Wait Time Memoir Cancer Writing:

Wait Time Kenneth Sherman, 2015-12-16 When poet and essayist Kenneth Sherman was diagnosed with cancer he began keeping a notebook of observations that blossomed into this powerful memoir With incisive and evocative language Sherman presents a clear eyed view of what the cancer patient feels and thinks His narrative voice is personal but not confessional practical but not cold thoughtful and searching but not self pitying or self absorbed The author s wait time for surgery on a malignant tumour was exceptionally long and riddled with bureaucratic bumbling thus he asks our health care providers and administrators if our system cannot be made efficient and more humane While he is honest about what is good and bad in our system he is not stridently political or given to directing blame His narrative is interwoven with engaging ruminations on the meaning of illness in society and is peppered with references to other writers thoughts on the subject A widely published poet Sherman helps the reader understand the deep connection between disease and creativity the ways in which we write out of our suffering Wait Time will be of special interest to anyone facing a serious illness as well as to health care providers social workers and psychologists working in the field Its thoughtful observations on health life priorities time and mortality will make it of interest to all readers

Writing & Selling Your Memoir Paula Balzer, 2011-07-09 There s more to writing a memoir than just writing your life story A memoir isn t one long diary entry Rather it s a well crafted story about a crucial often exceptionally difficult time in someone s life Writing Selling Your Memoir talks readers through the process of telling their most personal stories in a compelling relatable and readable manner Unlike other books dedicated to the art and craft of writing memoir it teaches readers how to approach the genre with love respect and know how without sentimentalizing it Drawing on her experience working with New York Times best selling memoirists literary agent Paula Balzer carefully explores the genre and provides readers with step by step instruction on how to Identify strong opening and closing points Find and develop a strong central hook that readers can relate to Structure a memoir to maximize readability Use dialogue and pacing to enhance intimacy Approach honesty and truthfulness Build a successful author platform around their memoir Get an agent s attention Get published Full of tips techniques detailed exercises and examples from best selling memoirs as well as sidebars from well known memoir authors Writing Selling Your Memoir teaches you how to approach an often tricky genre and tell your story without sentimentalizing it The Role of Conflict on the Individual and Society Theresa MacNeil-Kelly,2020-07-08 The Role of Conflict on Society and the Individual uses a variety of interdisciplinary approaches to explore how humans both observe and confront our differences with one another and with the world around us Contributors examine conflict in various contexts including conflict within families interracial relationships sports society and ourselves to determine how conflict manifests itself in our everyday lives Two-Timed: an Adolescent Cancer Memoir Danielle DuChateau,2021-01-20 The journals are those of a girl I once knew who had cancer and wrote about her experiences She wanted to share her story in a way that would have helped her in a book about having cancer as a teen written by a teen who experienced it She wasn't lost in battle but she's been gone a long time and I haven't been able to forget her or let her go The story seems unfamiliar and yet I know it by heart It feels like yesterday but seems like a lifetime ago It's the story I never wrote because it was already written and at the heart of it is my journey with cancer a muse a curse and a blessing I've read the book before but I never closed the first chapter a book of journals written by a girl who had cancer Cancer is a part of my story and being a survivor is part of my identity but it is not my entire identity as I felt it was when I was younger At the end of my second treatment I decided I was going to write my story and publish it I even thought of the perfect title for my book Two Timed An Adolescent Cancer Memoir I thought of it because I felt two timed by my own body whose very defense system had attacked itself and it had happened to me twice But I didn't write the story The years went by and I decided I could not very well write an adolescent memoir when I was well into my twenties but I still had my journals all the journals Several more years elapsed until now twenty three years after the journey began I am finally writing the story The Disfigured Face in American Literature, Film, and Television Cornelia Klecker,Gudrun M. Grabher,2021-11-29 The face being prominent and visible is the foremost marker of a person's identity as well as their major tool of communication Facial disfigurements congenital or acquired not only erase these significant capacities but since ancient times they have been conjured up as outrageous and terrifying often connoting evil or criminality in their associations a dark secret being suggested behind the mask the disfigurement indicating punishment for sin Complemented by an original poem by Kenneth Sherman and a plastic surgeon's perspective on facial disfigurement this book investigates the exploitation of these and further stereotypical tropes by literary authors filmmakers and showrunners considering also the ways in which film television and the publishing industry have more recently tried to overcome negative codifications of facial disfigurement in the search for an authentic self behind the veil of facial disfigurement An exploration of fictional representations of the disfigured face this book will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies American studies and literary studies with interests in representations of disfigurement and the Other Cancer, I'll Give You One Year Jennifer Spiegel,2020-01-21 Cancer I'll Give You One Year A Non Informative Guide To Breast Cancer A Writer's

Memoir In Almost Real Time is not about eating kale The book is 100 percent narrative nonfiction and 0 percent self help It was actually written for the author s children in case she died This sounds morbid but maybe pointed and candid are better words Embracing candor as an aesthetic this real time story hits upon the sacred the profane a trip to Epcot a colonoscopy her kids responses to everything and O J Simpson s parole hearing Writing centric voice driven and conscious of a death sentence no diets or exercises are offered but the author may give horrible parenting advice It s undoubtedly funny but also a meditation on meaning

Human/Animal Amie Souza Reilly,2025-04-29 Amie Souza Reilly bought an old house in the suburbs She had just gotten remarried and was looking forward to a new start with her new husband and her six year old son But immediately after moving in the two brothers who lived next door began an insidious crusade to push them out They followed her peered in her windows stood in her yard trapped her inside her car As they broke boundary after suburban boundary she found herself implicated in their violence Human Animal merges personal narrative and cultural criticism to unleash the complicated relationship between instinct and action violence and regret This bestiary in essays wrestles with American colonialism horror films feminism and gender studies to confront the intrusive neighbors the author could not Ultimately this book asks larger questions about civility care and the line between human and animal Illustrated with the author s own sketches Human Animal grapples not only with Reilly s place in her neighborhood but with America s past and current political climate
