Autonomy, Accountability and Social Justice Amanda Keddie,Martin Mills,2019-04-10 Autonomy Accountability and Social Justice provides an account of recent developments in English state education with a particular focus on the academisation of schooling It examines how head teachers teachers and others working in diverse education settings navigate the current policy environment The authors provide readers with insight into the complex decision making processes that shape school responses to current educational agendas and examine the social justice implications of these responses The book draws on Nancy Fraser s social justice framework and her theorising of neoliberalism to explore current tensions associated with moves towards both greater autonomy for and accountability of state schooling These tensions are presented through four case studies that centre upon 1 a group of local authority primary schools 2 an academy chain 3 a co operative secondary school and 4 an alternative education setting The book identifies the emancipatory possibilities of these approaches amid the complex demands of autonomy and accountability seizing English schools Informed by a consideration of market parameters and social protectionist ideals this examination provides rich insights into how English schools have emancipatory capacity Autonomy Accountability and Social Justice makes a major theoretical contribution to understandings of how the market is working alongside the regulation of schooling and the implications of this for social justice By drawing on the experiences of those working in schools it demonstrates that the tensions associated with autonomy and accountability within the current education policy environment can be both productive and unproductive for social justice JSL Vol 22-N4

Leadership-as-Practice Joseph Raelin, 2016-01-29 This book develops a new paradigm in the field of leadership studies referred to as the leadership as practice L A P movement Its essence is its conception of leadership as occurring as a practice rather than residing in the traits or behaviours of particular individuals A practice is a coordinative effort among participants who choose through their own rules to achieve a distinctive outcome It also tends to encompass routines as well as problem solving or coping skills often tacit that are shared by a community Accordingly leadership as practice is less about what one person thinks or does and more about what people may accomplish together It is thus concerned with how leadership emerges and unfolds through day to day experience The social and material contingencies impacting the leadership constellation the people who are effecting leadership at any given time do not reside outside of leadership but are very much embedded within it To find leadership then we must look to the practice within which it is occurring The leadership as practice approach resonates with a number of closely related traditions such as collective shared distributed and relational leadership that converge on leadership processes These approaches share a line of inquiry that acknowledges leadership as a social phenomenon The new focus opens up a plethora of research opportunities encouraging the study of social processes beyond influence such as intersubjective agency shared sense making dialogue and co construction of responsibilities

Ideologies in Educational Administration and Leadership Eugenie Samier, 2016-04-28 Ideologies in Educational Administration and Leadership explores ideological dimensions of educational administration in a number of Western and Central European contexts as they influence or shape the understanding analysis and practice in the field covering a broad range of topics such as ethics governance diversity and power The first section Philosophical and Theoretical Foundations includes a range of sociological political and linguistic approaches to examining ideology in an educational context The second section Ideologies of Research and Teaching includes examinations of neoliberal and technological effects on research and teaching as well as ideological shifts and challenges in the West and in Eastern Europe The last section Contemporary and International Issues includes critiques of social media neoliberal impact on schooling managerial leadership university ideologies in Finland the rationalisation of universities and the impact of administrative ideologies on school systems The book will appeal to researchers practitioners policy makers academics as well as post graduates in educational administration theory and related courses in the ethics and politics of education educational leadership and organisational studies Political Philosophy, Educational Administration and Educative Leadership Reynold Macpherson,2013-10-01 In this book Reynold Macpherson initiates a politically critical theory of educative leadership as a fresh line of inquiry in the practice research and theory of educational administration and educational leadership Divided into four parts the book introduces the sub discipline of political philosophy to the field of educational administration management and leadership It does this by clarifying the knowledge domain of each and identifying how four political ideologies specifically pragmatism communitarianism communicative rationalism and egalitarian liberalism have primarily informed and surreptitiously provided contestable justifications for power in the development of practice research and theory in the field of study The book goes on to offer three case studies illustrating how political philosophy can be used to interpret how people become leaders and administrators of educational institutions and systems Additional case studies then demonstrate how crises in governance in educational institutions and systems can be analyzed and improvements made using the tools of political philosophy The final part uses the sub discipline to critique the author s decades of research into educative leadership and concludes the book by both establishing the relativity of politically critical critique and the ideology it favours neo pragmatism Political Philosophy Educational Administration and Educative Leadership will provide practitioners researchers and theorists in educational administration management and leadership with a deeper appreciation of power by formally introducing them to the assumptions limits and tools of political philosophy Education, Law and Diversity Neville Harris,2020-01-09 This new edition of Education Law and Diversity provides extensive updated analysis from a legal perspective of how the education system responds to social diversity and how the relevant social and cultural rights of individuals and groups are affected It spans wide ranging areas of school provision including types of school including faith schools the school curriculum choice of school out of school settings and duties towards children with special needs and disabilities It gives extensive coverage to children s rights in the context of education and includes considerable new material on issues including relationships and sex education exclusion from school home education equal access counter extremism and academisation The new edition also retains and updates areas of debate in the book such as those concerned with multiculturalism and the position of religion in schools It continues to focus on England but also makes reference to other jurisdictions within the UK and internationally It is essential reading for anyone interested in the legal and related policy issues surrounding children s education today How Schools Do Policy Stephen J. Ball,Meg Maguire,Annette Braun,2012 Over the last 20 years international attempts to raise educational standards and improve opportunities for all children have accelerated and proliferated This has generated a state of constant change and an unrelenting flood of initiatives changes and reforms that need to be implemented by schools In response to this a great deal of attention has been given to evaluating how well policies are realised in practice implemented Less attention has been paid to understanding how schools actually deal with these multiple and sometimes contradictory policy demands creatively working to interpret policy texts and translate these into practices in real material conditions and varying resources how they are enacted Based on a long term qualitative study of four ordinary secondary schools and working on the interface of theory with data this book explores how schools enact rather than implement policy It focuses on contexts of policy work in schools teachers as policy subjects teachers as policy actors policy texts artefacts and events standards behaviour and learning policies This book offers an original and very grounded analysis of how schools and teachers do policy It will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students of education education policy and social policy as well as school leaders in the UK and beyond

Co-operation, Learning and Co-operative Values Tom Woodin,2014-10-24 The rapidity of change in education has intensified in recent years With the emergence of co operative schools and a new framework focusing heavily on co operation a direct challenge to ways of thinking about education at both school and university level has developed Co operation Learning and Co operative Values addresses the urgent need to describe analyse and assess the growth of co operative education The relationship between co operation and education is a complex process and this book critically reflects on the tensions and obstacles facing this movement It brings together the contributions of academics and practitioners from a range of backgrounds and explores topics including Theories and histories of co operative values and principles Critical views of the practice of co operative education Case studies of processes in action from both schools and higher education Co operative education in a wider context This book provides an essential introduction to a new and expanding area of research with chapters by many leading commentators in education It will be of interest to researchers and educators interested in education and social policy Handbook of Ethical Educational Leadership Christopher M.
