We Speak a Different Tongue Yoonjoung Choi, Anthony Patterson, 2015 We Speak a Different Tongue Maverick Voices and Modernity 1890 1939 challenges the critical practice of privileging modernism In so doing the volume makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates about re visioning literary modernism questioning its canon and challenging its aesthetic parameters By utilizing the term oemodernity rather than oemodernism the 16 essays housed in this volume foreground the writers who have been marginalised by both their contemporary modernist writers and literary scholars while exploring the way in which these authors responded to the tensions disruptions and challenges of modernity through the expansion of subject matter or through formal innovations that are not always consonant with those associated with modernist experimentation At the same time the essays collected here incorporate alternative perspectives within modernist practice itself while examining the late modernist writers whose work may in some aspects resonate with earlier modernist experimentation but also may be decidedly distinct from it Beginning with discussion on modernity and its relation to the late nineteenth and early twentieth century social and political context the volume covers a wide range of the authors from the well known like Henry James Joseph Conrad Victoria Cross H G Wells George Orwell and D H Lawrence and rebellious female mavericks May Sinclair Charlotte Mew Vita Sackville West and Djuna Barnes to lesser known writers such as Rayner Heppenstall and Jean Toomer

We Speak a Different Tongue Yoonjoung Choi, Anthony Patterson, 2015-09-18 We Speak a Different Tongue Maverick Voices and Modernity 1890 1939 challenges the critical practice of privileging modernism In so doing the volume makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates about re visioning literary modernism questioning its canon and challenging its aesthetic parameters By utilizing the term modernity rather than modernism the 16 essays housed in this volume foreground the writers who have been marginalised by both their contemporary modernist writers and literary scholars while exploring the way in which these authors responded to the tensions Literary and Cultural Alternatives to Modernism Kostas Boyiopoulos, Anthony Patterson, Mark Sandy, 2019-03-20 Our collection of essays re evaluates the much critically contested term of Modernism that eventually came to be used of the dominant or paradigmatic strain of literary discourse in early twentieth century culture Modernism as a category is one which is constantly challenged hybridised and fractured by voices operating from inside and outside the boundaries it designates These concerns are reflected by those figures addressed by our contributors chapters which include Rupert Brooke G K Chesterton E M Forster Thomas Hardy M R James C L R James Vernon Lee D H Lawrence Richard La Gallienne Pamela Colman Smith Arthur Symonds and H G Wells Alert to these disturbing voices or unsettling presences that vex accounts of an emergent Modernism in late nineteenth century and early twentieth century literary cultures predominately between 1890 1939 our volume questions traditional critical mappings taxonomies and periodisations of this vital literary cultural moment Our volume is equally sensitive to how the avant garde felt for those living and writing within the period with a view to offering a renewed sense of the literary and cultural alternatives to Modernism Wyndham Lewis's Cultural Criticism and the Infrastructures of Patronage Nathan O'Donnell, 2020-07-02 Wyndham Lewis was both a serious proponent and forthright critic of modernism His assault upon his contemporaries foreshadowed the twenty first century scholarly interest in the networks professions and coteries rather than the myths and heroics of modernism Lewis after a long period of neglect now sits increasingly at the heart of a revised field of modernist studies This book explores Lewis s cultural criticism as a valuable body of writing which posed questions that have yet to be answered about subsidy and the function of the artist about professionalism and ethics about who should pay for the arts and what the artist s obligations should be in return It is the first book length study of this body of critical writing through which Lewis articulated the central and most lasting of his critical preoccupations the question of how the work of the artist is to be valued and the artist to be paid in a professionalised society This book makes an important contribution to the long overdue reassessment of a complex contrarian figure spanning the disciplines of literature and the visual arts who asked pressing questions about the role and status of the artist and ultimately about the value economic civic political of the work of art British Avant-Garde Fiction of the 1960s Mitchell Kaye Mitchell, 2019-01-22 Explores the trailblazing work of the British literary avant garde of the 1960s This collection showcases the liveliness of British avant garde fiction of the 1960s which is diverse in its aesthetic practices and sometimes divided in its politics It brings together a selection of original research led essays on more than a dozen avant garde British writers of the 1960s revealing this to be a crucial and crucially overlooked period of British literary history Via detailed readings of authors such as Ann Quin B S Johnson Alexander Trocchi Maureen Duffy Alan Burns Christine Brooke Rose and many others the contributors reveal the diversity of material produced in this period and trace the complex relations of influence and indebtedness between the 60s avant garde earlier modernisms and later postmodern writing The volume shows that the 1960s is an even more vibrant period of literary experiment in Britain than might previously have been supposed and that the avant garde fiction produced then rewards our renewed attention to it Key Features Provides much needed critical analyses of the work of 60s avant garde writers Offers focused essays each presents one author in their cultural critical historical contexts by experts in the field Recuperates a lost decade in British literature and thus fills a vital gap in literary history between late modernism and early postmodernism Responds to burgeoning critical and popular interest in authors such as Christine Brooke Rose Ann Quin and B S Johnson and to a widespread interest in experimental and innovative writing more generally African American Literature Hans Ostrom, J. Hoydis,2019-09-23 Taking the cue from the currency of risk in popular and interdisciplinary academic discourse this book explores the development of the English novel in relation to the emergence and institutionalization of risk from its origins in probability theory in the late seventeenth century to the global risk society in the twenty first century Focussing on 29 novels from Defoe to McEwan this book argues for the contemporaneity of the rise of risk and the novel and suggests that there is much to gain from reading the risk society from a diachronic literary cultural perspective Tracing changes and continuities the fictional case studies reveal the human preoccupation with safety and control of the future They show the struggle with uncertainties and the construction of individual or collective logics of risk which oscillate between rational calculation and emotion helplessness and denial and an enabling or destructive sense of adventure and danger Advancing the study of risk in fiction beyond the confinement to dystopian disaster narratives this book shows how topical notions such as chance and probability uncertainty and responsibility fears of decline and transgression all cluster around risk Knowledge, Art, and Power

John Ryder,2020-04-28 In Knowledge Art and Power An Outline of a Theory of Experience John Ryder presents an original theory of experience rooted in the American pragmatic naturalist philosophical tradition The operative assumption of the book is that a clearer understanding of experience provides a richer conception of human being Beginning with the Deweyan idea of experience as the mutually constitutive engagement of an individual with her environing conditions the theory posits that there are three general dimensions that condition all of our experience cognitive knowledge aesthetic art and political power All other constituents and forms of experience such as language emotions ethics religion and others are conditioned by these three general threads that define the fabric of experience and of human life The Cambridge cultural signifier of agency transgression and crisis re interpreting them through rewriting of other stories hermeneutic re interpretations of ancient classical texts and revised film stage adaptations These papers illustrate how gendered cultural myths of women s intrinsic connection to evil still persist in today s patriarchal society though in variant and updated forms Mischievous beguiling seductive lascivious unruly carping vengeful and manipulative from the Disney princess to the murderous Medea these authors grapple with our understanding of what it is to be and do evil exploring the possible sources of the fear and hatred of women and the feminine as well as their continual fascination and appeal and how these manifest in a range of real life and fictional narratives that cross times cultures and media
