World Spectators Cultural Memory In The Present:

Philosophical Imagination and Cultural Memory Patricia Cook, 1993 Does philosophy have a future Postmodern thought with its rejection of claims to absolute truth or moral objectivity would seem to put the philosophical enterprise in jeopardy In this volume some of today's most influential thinkers face the question of philosophy's future and find an answer in its past Their efforts show how historical traditions are currently being appropriated by philosophy how some of the most provocative questions confronted by philosophers are given their impetus and direction by cultural memory Unlike analytic philosophy a discipline supposedly liberated from any manifestation of cultural memory the movement represented by these essays demonstrates how the inquiries narratives traditions and events of our cultural past can mediate some of the most interesting exercises of the present day philosophical imagination Attesting to the power of historical tradition to enhance and redirect the prospects of philosophy these essays exemplify a new mode of doing philosophy The product of a National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Institute in 1990 it is the task of this book to show that history can be reclaimed by philosophy and resurrected in postmodernity Contributors George Allan Eva T H Brann Arthur C Danto Lynn S Joy George L Kline George R Lucas Jr Alasdair MacIntyre Robert C Neville John Rickard Stanley Rosen J B Scheenwind Donald Phillip Verene Return Engagements Viet Lê, 2021-04-12 In Return Engagements artist and critic Vi t L examines contemporary art in Cambodia and Vi t Nam to rethink the entwinement of militarization trauma diaspora and modernity in Southeast Asian art Highlighting artists tied to Phnom Penh and S i G n and drawing on a range of visual art as well as documentary and experimental films L points out that artists of Southeast Asian descent are often expected to address the twin traumas of armed conflict and modernization and shows how desirable art on these themes is on international art markets As the global art market fetishizes trauma and violence artists strategically align their work with those tropes in ways that L suggests allow them to reinvent such aesthetics and discursive spaces By returning to and refashioning these themes artists such as Tiffany Chung Rithy Panh and Sopheap Pich challenge categorizations of diasporic and local by situating themselves as insiders and outsiders relative to Cambodia and Vi t Nam By doing so they disrupt dominant understandings of place time and belonging in contemporary art Goethe's Faust and Cultural Memory Lorna Fitzsimmons, 2012-08-17 This book is an interdisciplinary collection of essays examining Goethe's Faust and its derivatives in European North American and South American cultural contexts Topics include the authority of the word in Faust and Dr Faustus cultural memory of Herder the Eternal Feminine Coleridge's responses to Faust Argentinean adaptations performances by Peter Stein and the Goetheanum Canadian reception of Faust Werner Fritsch's multimedia project Faust Sonnengesang and the relevance of Faust for models of artificial intelligence Milton and the Post-Secular Present Feisal Mohamed, 2011-08-09 Milton and the Post Secular Present defines and critiques the term post secular as it appears in current thought bringing its implications into sharp relief by comparison to the pre secular works of John Milton The Intimacies of Hatred Rani Jean Neutill, 2007 T&T Clark

Baker, 2014-01-02 Combining the insights of many leading New Testament scholars writing on the use of social identity theory this new reference work provides a comprehensive handbook to the construction of social identity in the New Testament Part one examines key methodological issues and the ways in which scholars have viewed and studied social identity including different theoretical approaches and core areas or topics which may be used in the study of social identity such as food social memory and ancient media culture Part two presents worked examples and in depth textual studies covering core passages from each of the New Testament books as they relate to the construction of social identity Adopting a case study approach in line with sociological methods the volume builds a picture of how identity was structured in the earliest Christ movement Contributors include Philip Esler Warren Carter Paul Middleton Rafael Rodriguez and Robert Brawley

Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood Heather Snell, Lorna Hutchison, 2013-11-07 The essays in this collection address the relationship between children and cultural memory in texts both for and about young people The collection overall is concerned with how cultural memory is shaped contested forgotten recovered and re circulated sometimes in opposition to dominant national narratives and often for the benefit of young readers who are assumed not to possess any prior cultural memory From the innovative development of school libraries in the 1920s to the role of utopianism in fixing cultural memory for teen readers it provides a critical look into children and ideologies of childhood as they are represented in a broad spectrum of texts including film poetry literature and architecture from Canada the United States Japan Germany Britain India and Spain These cultural forms collaborate to shape ideas and values in turn contributing to dominant discourses about national and global citizenship The essays included in the collection imply that childhood is an oft imagined idealist construction based in large part on participation identity and perception childhood is invisible and tangible exciting and intriguing and at times elusive even as cultural and literary artifacts recreate it Children and Cultural Memory in Texts of Childhood is a valuable resource for scholars of children's literature and culture readers interested in childhood and ideology and those working in the fields of diaspora and postcolonial studies

Niklas Luhmann's Modernity William Rasch, 2000 An introduction to the nature of modernity as envisioned by Germany's leading social theorist of the late 20th century Niklas Luhmann The book injects concepts derived from Luhmann's influential systems theory into debates about modernity and postmodernity constructivist and foundationalist epistemologies the relationship between politics and ethics and the possibilities of interdisciplinary work that spans the great divide between science and the humanities The book stages challenging engagements with such thinkers as Jürgen Habermas, Jacques Derrida, Jean-François Lyotard, Drucilla Cornell, Judith Butler, Michel Serres, N. Katherine Hayles and such political theorists as Chantal Mouffe and Carl Schmitt. The book closes with two interviews: one a discussion with Luhmann and Hayles on epistemology, the other with Luhmann on the functional differentiation of modern society. American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company, 1978 Shakespeare Worldwide and the Idea of an Audience Tina Krontiris, Jyotsna Singh, 2007 Dead Certainty Jennifer Louise Culbert, 2008. Dead Certainty is about the challenge of judging matters of public concern without a common sense of the good or other shared criteria that validate final decisions. Examining both the philosophical and the practical aspects of this challenge, this book focuses on United States Supreme Court opinions that authorize and regulate the practice of sentencing people to death. Unlike other books that discuss capital punishment, it does not argue for or against the death penalty. Instead, Dead Certainty contributes to a larger project in contemporary political and legal philosophy: reimagining how people in today's world give coherence and meaning to their shared experience. Culbert's work will be of interest to scholars of political theory, jurisprudence, law, and society, rhetoric, continental philosophy, and ethics. Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 2000 The Journal of Pre-Raphaelite Studies, 2005 Spectator COTF YRL1, 1914 Cultural Memory Studies Astrid Erll, Ansgar Nünning, Sara B. Young, 2008. This handbook represents the interdisciplinary and international field of cultural memory studies for the first time in one volume. Articles by renowned international scholars offer readers a unique overview of the key concepts of cultural memory studies. The handbook not only documents current research in an unprecedented way; it also serves as a forum for bringing together approaches from areas as varied as sociology, political sciences, history, theology, literary studies, media studies, philosophy, psychology, and neurosciences. Cultural memory studies, as defined in this handbook, came into being at the beginning of the 20th century with the works of Maurice Halbwachs on mémoire collective. In the course of the last two decades, this area of research has witnessed a veritable boom in various countries and disciplines. As a consequence, the study of the relation of culture and memory has diversified into a wide range of approaches. This handbook is based on a broad understanding of cultural memory as the interplay of present and past in sociocultural contexts. It presents concepts for the study of individual remembering in a social context, group and family memory, national memory, the various media of memory, and finally the host of emerging transnational lieux de mémoire such as 9/11.
