Debating Otherness with Richard Kearney: Perspectives from South Africa Daniël P. Veldsman, Yolande Steenkamp, 2018-12-31 Richard Kearney is one of the leading global thinkers in both Continental philosophy and post metaphysical philosophy of religion as well as an esteemed Irish professor in philosophy currently teaching at Boston College Massachusetts USA Professor Kearney first visited South Africa in May as joint visiting academic of the Universities of Stellenbosch Pretoria and North West The visit prompted the publication of this scholarly collected work authored by South African and international scholars These specialists in philosophy and religious studies analysed Kearney's influential work and brought his scholarly perspectives into dialogue with other leading thinkers in the field both from Africa and abroad This publication will be the first collective attempt to engage his work from the perspective of the African continent This collected work contributes significantly in an interdisciplinary way to Ricoeurian studies The target audience of the book is peers and specialists in the field of Continental philosophy and philosophy of religion

Transforming Encounters and Critical Reflection: African Thought, Critical Theory, and Liberation Theology in Dialogue Justin Sands, Anné Hendrik

Verhoef, 2018-12-04 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Transforming Encounters and Critical Reflection

African Thought Critical Theory and Liberation Theology in Dialogue that was published in Religions

Living With the Other Avi Sagi, 2019-01-13 The book grapples with one of the most difficult questions confronting the contemporary world

the problem of the other which includes ethical political and metaphysical aspects A widespread approach in the history of the discourse on the other systematically formulated by Emmanuel Levinas and his followers has invested this term with an almost mythical quality the other is everybody else but never a specific person an abstraction of historical human existence This book offers an alternative view turning the other into a real being through a carefully described process involving two dimensions referred to as the ethic of loyalty to the visible and the ethic of inner retreat Tracing the course of this process in life and in literature the book presents a broad and lucid picture intriguing to philosophers and also accessible to readers concerned with questions touching on the meaning of life ethics and politics and particularly relevant to the burning issues surrounding attitudes to immigrants as others and to the relationship with God the ultimate other

The Vanguard Messiah

Sami Sjöberg, 2015-08-17 In recent years the role of religion in the avant garde has begun to attract scholarly interest The present volume focuses on the work of the Romanian Jewish poet and visual artist Isidore Isou 1925 2007 who founded the lettrist movement in the 1940s The Jewish tradition played a critical part in the Western avant garde as represented by lettrism The links between lettrism and Judaism are substantial yet they have been largely unexplored until now The study investigates the works of a movement that explicitly emphasises its vanguard position while relying on a medieval religious tradition as a source of radical textual techniques It accounts for lettrism's renunciation of mainstream traditions in favour of a subversive tradition in this case Jewish mysticism The religious inclination of lettrism also affects the notion of the avant garde The elements of the Jewish tradition in Isou s theories and artistic production evoke a broader framework where religion and experimental art supplement each other

Romantic Dialogues and Afterlives Monika Coghen, Anna Paluchowska-Messing, 2020 Romantic writers often asserted their individuality but this assertion tended to take the form of positioning themselves in relation to other authors and literary texts Thus they implicitly acknowledged the rich network of broadly understood poetic dialogue as an important and potent source for their own creativity When in 1816 John Keats wrote Great spirits now on earth are sojourning he celebrated the originality of his contemporaries and the historical significance of his times pointing to deep interest in the hum of mighty works in all the fields of human activity to which the nations ought to listen Keats s sonnet suggests not only stimulating exchanges between poets artists and social thinkers in the same language but also the idea of transnational appreciation and dialogue The volume takes up this idea and explores the dialogues of Romantic authors within the wide scope of European and American cultures Essays by scholars from Germany Britain Bulgaria Poland Canada and the United States of America examine Romantic writers responses to their contemporaries explore their dialogues with the culture of the past and their interactions across the arts and sciences They also scrutinize the Romantics far reaching influence on later writers and artists and thus extend the network of artistic exchange to modern times The volume offers a rich tapestry of interconnections that span across time and space interlace languages and cultures and link Romantic writers and artists with their predecessors and successors across Europe and America The essays in the collection invite the reader to join ongoing dialogues between writers and their audiences of the past and present

Phenomenology and Existentialism in the Twentieth Century Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2009-09-30 Phenomenology and existentialism transformed understanding and experience of the Twentieth Century to their core They had strikingly different inspirations and yet the two waves of thought became merged as both movements flourished The present collection of research devoted to these movements and their unfolding interaction is now especially revealing The studies in this first volume to be followed by two succeeding ones range from the predecessors of existentialism Kierkegaard Jean Wahl Nietzsche to the work of its adherents Shestov Berdyaev Unamuno Blondel Blumenberg Heidegger and Mamardashvili Dufrenne and Merleau Ponty to existentialism s congruence with Christianity or with atheism Among the leading Husserlian insights are treated essence and experience the place of questioning ethics and intentionality temporality and passivity and the life world The following book will uncover the perennial concerns guiding the wondrous interplay of these two inspirational sources

Reality, Religion, and Passion Jessica Frazier, 2009-01-01 Radical doubt about the truths that govern life has posed a problem for thinkers in many different cultures and periods This study uncovers the solutions offered by a postmodern Western thinker Hans Georg Gadamer and an early modern Indian thinker Rupa Gosvami each of whom offers a renewed postskeptical vision of a revitalized life that is firmly rooted in the transcendental truths of
