Transmission Difficulties Franz Boas And Tsimshian Mythology:

Transmission Difficulties Ralph Maud,2000 Ralph Maud delves into the mystery of Boas s alleged translations of stories gathered by his chief Tsimshian informant Henry Tate Indigenous Evangelists and Questions of Authority in the British Empire 1750-1940 ,2015-08-25 This is the first full length historical study of indigenous evangelists across a range of societies geographical regions and colonial regimes and the first to focus on the complex issues of authority surrounding the evangelists It answers a need frequently voiced in recent studies of Christian missions Most scholars now acknowledge that the remarkable expansion of Christianity in Africa Asia and the Pacific in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries owed far more to the efforts of indigenous preachers than to the foreign missionaries who loom so large in publications This book addresses that concern making an excellent introduction to the role of indigenous evangelists in the spread of Christianity and the many countervailing pressures with which these individuals had to contend It also includes in the introductory discussions useful statements of the current state of scholarship and theoretical debates in this field Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories Regna Darnell,Frederic W. Gleach,2019-11-01 Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline s history within a global context with a goal of increasing awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 13 Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America Individual contributions explore the complexity of women s history indigenous history national traditions and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger s examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity Kathy M Closkey s documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands and Mindy Morgan s use of the text of Ruth Underhill s O odham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers Because this work bridges anthropology and history a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels documenting the impact large scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of the same facts White Lies about the Inuit John Steckley,2008-01-01 In this lively book designed specifically for introductory students Steckley unpacks three white lies the myth that there are fifty two words for snow that there are blond blue eyed Inuit descended from the Vikings and that the Inuit send off their elders to die on ice floes Transmission Difficulties Ralph Maud,2000 Ralph Maud delves into the mystery of Boas s alleged translations of stories gathered by his chief Tsimshian informant Henry Tate Anthropologica ,2001 The Blind Man and the Loon

Craig Mishler,2020-02-17 The story of the Blind Man and the Loon is a living Native folktale about a blind man who is betrayed by his mother or wife but whose vision is magically restored by a kind loon Variations of this tale are told by Native storytellers all across Alaska arctic Canada Greenland the Northwest Coast and even into the Great Basin and the Great Plains As the story has traveled through cultures and ecosystems over many centuries individual storytellers have added cultural and local ecological details to the tale creating countless variations In The Blind Man and the Loon The Story of a Tale folklorist Craig Mishler goes back to 1827 tracing the story s emergence across Greenland and North America in manuscripts books and in the visual arts and other media such as film music and dance theater Examining and comparing the story s variants and permutations across cultures in detail Mishler brings the individual storyteller into his analysis of how the tale changed over time considering how storytellers and the oral tradition function within various societies Two maps unequivocally demonstrate the routes the story has traveled The result is a masterful compilation and analysis of Native oral traditions that sheds light on how folktales spread and are adapted by widely diverse cultures Native Studies Review ,2001 Literary Land Claims Margery Fee,2015-07-10 Literature not only represents Canada as our home and native land but has been used as evidence of the civilization needed to claim and rule that land Indigenous people have long been represented as roaming savages without land title and without literature Literary Land Claims From Pontiac s War to Attawapiskat analyzes works produced between 1832 and the late 1970s by writers who resisted these dominant notions Margery Fee examines John Richardson s novels about Pontiac s War and the War of 1812 that document the breaking of British promises to Indigenous nations She provides a close reading of Louis Riel s addresses to the court at the end of his trial in 1885 showing that his vision for sharing the land derives from the Indigenous value of respect Fee argues that both Grey Owl and E Pauline Johnson s visions are obscured by challenges to their authenticity Finally she shows how storyteller Harry Robinson uses a contemporary Okanagan framework to explain how white refusal to share the land meant that Coyote himself had to make a deal with the King of England Fee concludes that despite support in social media for Theresa Spence s hunger strike Idle No More and the Indian Residential School Truth and Reconciliation Commission the story about savage Indians and civilized Canadians and the latter group s superior claim to develop the lands and resources of Canada still circulates widely If the land is to be respected and shared as it should be literary studies needs a new critical narrative one that engages with the ideas of Indigenous writers and intellectuals Minutes of the Charles Olson Society ,2001
