The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices Liz Jackson Hearn, Brian Kremer, 2018-05-18 The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices is the first comprehensive resource developed for training transgender and nonbinary singers This text aids in the development of voice pedagogy tailored to the needs of transgender singers informed by cultural competence and bolstered by personal narratives of trans and nonbinary singing students The singing life of a transgender or nonbinary student can be overwhelmingly stressful Because many of the current systems in place for singing education are so firmly anchored in gender binary systems transgender and gender nonconforming singers are often forced into groups with which they feel they don't belong Singers in transition are often afraid to reach out for help because the likelihood of finding a voice teacher who is competent in navigating the social emotional physical and physiological challenges of transition is minimal at best This text equips teachers with a sympathetic perspective on these unique struggles and with the knowledge and resources needed to guide students to a healthy joyful and safe singing life It challenges professional and academic communities to understand the needs of transgender singers and provide evidence based voice education and real world opportunities that are authentic and genuine The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices is the first book of its kind to provide thorough organized information on the training of trans singers for educators in both the academic and independent teaching realms

So You Want to Sing Cabaret David Sabella, Sue Matsuki, 2020-07-09 Cabaret performances are often known for bringing alive the Great American Songbook from the 1920s through the 1950s for contemporary audiences But modern day cabaret does much more than preserve the past it also promotes and fosters the new generation of American composers and creates a uniquely vibrant musical and theatrical experience for its audiences So You Want to Sing Cabaret is the first book of its kind to examine in detail the unique vocal and nonvocal requirements for professional performance within the exciting genre of cabaret With a foreword by cabaret legend Lorna Luft So You Want to Sing Cabaret includes interviews from the top professionals in the cabaret industry including Michael Feinstein Ann Hampton Callaway Roy Sander Sidney Myer Jeff Harner and many others There are also chapters devoted to crafting your show lyric connection do it yourself production and promotion and working with your musical team David Sabella and Sue Matsuki have crafted the perfect one volume resource for both the aspiring cabaret singer and the singing teacher who seeks to learn more about this unique art form The So You Want to Sing series is produced in partnership with the National Association of Teachers of Singing Like all books in the series So You Want to Sing Cabaret features online supplemental material on the NATS website Please visit www.nats.org to access style specific
