Welcome Them Home Help Them Heal:

Welcome Them Home, Help Them Heal John Sippola, Amy Blumenshine, Donald A. Tubesing, Valerie Yancey, 2009 No two veterans have the same war experience nor upon returning from war do they face exactly the same reintegration challenges Likewise veterans heal and recover in their own ways and along their own timelines The War Stole My Soul with Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD): What Now? C. Diane Mosby, 2018-01-25 When Reverend Mosby's son went to war she like so many other mothers prayed for his safe return Her prayers were answered He came home alive and whole Or so she thought The War Stole My Soul with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD What Now is the result of a mother's mission to restore her son's faith in God and encourage his desire to live In her quest to save her son from his despair Reverend Mosby came to understand the debilitating effects of PTSD on the souls of veterans She found there were no government resources to heal their broken spirits Few church communities had either the knowledge of PTSD and its symptoms or the means to support its victims Reverend Mosby set out to educate those who could help those who suffer She created a training program to raise awareness of PTSD among church leaders Encouraged by the program's success Reverend Mosby began speaking to church groups veterans organizations corporations and at conferences And now through this book she is expanding her reach so that no veterans and their caregivers will ever have to say The War Stole My Soul with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD What Now Stories of Coming Home William Fitzgerald, 1997 A book that helps readers wade through the messiness in their lives thereby offering nourishment encouragement and solace Welcome Home Mama and Boris Carey Neesley, 2013-08-29 Growing up in the well heeled Detroit suburb of Grosse Pointe Michigan Carey Neesley always thought she and her younger brother Peter would never be separated The children of divorced parents and outcasts in their neighborhood Carey and Peter supported loved and encouraged each other when it seemed no one else cared It was a bond that grew through the years and one that made Peter's eventual decision to enlist in the Army all the more difficult for Carey With Peter having stepped up to help her raise her young son Carey was closer than ever to her brother and the thought of him serving far from home was painful While stationed in Iraq Peter befriended a stray dog and her four puppies only to watch three of the young pups die in the warzone With only two surviving dogs Mama and Boris Peter became determined to save the strays Carey helped her brother with his mission but everything changed on Christmas Day in 2007 when word arrived at the Neesley household that Peter had been killed Amidst the grief of coming to terms with her brother's death and the turmoil of trying to plan his funeral Carey devoted herself to bringing Peter's dogs home to the U S It was the final honor she could pay to her brother and a way of keeping a piece of him with her With the help of an unlikely network of heroes including an animal rescue organization in Utah a civilian airline an Iraqi family and a private security contractor with military connections Mama and Boris made the journey from the streets of Baghdad to Carey's suburban house Carey's mission garnered widespread attention and requests from other soldiers for help in bringing home dogs they had become attached to on deployment and she continues to work with organizations dedicated to bringing home wartime strays
