Transforming The Stone Preaching Through Resistance To Change:

Transforming the Stone Barbara K. Lundblad, 2001 Barbara Lundblad contends that to preach is to engage a specific community of Christians in a process of gradual growth and change While every parish has its unique attributes and needs there are some basic dynamics at work in moving a congregation through resistance and toward transformation Lundblad focuses our attention on these dynamics as she describes a program of preaching meant to re fashion a people The steps include building a foundation of grace re imaging Jesus naming and honoring the wounds of community members naming and removing obstacles to change describing alternative futures and daring hope The author addresses each of these themes separately in chapters that include a brief introduction two sample sermons and a conclusion This book for preachers provides a model for transformation preaching Prophetic Preaching Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 2010-08-09 Where have all the prophets gone And why do preachers seem to shy away from prophetic witness Astute preacher Leonora Tisdale considers these vexing questions while providing guidance and encouragement to pastors who want to recommit themselves to the task of prophetic witness With a keen sensitivity to pastoral contexts Tisdale s work is full of helpful suggestions and examples to help pastors structure and preach prophetic sermons considered by many to be one of the most difficult tasks pastors are called to undertake A Handbook for Catholic Preaching Edward Foley, 2016 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more encyclopedic approach devoid of footnotes yet supported by pertinent bibliography and an extensive index provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty first century General Editor Edward Foley Associate Editors Catherine Vincie Richard N Fragomeni Contributors Herbert Anderson John F Baldovin Alden Lee Bass Dianne Bergant Stephen Bevans Robert Bireley John Carr Anthony Collamati Michael E Connors Gueric DeBona Frank DeSiano William T Ditewig Con Foley Edward Foley Richard N Fragomeni Ann M Garrido Gregory Heille Lucy Lind Hogan Patrick R Lagges David J Lose Barbara K Lundblad Ricky Manalo Robert F Morneau Carolyn Muessig vanThanh Nguyen Mary Margaret Pazdan Patricia Parachini Jorge Presmanes Craig Alan Satterlee Catherine Vincie Richard Vosko James A Wallace Margaret Moers Wenig Alex Zenthoefer Shouting Above the Noisy Crowd: Biblical Wisdom and the Urgency of Preaching Charles L. Aaron, Jaime Clark-Soles, 2021-11-09 What could we accomplish if only we acted more wisely Could we mitigate the effects of diseases help the vulnerable feel safer make progress on justice cooperate on common problems We don't see enough wisdom but neither did Woman Wisdom herself who cried out in the streets wanting to gain attention For every preacher who feels the urgency for more wisdom this book has heard you We know the urgency and we want to help With contributions from O Wesley Allen Karoline M Lewis John C Holbert Ruthanna Hooke David Schnasa Jacobsen J Dwayne Howell Margaret Wenig Luke Powery Eunjoo Kim A Sermon Workbook Leonara Tubbs Tisdale, Thomas H. Troeger, 2013-10-15 Both experienced and novice preachers need a new approach for sermon development skill building A Sermon Workbook offers a unique and flexible resource that is instantly accessible and useful for anyone tasked with the proclamation of the Word The workbook format can be used in a linear fashion beginning to end Or readers can pick and choose the chapters to tailor fit their own needs In either case readers build skill upon skill working through inventive and engaging exercises first developed and taught at Yale Divinity School The book addresses the skills and arts that are essential for effective preaching in our multi tasking multi ethnic sound bite society It offers theological clarity about why we preach and what matters most The creative collaborative and charming authors present the principles as they do in their classroom in two voices one male and one female with the two complementing and supporting one another Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God's future in our lives and confirming God's active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament. Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships: marginality, ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life. While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching, the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory, namely a psalmic theological homiletic. This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement. This re-envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel's psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith. Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers' habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope-filled life through communal anticipation of God's coming future on the margins. Specifically, this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement: i.e. lament, retelling a story, confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice.

Stand-Up Preaching Jacob D. Myers, 2022-10-06 Few vocations share more in common with preaching than stand up comedy. Each profession demands attention to the speaker's bodily and facial gestures, tone and inflection, timing and thoughtful engagement with contemporary contexts. Furthermore, both preaching and stand up arise out of creative tension with homiletic or comedic traditions respectively. Every time the preacher steps into the pulpit or the comedian steps onto the stage, they must measure their words and gestures against their audience's expectations and assumptions. They participate in a kind of dance that is at once choreographed and open to improvisation. It is these and similar commonalities between preaching and stand up comedy that this book engages. Stand Up Preaching does not aim to help preachers tell better jokes. The focus of this book is far more expansive. Given the recent popularity of comedy specials, preachers have greater access to a broad array of emerging comics who showcase fresh comedic styles and variations on comedic traditions. Coupled with the perennial Def Comedy Jams on HBO, preachers also have ready access to the work of classic comics who have exhibited great storytelling and stage presence. This book will offer readers tools to discern what is homiletically significant in historical and contemporary stand up routines, equipping them with fresh ways to riff off of their respective preaching traditions and nuanced ways to engage issues of contemporary sociopolitical importance.

Sermons on the First Readings: Cycle C Steven E. Albertin, Charles D. Reeb, Richard Gribble, 2003 Filled with wit, insight and inspiration, this anthology includes sermons for every Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the First Readings from Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary. Three outstanding preachers from diverse denominational backgrounds interpret texts from the Old Testament and Acts in fresh ways that proclaim the good news for the twenty-first century. Their powerful messages remind us that the Hebrew scriptures are much more than just ancient history and explore what they mean for us today. Proclaiming timeless themes of justice and righteousness as well as God's faithful covenant and enduring forgiveness these imaginative homilies call us to lead better more God centered lives This is an essential resource that's useful for Fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts Preaching illustrations A clearer understanding of scripture passages Adult study and discussion groups Personal devotions and Bible study on each Sunday's texts The illustrations in these sermons taken from both classical and common sources as well as personal experiences are worth the price of the book I'll buy any book of sermons that gives me one or two good illustrations that are fresh and believable Charles Reeb is a master at illustrating his points John K Bergland Former Professor of Preaching and Associate Dean Duke Divinity School Former editor Abingdon Preaching Annual
