Transnational Mosque Architecture Contemporary Civilization:

The Transnational Mosque Kishwar Rizvi, 2015 Kishwar Rizvi drawing on the multifaceted history of the Middle East offers a richly illustrated analysis of the role of transnational mosques in the construction of contemporary Muslim identity As Rizvi explains transnational mosques are structures built through the support of both government sponsorship whether in the home country or abroad and diverse transnational networks By concentrating on mosques especially those built at the turn of the twenty first century as the epitome of Islamic architecture Rizvi elucidates their significance as sites for both the validation of religious praxis and the construction of national and religious ideologies

The Contemporary British Mosque Abdul-Azim Ahmed, 2024-03-21 Repositioning mosques as social cultural and political spaces this book provides new insights on key contemporary debates the religious identity of Britain secularisation the far right and terrorism and gender equality Exploring the story of the British mosque from house conversions to grand works of architecture and the role they play in public life Abdul Azim Ahmed details the establishment of early mosques during the era of Empire and the rapid growth in the years following the Second World War Ahmed takes a sociological approach to this study drawing on fieldwork and ethnographic case studies alongside reviews of databases and historical documents to provide perspectives on the British mosque from the congregants themselves The Muslim congregation a poorly understood and often overlooked dimension of religion in Britain is examined and issues of diversity denomination sacredness and society are explored

Valences of Historiography Gevork Hartoonian, 2024-12-30 The compiled essays offer various themes and ways of approaching historiography Each chapter probes the state of contemporary theorization of architecture histories working toward the theme of critically re writing history Essential to each author s contribution are specific traditions created by the mole of history burrowing through the past This book concerns the historian s conjectures towards capturing the past and present zeitgeist Temporality is the theme running through the narrative of this volume It raises the question of whether the ever growing body of work on architectural history should be considered as history More specifically what is the intersection between history and architectural history Furthermore can every text focused on architecture s past be considered categorically historiographic In what capacity does architectural history index history beyond contingencies and without reducing the text to empirical realities and the historian s interest in a specific subject including those collected through archival research itself an emblem of textuality This book upholds the conviction that the past should be recalled accurately and that there is no history but historical criticism the scope of which exceeds the historicity of Humanism Dialectically the timeline experienced across contemporary techno economic and cultural domains aesthetics offers an opportunity to explore architecture produced outside the Euro American continents Valences of Historiography offers a fresh take on architectural history that is useful for academics researchers and architecture students

Muslim Pilgrimage in the Modern World Babak Rahimi, Peyman Eshaghi, 2019-04-23 Pilgrimage is one of the most significant ritual duties for Muslims entailing the visitation and veneration of sites associated with the Prophet Muhammad or saintly figures As demonstrated in this multidisciplinary volume the lived religion of pilgrimage defined by embodied devotional practices is changing in an age characterized by commerce technology and new sociocultural and political frameworks Traveling to and far beyond the Hajj the most well known Muslim pilgrimage the volume s contributors reveal and analyze emerging contemporary Islamic pilgrimage practices around the world in minority and majority Muslim countries as well as in urban and rural settings What was once a tiny religious attraction in a remote village for example may begin to draw increasing numbers of pilgrims to shrines and tombs as the result of new means of travel thus triggering significant changes in the traditional rituals and livelihoods of the local people Organized around three key themes history and politics embodiment memory and material religion and communications the book reveals how rituals practices and institutions are experienced in the context of an inexorable global capitalism The volume contributors are Sophia Rose Arjana Rose Aslan Robert R Bianchi Omar Kasmani Azim Malikov Lewis Mayo Julian Millie Reza Masoudi Nejad Paulo G Pinto Babak Rahimi Emilio Spadola Edith Szanto and Brannon Wheeler Everyday Islamic Law and the Making of Modern South Asia Elizabeth Lhost,2022-05-10

