectively with bullies and their victims And additional comments from international students reveal how much kids the world over have in common in the way they experience and deal with bullies These kids have something to say It s time we listened

We Want You to Know Ellis Deborah, 2013-06-07 Several students some bullies and some of the bullies targets tell their stories of depression and despair as well as of courage and hope Caring Hearts and Critical Minds Steven Wolk, 2013 Wolk demonstrates how to integrate inquiry learning exciting and contemporary literature and teaching for social responsibility across the curriculum He takes teachers step by step through the process of designing an inquiry based literature unit and then provides five full units used in real middle grade classrooms Featuring a remarkable range of recommended resources and hundreds of novels from across the literary genres Caring Hearts Critical Minds gives teachers a blueprint for creating dynamic units with rigorous lessons about topics kids care about from media and the environment to personal happiness and global poverty Wolk shows teachers how to find stimulating real world complex texts called for in the Common Core State Standards and integrate them into literature units Publisher s website

Who Says Bullies Rule? Catherine DePino, 2011-08-16 Who Says Bullies Rule Common Sense Tips to Help Your Kids Cope gives parents practical bully prevention tips for their elementary and middle school children It helps parents empower their children to stop bullying before it veers out of control and teaches parents to navigate their school systems channels to stop bullies from bothering their children Additionally the book arms parents with workable suggestions they can offer their children for dealing with different types of bullies such as teasers excluders intimidators and cyber bullies The most important feature of Who Says Bullies Rule and what sets it apart from other books is that it underscores the importance of having children use their common sense to anticipate and deal with bullies actions No child should ever have to tolerate physical or mental abuse at the hands of a bully Parents are the first line of defense against bullying Using a conversational tone with myriad examples Who Says Bullies Rule shows parents what they need to do to help keep their children safe

Peep Show for Children Only Dave Warwak, 2008-05-07 Peep Show For Children Only exposes real life behind the scenes dramas documenting the struggle to maintain the status quo The author Dave Warwak chronicles his trials and pursuits to teach humane education to his middle school art students against his principal's orders Complete with actual documentation of State of Illinois courtroom proceedings Warwak presents compelling arguments about the human condition as he draws open the curtain hiding society's ills Just as Scopes changed the landscape of education with his Monkey Trials some 80 years ago Warwak has come forward in present day with striking revelations about our current failing educational system and offers clear no nonsense solutions that chill one to the bone Foreword by Dr T Colin Campbell PhD Dr Will Tuttle PhD <http://peepshowforchildrenonly.com>

Muslim Educators in American Communities Charles L. Glenn, 2018-08-01 Political rhetoric and popular concern about the presence in the United States Canada and Western Europe of immigrants from predominantly Muslim societies has remained largely detached from the actual reality of the lives and the contributions of these immigrants and their children The studies presented here seek to correct this ignorant reaction by presenting objective information from schools that such immigrants have created and sustained The first looked at seven explicitly Islamic secondary schools focusing on the formation of character and American citizenship while the other studied public charter schools established by immigrants from Turkey focusing on academic outcomes Do faith based schools cause social divisions Do their students fail to become good citizens who can cooperate with those of other faiths This familiar accusation against Catholic and more recently against Evangelical schools is now directed against Islamic schools in Western societies The studies presented here offer objective information from schools established by Muslim immigrants across the United States with reassuring results Praise for Muslim Educators in American Communities Dr Charles Glenn takes us inside US Islamic schools and offers a rare insight into the thoughts and emotions of young American Muslims A must read for Non Muslims as well as Muslims his book provides a taste for those curious about what goes on in Islamic schools as well as evidence of the results of an Islamic School education Sufia Azmat Executive Director Council of Islamic Schools in North America Every wave of immigration throughout American history has brought with it an undertow of fear often centered on the religious schools new immigrants form In every instance those fears have proven unfounded and so they are today Through careful on the ground research Charles Glenn and colleagues take us into new Islamic secondary schools and discover the important role these faith based schools are playing in forming virtuous citizens capable and committed to being a positive influence within American civic life This book is a valuable and timely contribution James Davison Hunter Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture University of Virginia
