

EXAMPLE ON HOW TO ANSWER CASE STUDY?

Sample case :

Farid was a director of Lotos Mall. He instructed his manager to sell some items at the higher price than they advertised. Thus, the company had been sued for misdescription offences. Farid has been blamed for the offence. However, Farid claimed that the company that was to be blame for the offence, not him. Was the offence committed by Lotos Mall or by Farid?

1. Issue :

- a. Whether the company can be blamed solely for the offences or not
- b. Whether farid can be held responsible for that offences of misdescription of price or the Lotos Mall?

2. Formulation : In Farid situation, Farid should be held responsible for the offence. It is because he had given instruction his manager to sell some of the items at a higher price. When a company commit wrong action, the company cannot think or act by himself to commit such wrong action. Thus we have to look behind the veil of the company to determine the person who shall be responsible for the wrong doing.

3. Legal Principle and supporting case :

Section 20 CA provides that a company incorporated under this Act is a body corporate and shall :

- (a) have legal personality separate from that of its members; and
- (b) continue in existence until it is removed from the register.

Further, Section 21 states that the companies will have unlimited capacity and will be capable of exercising all the functions of a body corporate and have the full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity including:

- (a) to sue and be sued;
- (b) to acquire, own, hold, develop or dispose of any property;
- (c) to do any act which it may do or to enter into transactions.

A company shall have the full rights, powers and privileges for the above purposes.

Supporting case :

In the case of SALOMON v SALOMON & CO. LTD

Salomon, a sole trader as a leather and boot merchant sold his business to Salomon & Co. Ltd, a company he formed with his wife and children. Payment for the purchase was partially effected debentures issued by the company to Salomon. The company later went into liquidation and its assets were not enough to satisfy its creditors. Mr. Salomon however claim priority over the other debtors as he was a secured creditor.

Held: Mr. Salomon the creditor is a person separate and distinct from Salomon & Co. Ltd even though Mr. Salomon was the majority shareholder of the company.

Heavy Metals: A Problem Solved? E van der Voet, Jeroen B. Guinée, Helias A. Udo de Haes, 2013-04-17 Most publications on heavy metals and the environment have focused on environmental pathways and risks. The present book establishes a link between the environmental risks of heavy metals and the societal causes of the risks. Economic models, substance flow models, and environmental fate and risk assessment models have been integrated into a single analytical framework that has been used to trace and understand the routes by which four heavy metals enter the economy through to their final destination in the environment. The long-term impacts of the current metals management regime in the Netherlands have been used as a case study by which to assess the effectiveness of certain policy measures. Readership: Environmental scientists, especially those practising in the areas of ecological economics, industrial ecology, materials flow accounting, and integrated environmental assessment. Environmental policy makers will also find the book an invaluable aid in their deliberations.

Private International Law Symeon C. Symeonides, 2021-11-08 This book compares the two golden ages of private international law (PIL). The first is the era of Story and Savigny in the nineteenth century, while the second comprises the last fifty years. The period between 1970 and 2020 has been one of rapid changes and dense legislative responses exemplified by the adoption of over one hundred national PIL codifications and almost as many international or regional conventions and regulations. These instruments provide a rich source for this book's incisive and instructive comparisons and a fertile ground for a reliable assessment of the progress of PIL as a discipline. This book skillfully uncovers and meticulously documents the gradual and largely unnoticed transition of PIL from the idealism of the nineteenth century to the pragmatic eclecticism and pluralism of the twenty-first century.