Beginning in the late eighteenth century British rule transformed the relationship between law society and the state in South Asia But qazis and muftis alongside ordinary people without formal training in law fought back as the colonial system in India sidelined Islamic legal experts They petitioned the East India Company for employment lobbied imperial legislators for recognition and built robust institutions to serve their communities By bringing legal debates into the public sphere they resisted the colonial state s authority over personal law and rejected legal codification by embracing flexibility and possibility With postcards letters and telegrams they made everyday Islamic law vibrant and resilient and challenged the hegemony of the Anglo Indian legal system Following these developments from the beginning of the Raj through independence Elizabeth Lhost rejects narratives of stagnation and decline to show how an unexpected coterie of scholars practitioners and ordinary individuals negotiated the contests and challenges of colonial legal change The rich archive of unpublished fatwa files qazi notebooks and legal documents they left behind chronicles their efforts to make Islamic law relevant for everyday life even beyond colonial courtrooms and the confines of family law Lhost shows how ordinary Muslims shaped colonial legal life and how their diversity and difference have contributed to contemporary debates about religion law pluralism and democracy in South Asia and beyond Hajj to the Heart Scott Kugle,2021-12-28 Against the sweeping backdrop of South Asian history this is a story of journeys taken by sixteenth century reformist Muslim scholars and Sufi mystics from India to Arabia At the center is the influential Sufi scholar Shaykh Ali Muttaqi and his little known network of disciples Scott Kugle relates how Ali Muttaqi an expert in Arabic scriptural hermeneutics and hadith left his native South Asia and traversed treacherous seas to make the Hajj to Mecca Settling in Mecca he continued to influence his homeland from overseas Kugle draws on his original translations of Arabic and Persian manuscripts never before available in English to trace Ali Muttaqi s devotional writings revealing how the Hajj transformed his spiritual life and political loyalties The story expands across three generations of peripatetic Sufi masters in the Mutaqqi lineage as they travel for purposes of pilgrimage scholarship and sometimes simply for survival along Indian Ocean maritime routes linking global Muslim communities Exploring the political intrigue scholarly debates and diverse social milieus that shaped the colorful personalities of his Sufi subjects Kugle argues for the importance of Indian Sufi thought in the study of hadith and of ethics in Islam We are proud to announce that this book is freely available in an open access enhanced edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of Emory University and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Learn more at the TOME website openmonographs.org The open access enhanced edition of Hajj to the Heart can be found here <https://manifold.emory.edu/projects/hajj-to-the-heart>

Realizing Islam Zachary Valentine Wright, 2021-07-01 The Tijaniyya is the largest Sufi order in West and North Africa In this unprecedented analysis of the Tijaniyya s origins and development in the late eighteenth century Zachary Valentine Wright situates the order within the broader intellectual history of Islam in the early modern period Introducing the group s founder Ahmad al Tijani 1737 1815 Wright focuses on the wider network in which al Tijani traveled revealing it to be a veritable global Islamic revival whose scholars commanded large followings shared key ideas and produced literature read widely throughout the Muslim world They were linked through chains of knowledge transmission from which emerged vibrant discourses of renewal in the face of perceived social and political corruption Wright argues that this constellation of remarkable Muslim intellectuals despite the uncertainty of the age promoted personal verification in religious learning With distinctive concern for the notions of human actualization and a universal human condition the Tijaniyya emphasized the importance of the realization of Muslim identity Since its beginnings in North Africa in the eighteenth century the Tijaniyya has quietly expanded its influence beyond Africa with significant populations in the Middle East Southeast Asia and North America We are proud to offer this book in our usual print and ebook formats plus as an open access edition available through the Sustainable History Monograph Project

Hashtag Islam Gary R. Bunt, 2018-09-25 Gary R Bunt is a twenty year pioneer in the study of cyber Islamic environments

CIEs In his new book Bunt explores the diverse and surprising ways digital technology is shaping how Muslims across vast territories relate to religious authorities in fulfilling spiritual mystical and legalistic agendas From social networks to websites essential elements of religious practices and authority now have representation online Muslims embracing the immediacy and general accessibility of the internet are increasingly turning to cyberspace for advice and answers to important religious questions Online environments often challenge traditional models of authority however One result is the rise of digitally literate religious scholars and authorities whose influence and impact go beyond traditional boundaries of imams mullahs and shaikhs Bunt shows how online rhetoric and social media are being used to articulate religious faith by many different kinds of Muslim organizations and individuals from Muslim comedians and women s rights advocates to jihad oriented groups such as the Islamic State and al Qaeda which now clearly rely on strategic digital media policies to augment and justify their authority and draw recruits This book makes clear that understanding CIEs is crucial for the holistic interpretation of authority in contemporary Islam

Architecture of the Contemporary Mosque Isma?l Serageldin,James Steele,1996 A unique appraisal of the architectual developments of the contemporary mosque

The Human Venture Anthony Esler,1992

South ,1986-07

The Contemporary Mosque Renata Holod,Hasan-Uddin Khan,1997 This survey of the contemporary scene presents projects ranging from buildings commissioned by wealthy private individuals and local Muslim communities to imposing State Mosques serving as symbols of national prestige Mosques with strikingly modern designs for which the latest materials and construction techniques have been used contrast with examples in regional architectural styles notably in Southeast Asia and West Africa using traditional materials

