What Is An American Muslim Embracing Faith And Citizenship:

What Is an American Muslim? 'Abd Allāh Aḥmad Na'im, 2014-03 Abdullah An na im offers a pioneering exploration of American Muslim citizenship and identity arguing against the prevalent emphasis on majority minority politics and instead promoting a shared citizenship that both accommodates and transcends religious identity Many scholars and community leaders have called on American Muslims to engage with or integrate into mainstream American culture Such calls tend to assume that there is a distinctive monolithic minority religious identity for American Muslims Rejecting the closed categories that determine the minority status of a particular group and that in turn impede active engaged citizenship An na im draws attention to the relational nature of identity emphasizing a common base of national membership and advancing a legal approach to a public recognition of a person s status as citizen Rather than perceive themselves or accept being perceived by others as a monolithic minority he argues American Muslims should view themselves as American citizens who happen to be Muslims As American citizens they share a vast array of identities with other American citizens whether ethnic political or socio economic But none of these identities qualify or limit their citizenship An na im urges members of the American Muslim community to take a proactive affirmative view of their citizenship in order to realize their rights fully and fulfill their obligations in social and cultural as well as political and legal terms He shows that the freedom to associate with others in order to engage in civic action to advance rights and interests is integral to the underlying rationale of citizenship and not something that must be relinquished to become an American citizen What Is an American Muslim provides acute insight into the nature of citizenship and identity the place of religious affiliation in American society and what it means to share in a collective identity

Negotiating State and Non-State Law Michael A. Helfand, 2015-07-02 Non state law is playing an increasing role in both public and private ordering Numerous organizations have emerged alongside the nation state each purporting to provide their members with rules and norms to govern their conduct and organize their affairs The nation state increasingly finds itself sandwiched between two broad and contrasting categories of non state law The first law above the state captures legal systems that function across the territorial borders of nation states The second category law below the state includes forms of local customary religious and indigenous law As these forms of non state law persist and proliferate alongside the nation state the relationship between state and non state law becomes more complex multifaceted and tense This volume addresses this relationship considering whether and to what extent state and non state law can coexist and how each form of law seeks to influence as well as transform the other

The Idea of European Islam Mohammed Hashas, 2018-07-24 Suspensions about the integration of Islam into European cultures have been steadily on the rise and dramatically so since 9 11 One reason lies in the visibility of anti Western Islamic discourses of salafi origin which have monopolized the debate on the true Islam not only among Muslims but also in the eyes of the general population across Europe these discourses combined with Islamophobic discourses reinforce the so called incompatibility between the West and Islam This book breaks away from this clash between Islam and the West by arguing that European Islam is possible It analyzes the contribution that European Islam has made to the formation of an innovative Islamic theology that is deeply ethicist and modern and it clarifies how this constructed European Islamic theology is able to contribute to the various debates that are related to secular liberal democracies of Western Europe Part I introduces four major projects that defend the idea of European Islam from different disciplines and perspectives politics political theology jurisprudence and philosophy Part II uses the frameworks from three major philosophers and scholars to approach the idea of European Islam in the context of secular liberal societies British scholar George Hourani Moroccan philosopher Taha Abderrahmane and the American philosopher John Rawls The book shows that the ongoing efforts of European Muslim thinkers to revisit the concept of citizenship and political community can be seen as a new kind of political theology in opposition to radical forms of Islamic thinking in some Muslim majority countries Opening a new path for examining Islamic thought in and of Europe this book will appeal to students and scholars of Islamic Studies Islam in the West and Political Theology American Islamophobia Khaled A. Beydoun, 2018-04-03 Introduction crossroads and intersections What is Islamophobia The roots of modern Islamophobia A reoriented clash of civilizations War on terror war on Muslims A radical or imagined threat Between anti black racism and Islamophobia The fire next time Epilogue homecomings and goings
