Dockery,2008 Renewing Minds encourages readers to better serve God the church and society by taking part in or supporting Christian higher education

Pathways to the Waters of Grace David B. Batchelder,2017-05-16 What if the church took with utmost seriousness that baptism is the gift of a new identity taking a lifetime to grow into And what if that identity includes God s call to a way of life made visible in how Jesus lived his This book is a response to these questions in relationship to the church s practice of baptizing children This book s underlying premise is that how the church helps parents prepare for baptism is vital to how the whole family lives its baptismal identity throughout life as well as to the renewal of churches themselves In the last several decades institutionalized Christianity has found itself renegotiating its relationship with a culture that often has churches on the defensive for practices that are little changed from an era now past and insufficient as a witness to life as Christ s disciple This book urges a reconsideration of what churches offer parents seeking baptism for a child offering a transformed vision of such a ministry as well as a practical guide for putting it in place in the life of churches Pastors educators and leaders will find a pathway to follow that promises to be life changing for all involved The Sign of the Grail C.J.S. Hayward,2008-04-02 This is a book of sacrament icon and symbol a book of the light of Heaven illuminating the earth It is at once long ago and now and you will find a meditation on time amidst encounters with different times It includes mystical theology and a novella of a young man's spiritual awakening after he finds a book of Arthurian legends. It is about the greatest pursuit in life: the quest for the Holy Grail. Throughout The Sign of the Grail, there is something beyond mere earth shining through a heavenly light that can shine right where we are. It is a deep dream and a spiritual awakening.

Making a Mess and Meeting God Mandy Smith, 2010. Get ready to make a mess and meet God along the way. Through playful experimentation and a dogged determination to meet God in every moment, Making a Mess and Meeting God provides new ways to grasp ancient truths. With these creative ideas for prayer, praise, and practice, learn to slow down and enjoy the process, rediscover your connection to God, and others maybe even have a little fun.

The Liberated Imagination Leland Ryken, 2005-08-03. The arts: merely entertaining or indispensable? The arts belong to the Christian life. And in The Liberated Imagination, author Leland Ryken explores the God-ordained significance of art, its nature and purpose in relating to truth and everyday life. For both artist and audience, for student, teacher, and critic, this book is a road to discovering how participation in art and the imagination leads to a more intense sharing in life's riches, a deeper celebration of all that God has created, and a new awareness of the wideness of his grace.

Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23. Memoirs, autobiographies, and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres, as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years, and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative: organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads, Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books.

Religion and Science Fiction James F. McGrath, 2012-09-27. This multidisciplinary book focuses on the intersection between religion and science fiction. Several perspectives are addressed by scholars from different disciplines: theology, literature, history, music, and anthropology. From Frankenstein by way of Christian apocalyptic to Star Wars, Star Trek, Battlestar Galactica, and much more, and from the United States to China and back again, the authors who contribute to this volume serve as guides in the exploration of religion and science fiction as a multifaceted, multidisciplinary, and multicultural phenomenon.

With Wit and Wonder Blayne A.

Banting,2013-10-10 Preachers are often caught in a double bind they would like to be more witty and creative but they aren't sure whether these capacities fit with the serious business of preaching the gospel Pastor and preaching professor Blayne Banting addresses both the why and the how of the roles of humour and imagination in preaching With Wit and Wonder is designed to take the preacher from a solid theological and theoretical grounding in both humour and imagination to how these two God given gifts might be employed to enhance the preaching ministry of today's communicator The Artist's
