Progress in Mid Twentieth Century America author Douglas Horlock contends that the director s work warrants sustained scholarly attention Examining all of Daves s films as well as his screenplays scripts that were not filmed and personal papers Horlock argues that Daves was a serious distinctive and enlightened filmmaker whose work confronts the general conservatism of Hollywood in the mid twentieth century Horlock considers Daves s films through the lenses of political and social values race and civil rights and gender and sexuality Ultimately Horlock suggests that Daves s work through its examination of bigotry and irrational fear and depiction of institutional and personal morality and freedom presents a consistent innovative and progressive vision of America Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1989 The Living Age ,1903
