Transforming Europe Maria Green Cowles, James Caporaso, Thomas Risse, 2018-08-06 Does the European Union change the domestic politics and institutions of its member states Many studies of EU decisionmaking in Brussels pay little attention to the potential domestic impact of European integration Transforming Europe traces the effects of Europeanization on the EU member states The various chapters based on cutting edge research examine the impact of the EU on national court systems territorial politics societal networks public discourse identity and citizenship norms The European Union the authors find does indeed make a difference even in Germany France and the United Kingdom In many cases EU rules and regulations incompatible with domestic institutions have created pressure for national governments to adapt This volume examines the conditions under which this adaptational pressure has led to institutional change in the member states Transforming Europe Maria Green Cowles, James A. Industrial Transformation in Europe Eckhard J Dittrich, Gert Schmidt, Richard Whitley, 1995 This volume is essential reading for all those interested in emergent developments in Europe At a time when the forces of globalization are demanding industrial and organizational transformations throughout industrialized and industrializing nations the book also makes a notable contribution through its unique analysis of the complexities diversities and socio political embeddedness of such major change Focusing particularly on central and eastern Europe the contributors examine the economic management activities of state agencies in the move from command to market economies and the attempted creation of viable firms for such economies They look at the changing roles of different interest groups and the various forms Transformation of Cities in Central and Eastern Europe F. E. Ian Hamilton, Kaliopa Dimitrovska Andrews, Nataša Pichler-Milanović, 2005 Annotation This volume is one in a series initiated by the United Nations University Institute of Advanced Studies on the inter relationship between globalisation and urban transformation It identifies and describes the inter and intra urban transformations of Central and Eastern European cities and considers their pre 1945 historic legacies the socialist period and their contemporary transition towards market oriented and democratic systems The dramatic changes since 1989 including the collapse of Communist ideology the break up of the Soviet Union Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia the end of the Cold War and the impact of globalisation and European integration have reconfigured this region and affected their re integration into European and global networks This book first examines the similarities and differences between significant Central and Eastern European cities comparing the differing patterns of historical context and socialist legacies before 1990 and the impacts of internal and external forces on re shaping these cities and their paths of transformation since 1990 It also examines the role of contemporary planning within the overall development of Central and Eastern European cities The conclusion demonstrates the similarities and differences between Central and Eastern European cities and their re integration into global networks

Transforming Europe Through Crises Didem Buhari, Christian Kaunert, Seckin Baris Gulmez, 2022-11-28 How many Europes is a critical question that led to several attempts to analyse European crises and transformations globally This book builds upon the argument that Europe cannot be reduced to a singular dynamic identity or vision but rather provides a four fold taxonomy Thin Thick Parochial and Global Europe The book contributors aim to respond to the emerging necessity to incorporate both the parochial dynamics unmaking Europe and the globalist dynamics decentering Europe into the analysis of European crises and transformations in diverse sectors ranging from security and foreign policy to the rule of law and democracy Accordingly this book is unpacking Europe in a time of severe crises facing the EU such as Brexit the Syrian refugee crisis Catalan secessionism the rise of far right and terrorism which have accelerated the resurgence of formerly marginalized and repressed dynamics as influential trends in national regional and global politics It reveals an ongoing hegemonic struggle over the representation of Europe among many Europes involving two separate integrationist models of regionalization or Europe making and two distinct dynamics that have sought to fragment and de centre the European Union through nationalism and globalism respectively The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of European Politics and Society

Europe's Transformations Helen Wallace, Nikos Koutsiaras, George Pagoulatos, 2021 Europe s Transformations brings together a group of distinguished academics and practitioners to reflect on the current state of the EU and the many challenges that it faces The contributions are prompted by the seminal work of Loukas Tsoukalis and his relentless provocations about the capabilities of the European process to meet these challenges

Twenty five years after its original publication this new collection of essays pays tribute to Weiler's legacy by discussing some of the most pressing issues in contemporary European Union law policy and constitutionalism. The book does not intend to be a simple expression of intellectual esteem for Weiler's seminal work; instead the collection honours it by critically engaging with some of its assumptions and theses. Overall it shows how a study of 1991 can still be fundamental to the present and future of the EU including the challenges of Brexit and Eurozone crises.
