Voices From The Forest Celebrating Nature And Culture In Xhosaland:

Voices from the Forest Tony Dold, Michelle Cocks, 2012 book which explores the journey of celebrating the link between people and nature the book reveals how plants animals and landscapes are profoundly reflected in Xhosa language stories poetry religious rituals healing practices and everyday customs that define Xhosa culture Over the years cultural and spiritual meaning of nature in South Africa has been poorly recorded and often misunderstood The current trade of medicinal plants is often destructive and unsustainable with an estimated 27 million South Africans making use of indigenous medicines This is a serious detriment as natural resources have been a reliant for underprivileged people who gain food fuel medicines and building materials from wild plants Therefore the addition of information on edible and medicinal plants is of extreme importance Voices from the Forest gives a fresh positive approach to biodiversity conservation in SA by showing that people 2019s values for natural resources can be considered positively as a way forward to continued sustainable use The book explores the role that nature plays in the cultural and spiritual landscapes of the Xhosa people in the Eastern Cape of South Africa and serves as a pointer to sustainable practices in the future The underlying aim is ultimately sustaining cultural heritage and conserving biodiversity because in our modernising world cultural diversity is threatened by the loss of natural diversity and finding ways of protecting the region s biodiversity and cultural diversity is of vital importance Publisher s website Urban Nature Michelle L. Cocks, Charlie M. Shackleton, 2020-11-15 This book showcases the diversity of ways in which urban residents from varying cultural contexts view interact engage with and give meaning to urban nature aiming to counterbalance the dominance of Western depictions and values of urban nature and design Urban nature has up to now largely been defined planned and managed in a way that is heavily dominated by Western understandings values and appreciations which has spread through colonialism and globalisation As cities increasingly represent a diversity of cultures and urban nature is being increasingly recognised as contributing to residents wellbeing belonging and overall quality of life it is important to consider the numerous ways in which urban nature is understood and appreciated This collection of case studies includes examples from Africa Asia Europe North and South America and reflects on the multi dimensional aspects of engagements with urban nature through a biocultural diversity lens The chapters cover several themes such as how engagements with nature contribute to a sense of wellbeing and belonging the implications that diversity has on the provision design and management of urban environments and the threats inhibiting residents abilities to engage meaningfully with nature The book challenges the dominant discourse Western ideological understandings and meta narratives of modernisation and unilineal urban transitions A timely addition to the literature Urban Nature Enriching Belonging Wellbeing and Bioculture offers an alternative to Western ideological understandings of nature and values and will be of great interest to those working in human and environmental urban ecology It will also be key reading for students in the relevant fields of anthropology development studies geography social ecology and urban studies Magical Realism in

Africa Sarali Gintsburg, Kenneth Usongo, 2024-10-14 Magical realism has deep roots across many African languages and regions This book explores African magical realism from a transregional and inclusive approach drawing on contributions from different literary genres across the continent The chapters in this book constitute a sustained and insightful reflection on the salient components of this literary genre as well as evaluating its connections to themes of conflict violence women s rights trauma oppression culture governance and connecting to the African self As well as theorizing magical realism this book engages with African expressive performance across various formats novels plays and films This book investigates African magical realism from its origins up to the present day where local oral traditions link indigenous cosmogonic stories with Western literature as well as with the specific narrative traditions of Arabo Islamic literature The rich analysis draws on works from across the continent including Egypt Sudan Mauritania Cameroon Kenya Tanzania Angola and Mozambique This book is a timely contribution to debates within African literature cultural anthropology ethnography and folklore

Mongameli Mabona Ernst Wolff, 2020-12-01 The life and work of a remarkably versatile and pioneering South African thinker Mongameli Anthony Mabona 1929 is a singular South African scholar with an exceptional life path Yet he is a wrongly forgotten figure today British imperialism and apartheid shaped the world into which he was born and to a large extent these powers carved out his destiny for him Nevertheless a curious set of coincidences enabled him to obtain a tertiary education as a priest to pursue his doctoral studies in Italy and to befriend Alioune Diop He is one of the first published philosophers of Anglophone Africa and holds doctorates in theology and anthropology His opposition to institutionalized racism an opposition which included his co authoring the 1970 Black Priests Manifesto eventually led to his exile This book is the first study of any kind devoted to Mabona It documents his life and offers a synoptic reading of his scholarly and poetic work

