Treasures Of Heaven Saints Relics And Devotion In Medieval Europe:

Treasures of Heaven Cleveland Museum of Art (Ohio), British Museum (London), Walters Art Museum (Baltimore, Md.), 2011 Drawing on three major museum holdings as well as featuring pieces from other international collections this book looks at the phenomenon of holy relics in the Middle Ages It traces the history and development of the cult of relics from its beginnings in late Roman funerary practices to its rise in both the Byzantine East and the West Treasures of Heaven Martina Bagnoli, Cleveland Museum of Art, Walters Art Museum (Baltimore, Md.), British Museum, 2010 Issued in connection with an exhibition held Oct 17 2010 Jan 17 2011 the Cleveland Museum of Art Cleveland Feb 13 May 15 2011 the Walters Art Museum Baltimore and June 23 Oct 9 2011 the British Museum London Treasures of Heaven Martina Bagnoli, Cleveland Museum of Art, British Museum (London), Walters Art Museum (Baltimore), 2011 Keynote A magnificent study of the beautifully crafted Medieval reliquaries that enshrined holy relics and their wider historical cultural political and religious context Sales points Published in conjunction with Walters Art Museum and the Cleveland Museum of Art to accompany a major touring exhibition at the British Museum 23 June 9 October 2011 No equivalent book on this fascinating subject An important reference work drawing on the latest scholarship which will be of value far beyond the exhibition Description Drawing on three major museum holdings as well as featuring iconic pieces from other international public and private collections this richly illustrated book looks at the phenomenon of holy relics in the Middle Ages Thematic essays and object entries by leading scholars trace the history and development of the cult of relics from its beginnings in late Roman funerary practices to its rise in both the Byzantine East and the West Contributors Derek Krueger Eric Palazzo Arnoldt Angenendt Martina Bagnoli Holger A Klein Barbara Boehm Guido Cornini Cynthia Hahn James Robinson Alexander Nagel C Griffith Mann Treasures of Heaven: Saints, Relics, and Devotion in Medieval Europe, 2011 The Virtual Liturgy and Ritual Artifacts in Medieval and Early Modern Studies Katharine Scherff, 2023-03-03 Examining the history of altar decorations this study of the visual liturgy grapples with many of the previous theoretical frameworks to reveal the evolution and function of these ritual objects Using an interdisciplinary approach this book uses traditional art historical methodologies and media technology theory to reexamine ritual objects Previous analysis has not considered the in between nature of these objects as deliberate and virtual conduits to the divine The liturgy the altarpiece the altar environment relics and their reliquaries are media In a series of case studies several objects tell a different story about culture and society in medieval Europe In essence they reveal that media and media technologies generate and modulate the individual and collective structure of feelings of sacredness among assemblages of humans and nonhumans The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history medieval studies early modern studies and architectural history Domestic Devotions in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Salvador Ryan, 2020-05-28 Domestic devotion has become an increasingly important area of research in recent years with the publication of a number of significant studies on the early modern period in particular This Special Issue aims to build on these works and to expand their range both geographically and chronologically This collection focuses on lived religion and the devotional practices found in the domestic settings of late medieval and early modern Europe More particularly it investigates the degree to which the experience of personal or familial religious practice in the domestic realm intersected with the more public expression of faith in liturgical or communal settings Its broad geographical range spanning northern southern central and eastern Europe includes practices related to Christianity Judaism and Islam This Special Issue will be of interest to historians art historians medievalists early modernists historians of religion anthropologists and theologians as well as those interested in the history of material religious culture It also offers important insights into research areas such as gender studies histories of the emotions and histories of the senses

The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity John Arnold, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity takes as its subject the beliefs practices and institutions of the Christian Church between 400 and 1500AD It addresses topics ranging from early medieval monasticism to late medieval mysticism from the material wealth of the Church to the spiritual exercises through which certain believers might attempt to improve their souls Each chapter tells a story but seeks also to ask how and why Christianity took particular forms at particular moments in history paying attention to both the spiritual and otherworldly aspects of religion and the material and political contexts in which they were often embedded This Handbook is a landmark academic collection that presents cutting edge interpretive perspectives on medieval religion for a wide academic audience drawing together thirty key scholars in the field from the United States the UK and Europe Notably the Handbook is arranged thematically and focusses on an analytical rather than narrative approach seeking to demonstrate the variety change and complexity of religion throughout this long period and the numerous different ways in which modern scholarship can approach it While providing a very wide ranging view of the subject it also offers an important agenda for further study in the field