Politics and Identity in Design: An Analysis of Two Contemporary Cairene Mosques Leena Sadek,2018 Abstract Forging a national identity has been an issue many Islamic nations have undergone and struggled with in the wake of a colonial era long established in the third world The attempts at achieving such a goal have been varied with many seeking to revive their pre colonial past under new and modern implications The success of such attempts has not yet yielded a satisfactory template that can be applied without question in one nation let alone across the Islamic world Nonetheless such a quintessential conundrum has not hindered the building program of many nations who are still striving to achieve their own building style that is a reflection of their history and national identity Questions of architectural heritage what aspects of the history held true to the nations identity and which aspects were deliberately to be rejected all held an important role in shaping the end product devised by each nation and all needed to be digested to fathom the national style they sought so ardently The mosque in particular emerges as the explicit monument type due to its innately Islamic character For this reason this study is concerned with the nature of mosque building in the post modern globalized commercial city fabric we actively partake in today To remedy this disconnect and notable gap in their architecture some nations such as Turkey undertook a secular national building program to highlight their modernity Others took on the task of creating a bridge amongst Islamic nations and establishing communication between them by adopting an architecture that incorporated variant elements from different Islamic cultures as seen in the Gulf states with their transnational mosques as coined by Kishwar Rizvi In Egypt a movement returning to previous eras of glory was attempted with Neo Mamluk architecture along with attempts at channeling the long lost Pharaonic heritage a movement that quickly faded What then does contemporary mosque architecture reflect What weight does patronage carry in the outcome of the building and how much does it shape its conception What of the users and how they participate in this dialogue if at all Ultimately how successful was the mosque in reflecting an Islamic character as well as being coherent with the nature and aspirations of the society This thesis will conduct an analysis of two contemporary mosques in Cairo assessing the impact of Islam on the nature and form of the built environment The scope of the study of this thesis will be a the description of two mosques in the area of New Cairo as it is one of the most rapidly evolving sites of urban landscape in the capital and b the analysis of these monuments from the perspectives of the Modernist Traditionalist and Regionalist approaches as well as measuring the buildings success with regard to serving the community This will inevitably lead to the formulation of conclusions pertaining to the questions mentioned above The selected mosques are chosen based on their representation of each of the two dominant divisions who chiefly sponsor building in Cairo today namely the state whether the government division of the Ministry of Interior or the separate entity of the Military and the private sector

Mosque Architecture: A Transdisciplinary Debate Mohammed Fekry, Mady A.A. Mohamed, Anna Visvizi, Asmaa Ibrahim, Lamiaa F. Ghamri, 2023-06-28 Against a backdrop of environmental and societal concerns best captured by the UN's Sustainable Development Goals SDGs this book brings together the leading voices on Mosque architecture to make a case for its role as a purveyor of culture heritage and sustainability in the modern world The Mosque as an institution continues to serve as the epicenter of spiritual moral and cultural life in Muslim societies Recognizing that the popular understanding of Muslim culture and archetypes is at best minimal among the broader public worldwide this book has two objectives i e i to explore Masjid architecture as a carrier of culture heritage and the sustainability of Muslim communities and ii to offer a bias free introduction to the intricacies of Muslim architecture culture and heritage today The papers featured in this collection were presented at the 5th Memaryat International Conference MIC held at Effat University Jeddah The MIC's objective is to build bridges between research communities engaged with diverse aspects of science technology and innovation seen as the key levers for attaining the SDGs Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association, 2001 The Mosque as a Community Development Centre Mohamad Tajuddin Haji Mohamad Rasdi, 1998 Mediterranean Frontiers Dimitar Bechev, Kalypso Nicolaïdis, 2010 Expert scholars in the field come together to look at the impact of political boundaries upon the region along with pressures from European and economic integration the resurgence of nationalism and refugee and security concerns The authors explore the politics of memory the ways in which the past shapes conflicts in the present but also how memories held by individuals and communities challenge master narratives of us versus them Turning to the present the book investigates how political fragmentation and divisive identities manifest in territorial borders influence everyday lives Rather than a clear cut boundary between North and South the vision that emerges is of a Mediterranean transformed by the forces of globalization into a set of hybrid frontiers borderlands shaped by intertwined exchanges identities and conflicts Book Jacket Abstracts of the Annual Meeting -- American Anthropological Association