Biotraffic Christopher Morris, 2024-10-15 Biotraffic explores the complex world of biological resource trade It takes readers inside the contemporary Ciskei region of South Africa a once notorious apartheid homeland turned extractive hub for wild medicinal plants Drawing from in depth ethnographic and archival research Christopher Morris examines the region s trade in Pelargonium sidoides a plant once contested as a tuberculosis treatment in early twentieth century Europe and now an internationally marketed remedy for the common cold The story of this trade links past and present encapsulating a larger tale about colonial legacies and their intersection with global environmental governance ambitions It also teems with a diverse cast of actors from plant harvesters and pharmaceutical companies to activist NGOs and the chiefs who have become business partners with multinational drug firms The book s analysis extends beyond considering merely the extraction and commercialization of plant resources and offers a critical examination of how demand for therapeutics intertwines with broader struggles over land and political power in South Africa Biotraffic illuminates how a distance defying trade is reshaping the sociopolitical landscape of a region a region grappling with apartheid s afterlives and the challenges of environmental and economic justice

The Scientific Imagination in South Africa William

Beinart, Saul Dubow, 2021-05-20 An innovative three hundred year exploration of the social and political contexts of science and the scientific imagination in South Africa Urban Ecology in the Global South Charlie M. Shackleton, Sarel S.

Cilliers, Elandrie Davoren, Marié J. du Toit, 2021-04-20 Against the background of unprecedented rates of urbanisation in the Global South leading to massive social economic and environmental transformations this book engages with the dire need to understand the ecology of such settings as the foundation for fostering sustainable and resilient human settlements in contexts that are very different to the Global North It does so by bringing together scholars from around the world drawing together research and case studies from across the Global South to illustrate in an interdisciplinary and comprehensive fashion the ecology of towns and cities in the Global South Framed using a social ecological systems lens it provides the reader with an in depth analysis and understanding of the ecological dynamics and ecosystem services and disservices within the complex and rapidly changing towns and cities of the Global South a region with currently scarce representation in most of the urban ecology literature As such the book makes a call for greater geographical balance in urban ecology research leading towards a more global understanding and frameworks The book embraces the complexity of these rapid transformations for ecological and environmental management and how the ecosystems and the benefits they provide shape local ecologies livelihood opportunities and human wellbeing and how such knowledge can be mobilised towards improved urban design and management and thus urban sustainability Examining Information Literacy in Academic Libraries

Chizwina, Sabelo, Moyo, Mathew, 2024-04-09 In the 21st century information literacy emerges as the cornerstone of educational development Despite its paramount significance a stark reality persists students often traverse the corridors of academia without acquiring essential information literacy skills This deficiency is exacerbated by a shortage of faculty training leaving academic libraries to shoulder the responsibility of cultivating information savvy individuals Examining Information Literacy in Academic Libraries delves into the core challenges and solutions surrounding this critical educational imperative This book illuminates the role of academic libraries as bastions of information literacy instruction The capacity of students and information consumers to seek evaluate and utilize information is paramount for informed decision making ethically and legally Regardless of whether or not students were brought up in the digital age many lack the fundamental information literacy skills required for higher education This deficiency manifests in academic malpractices such as plagiarism which compromise the integrity of educational institutions Moreover this imperative work contends that the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR is not a distant concept but a present reality The recent global upheaval caused by the Coronavirus pandemic accelerated the adoption of new technologies necessitating a swift reassessment of our collective ability to navigate this everchanging digital and information landscape Focusing on media literacy data literacy and digital literacy with information literacy as the overarching domain this book serves as a beacon for educators librarians and policymakers Of Land, Bones, and Money Emily McGiffin, 2019-07-18 The South African literature of iimbongi the oral poets of the amaXhosa people has long shaped understandings of landscape and history and offered a forum for grappling with change Of Land Bones and Money examines the shifting role of these poets in South African society and the ways in which they have helped inform responses to segregation apartheid the injustices of extractive capitalism and contemporary politics in South Africa Emily McGiffin first discusses the history of the amaXhosa people and the environment of their homelands before moving on to the arrival of the British who began a relentless campaign annexing land and resources in the region Drawing on scholarship in the fields of human geography political ecology and postcolonial ecocriticism she considers isiXhosa poetry in translation within its cultural historical and environmental contexts investigating how these poems struggle with the arrival and expansion of the exploitation of natural resources in South Africa and the entrenchment of profoundly racist politics that the process entailed In contemporary South Africa iimbongi remain a respected source of knowledge and cultural identity Their ongoing practice of producing complex spiritually rich literature continues to have a profound social effect contributing directly to the healing and well being of their audiences to political transformation and to environmental justice

A Bold Profession Leslie Anne Hadfield, 2021-05-11 In rural South African clinics Black nurses were charged with administering life saving health care measures despite a lack of equipment and personnel often while navigating the intersections of traditional African healing practices and changing gender relations A Bold Profession is an homage to their dedication to the well being of their communities