Introduction to the Study and Use of Class Actions in Europe Alan

Uzelac, Stefaan Voet, 2021-06-23 Not so long ago class actions were considered to be a textbook example of American exceptionalism many of their main features were assumed to be incompatible with the culture of the civil law world However the tide is changing while there are now trends in the USA toward limiting or excluding class actions notorious cases like Dieselgate are moving more and more European jurisdictions to extend the reach of their judicial collective redress mechanisms For many new fans of class actions collective redress has become a Holy Grail of sorts a miraculous tool that will rejuvenate national systems of civil justice and grant them unprecedented power Still while the introduction of various forms of representative action has virtually become a fashion it is anything but certain that attempting to transplant American style class action will be successful European judicial structures and legal cultures are fundamentally different which poses a considerable challenge This book investigates whether class actions in Europe are indeed a Holy Grail or just another wrong turn in the continuing pursuit of just and effective means of protecting the rights of citizens and businesses It presents both positive and critical perspectives supplemented by case studies on the latest collectivization trends in Europe's national civil justice systems The book also shares the experiences of some non European jurisdictions that have developed promising hybrid forms of collective redress such as Canada Brazil China and South Africa In closing a selection of topical international cases that raise interesting issues regarding the effectiveness of class actions in an international context are studied and discussed planned to find the optimal way to treat a tumour while minimizing the dose received by the surrounding normal tissues In order to better exploit the possibilities of this process the availability of accurate and quantitative knowledge of the peculiar responses of the different tissues is of paramount importance This book provides an invaluable tutorial for radiation oncologists medical physicists and dosimetrists involved in the planning optimization phase of treatment It presents a practical accessible and comprehensive summary of the field s current research and knowledge regarding the response of normal tissues to radiation This is the first comprehensive attempt to do so since the publication of the QUANTEC guidelines in 2010 Features Addresses the lack of systemization in the field providing educational materials on predictive models including methods tools and the evaluation of uncertainties Collects the combined effects of features other than dose in predicting the risk of toxicity in radiation therapy Edited by two leading experts in the field Understanding and Improving Public Management Reforms Thomas Elston,2024-04-30 Why do top down reforms to public services so often over promise and under deliver Using five concepts from psychology economics and organisational sociology Thomas Elston addresses this pressing question of good governance Rather than focusing on the challenge of implementation Understanding and Improving Public Management Reforms reveals how flawed policy design is often the major contributor to reform failure Cognitive bias restrictive social institutions and inattention to quiet costs during the policy making process are essential to explaining the poor track record of reforms to date and point the way towards better decision making in future Written for policy professionals service managers students and researchers alike this concise practical and multidisciplinary study draws on varied examples to help reconceive the perennial problem of public management reform and to propose new solutions The Law Magazine and Review ,1895 Journal of the Society of Comparative Legislation Society of Comparative Legislation,1909 Studies in the History and Development of the University of Aberdeen Peter John Anderson,1906 Aberdeen University Studies ,1906 The Heroes of the Judicial Periphery Alan Uzelac,Stefaan Voet,2025-05-01 This book assesses the role of court experts court clerks and court staff and other actors on the judicial periphery who play an important role and often co determine the pace outcome and tone of the judicial process In national civil justice systems the limelight is all too often cast on the main actors judges lawyers and parties but the court s support staff can sometimes be overlooked This book explores their role The knowledge and skills of experts may be indispensable at times but it is among the most expensive complicated and time consuming means of evidence The judges adjudicate but where experts are involved in the process they have a decisive impact on the outcome of litigation Therefore a principal focus of the book is on experts and how they are appointed managed and remunerated across Europe and the world Other ancillary professions may also be decisive for effective provision of court services Different jurisdictions have different rules and habits but inevitably recognise the need of adequate support for judges Sometimes judges command the whole team of clerks and lawyers sometimes they share a secretary or a clerk But in all cases those who assist judges in their daily work have a significant impact on the effectiveness and quality of the judicial process and its outcome The book considers the contribution of different actors including clerks secretaries advisors counsels and reporters It focuses on cooperation and the interplay between judges and other professional actors in litigation Gender, Participation and Citizenship in the Netherlands Jet Bussemaker, Rian Voet, 2019-01-15 Published in 1998 this is an edited volume of papers on the theme of participation and citizenship for women It focuses particularly on the necessary conditions for full participation of women as citizens within a modern liberal democracy For this question it takes the Netherlands as an interesting case study because it shows the need for a close connection between social and political participation The editors aim to draw together often separate discussions about citizenship in international literature a political theoretical discussion of democracy and a social policy discussion on the welfare state The papers address issues including the labour market public goods welfare laws affirmative action programmes and future development for girls The book also develops the interrelation of social and political participation from the perspective of citizenship It relates information on the Dutch case study to international comparative research on democracy and welfare states as well as to broader international discussions on gender and citizenship