The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt, 2019-07-15 This cultural history of early medieval travel and religion reveals how movement affected society demonstrating the connectedness of people and regions between 500 and 850 CE In The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt enriches our understanding of migration through her examination of religious movement Vertical links to God and horizontal links to distant regions identified religious travelers both men and women as holy connected to the human and the divine across physical and spiritual distances Using textual sources material culture and place studies this project is among the first to contextualize the geographic and temporal movement of early medieval people to reveal the diversity of religious travel from the voluntary journeys of pilgrims to the forced travel of Christian slaves Luckhardt offers new ways of understanding ideas about power holiness identity and mobility during the transformation of the Roman world in the global Middle Ages By focusing on the religious dimensions of early medieval people and the regions they visited this book addresses probing questions including how and why medieval people communicated and connected with one another across boundaries both geographical and imaginative

a Sacred City Ben Quash, Aaron Rosen, Chloe Reddaway, 2016-11-25 William Blake famously imagined Jerusalem builded here in London But Blake was not the first or the last to visualise a shimmering new metropolis on the banks of the River Thames For example the Romans erected a temple to Mithras in their ancient city of Londinium medieval Londoners created Temple Church in memory of the Holy Sepulchre in which Jesus was buried and Christopher Wren reshaped the skyline of the entire city with his visionary dome and spires after the Great Fire of London in 1666 In the modern period the fabric of London has been re woven in the image of its many immigrants from the Caribbean South Asia Eastern Europe and elsewhere While previous books have examined literary depictions of the city this is the first examination of the religious imaginary of the metropolis through the prism of the visual arts Adopting a broad multicultural and multi faith perspective and making space for practitioners as well as scholars its topics range from ancient archaeological remains and Victorian murals and cemeteries to contemporary documentaries and political cartoons

"Faith, Gender and the Senses in Italian Renaissance and Baroque Art " Erin E. Benay, 2017-07-05 Taking the Noli me tangere and Doubting Thomas episodes as a focal point this study examines how visual representations of two of the most compelling and related Christian stories engaged with changing devotional and cultural ideals in Renaissance and Baroque Italy This book reconsiders depictions of the ambiguous encounter of Mary Magdalene and Christ in the garden John 20 11 19 known as the Noli me tangere and that of Christ s post Resurrection appearance to Thomas John 20 24 29 the Doubting Thomas as manifestations of complex theological and art theoretical milieus By focusing on key artistic monuments of the Italian Renaissance and Baroque periods the authors demonstrate a relationship between the rise of skeptical philosophy and empirical science and the efficacy of the senses in the construction of belief Further the authors elucidate the differing representational strategies employed by artists to depict touch and the ways in which these strategies were shaped by gender social class and educational level Indeed over time St Thomas became an increasingly public and therefore masculine symbol of devotional verification juridical inquiry and empirical investigation while St Mary Magdalene provided a more private model for pious women celebrating mostly behind closed doors the privileged and active participation of women in the faith The authors rely on primary source material paintings sculptures religious tracts hagiography popular sermons and new documentary evidence By reuniting their visual examples with important often little known textual sources the authors reveal a complex relationship between visual imagery the senses contemporary attitudes toward gender and the shaping of belief Further they add greater nuance to our understanding of the relationship between popular piety and the visual culture of the period

Relics and Relic Worship in Early Buddhism Janice Stargardt, Michael D. Willis, 2018 Offers new perspectives on Buddhist relics and reliquaries including a discussion of what constitutes a relic as well as an analysis of the terminology related to relic worship Other chapters focus on the placement and treatment of relics in situ as well as the spread of Buddhism to Burma and the vibrant relic culture that has been found there

Relics @ the Lab Mark van Strydonck, Jeroen Reyniers, Fanny van Cleven, 2018 The book Relics the Lab an Analytical Approach to the Study of Relics includes a series of studies presented at the first international workshop Relics the Lab organized by the Royal Institute of Cultural Heritage KIK IRPA in Brussels Belgium 27 28 October 2016 The papers cover a large variety of themes as well as analytical methods Some papers focus on the primary relics while others deal with the nature and origin of secondary as well as tertiary relics The first group of papers emphasizes on the archaeological authenticity of the relics the second group elucidate the use additions and manipulations of the relics through the ages The applied analytical techniques are very diverse Radiocarbon and physical anthropology are the main tools to study the primary relics while dye analysis imaging techniques textile analysis and dendrochronology are used to study the secondary and tertiary relics Sometimes unexpected techniques like the analysis of writing ink or the determination of plants and excrements complete the wide range of analytical methods used to understand the origin nature and context of the relics
