Handbook of

Management Communication François Cooren, Peter Stücheli-Herlach, 2021-08-23 Management communication encompasses a wide range of practices that define modern organizations. Those practices are in many respects constituted, formed and contextualized by the use of language. This handbook traces the theoretical modelling of these practices by contemporary research. It explores their linguistic features and performance in specific situations of value creation and in various modes. It is a companion for students and scholars of applied linguistics and organizational communication as well as management and strategy research.

Organizing at the Margins Mahuya Pal, Joëlle Cruz, Debashish Munshi, 2023-06-17 This edited volume presents complex issues surrounding economic and cultural injustices in the global South and the social imaginaries articulated by vulnerable communities in these extractive zones. These organizations of struggle by disenfranchised members in the global South bring forth a collective of knowledge to decolonize organizational theory and think of organizing a more just world. The essays in this volume critique and connect meanings of organizations in relation to neoliberalism, coloniality and social justice. More specifically, scholars engage with ideas of resistance such as invisible histories in management theory, hybrid collective action, self-determination and indigenous sovereignty and decolonizing institutions. The chapters also cover a wide range of locations including feminist movements in Latin America, the struggles of Palestinians in self-exile to connect with their homeland and reproductive labor in Sri Lanka, to the decolonial potential of Black Lives Matter in the US and insights into organizing resistance in parts of Asia and Africa. For scholars and policymakers, this book presents emancipatory essays that interrogate the cultural, social, political and historical issues pertaining to organizations in the context of the neoliberal economy.

The Rhetoric of Social Movements Nathan Crick, 2020-09-22 This collection provides an accessible yet rigorous survey of the rhetorical study of historical and contemporary social movements and promotes the study of relations between strategy, symbolic action and social assemblage. Offering a comprehensive collection of the latest research in the field, The Rhetoric of Social Movements: Networks, Power and New Media suggests a framework for the study of social movements grounded in a methodology of slow inquiry and the interconnectedness of these imminent phenomena. Chapters address the rhetorical tactics that social movements use to gain attention and challenge power, the centrality of traditional and new media in social movements, the operations of power in movement organization, leadership and local and global networking and emerging contents and environments for social movements in the twenty-first century. Each chapter is framed by case studies drawn from movements across the world, ranging from Black Lives Matter and Occupy to Greek anarchism and indigenous land protests that ground conceptual characteristics of social movements in their continuously unfolding reality, furnishing readers with both practical and theoretical insights. The Rhetoric of Social Movements will be of interest to scholars and advanced students of rhetoric, communication, media studies, cultural studies, social protest and activism and political science.
