Waking Up American Coming Of Age Biculturally:

Waking Up American Angela Jane Fountas, 2005

Hijas Americanas Rosie Molinary, 2007-05-10 In Hijas

Americanas author Rosie Molinary sheds new light on what it means to grow up Latina Drawing upon her own experiences as well as interviews and surveys collected from more than 500 Latina women Molinary provides a powerful understanding of the inner conflicts and powerful triumphs of Latinas The women profiled in this book are Caribbean Mexican Central American and South American These first second and third generation Latinas have all grappled with the experience of coming of age within not one but two cultures that of the United States and that of their familial homelands Hijas Americanas addresses experiences that are uniquely female and Latin focusing on themes of body image standards of beauty ethnic identity and sexuality In doing so Molinary gives voice to the struggles and successes of Latinas across racial sexual and cultural identities emphasizing that the challenges inherent in growing up between two cultures can positively shape Latinas lives

Waking Up American Angela Jane Fountas, 2005-09-05 A collection of twenty two essays by first generation women struggling to reconcile their American and foreign cultures describes the challenges of being raised by parents who simultaneously embrace and question American values in a volume that explores such themes as rebellion sexuality and one's sense of self Original

Kissing Outside the Lines Diane Farr, 2011-05-17 Diane Farr Numb3rs star Loveline veteran and FunnyorDie.com contributor always took for granted that she could love anybody she chose But when she a white woman fell in love with a Korean American man she quickly learned a tough lesson When it comes to navigating the landscape of interracial love in America today you're going to step on some landmines At turns introspective and outrageous Kissing Outside the Lines is Farr's unapologetic often hilarious look at the complexities of interracial ethnic religious what have you love told through the lens of her own experience of dating marrying and creating a family with someone from a race and culture different from her own Along the way she exposes the many ways in which prejudice rears its ugly head whether subtly or overtly when you dare to love outside the lines and she shares the stories of other multiracial couples from different corners of the U.S. who have made a similar leap Kissing Outside the Lines tackles love family and prejudice head on With sharp wit and deft humor Farr confronts the fears and reservations that come with loving outside of one's race and she emerges with a powerful message Love is love and family is family no matter what it looks like from the outside Kissing Outside the Lines also includes an 8 page black and white photo signature

Growing Up Muslim in Europe and the United States Medhi Bozorgmehr, Philip Kasinitz, 2018-07-27 This volume brings together scholarship from two different and until now largely separate literatures the study of the children of immigrants and the study of Muslim minority communities in order to explore the changing nature of ethnic identity religious practice and citizenship in the contemporary western world With attention to the similarities and differences between the European and American experiences of growing up Muslim the contributing authors ask what it means for young people to be both Muslim and American or European how they

reconcile these at times conflicting identities how they reconcile the religious and gendered cultural norms of their immigrant families with the more liberal ideals of the western societies that they live in and how they deal with these issues through mobilization and political incorporation A transatlantic research effort that brings together work from the tradition in diaspora studies with research on the second generation to examine social cultural and political dimensions of the second generation Muslim experience in Europe and the United States this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration diaspora race and ethnicity religion and integration Women of Color and Feminism Maythee Rojas,2009-12-29 In this Seal Studies title author and professor Maythee Rojas offers a look at the intricate crossroads of being a woman of color Women of Color and Feminism tackles the question of how women of color experience feminism and how race and socioeconomics can alter this experience Rojas explores the feminist woman of color s identity and how it relates to mainstream culture and feminism Featuring profiles of historical women of color including Hottentot Venus Josefa Loaiza and Anna Mae Pictou Aquash a discussion of the arts and a vision for developing a feminist movement built on love and community healing Rojas examines the intersectional nature of being a woman of color and a feminist Covering a range of topics including sexuality gender politics violence stereotypes and reproductive rights Women of Color and Feminism offers a far reaching view of this multilayered identity This powerful study strives to rewrite race and feminism encouraging women to take back the body in a world of new activism Women of Color and Feminism encourages a broad conversation about race class and gender and creates a discourse that brings together feminism and racial justice movements Essays on Immigration Bob Blaisdell,2013-12-18 The concept of immigration remains central to American culture past and present This original anthology surveys the experience from a wide range of cultural and historical viewpoints ranging from the 17th to 21st centuries Contributors include Hector St John de Crevecoeur Jacob Riis Edwidge Danticat Junot Diaz and many others

Gringa Melissa Hart,2009-09-22 Torn between the high socioeconomic status of her father and the bohemian lifestyle of her mother Melissa Hart tells a compelling story of contradiction in this coming of age memoir Set in 1970s Southern California Gringais the story of a young girl conflicted by two extremes life with her mother who leaves her father to begin a lesbian relationship taking Hart and her two siblings along and her father s white bread well to do security which is predictable and stable and boring She tells of her mom s new life in a Hispanic neighborhood of Oxnard California and how these new surroundings begin to positively shape Hart herself Ultimately however a judge rules that being raised by two women is unnatural and grants her father primary custody Hart weaves a powerful story of fleeting moments with her mother of her unfolding adoration of Oxnard s Latino culture and of the ways in which she s molded by the polarity of her parents worldviews Gringa offers a touching reflective look at one girl s struggle with the dichotomies of class culture and sexuality Intercultural Couples Jill M. Bystydzienski,2011-05-23 Despite the growing presence of intercultural couples in the United States and worldwide their stories often go untold In Intercultural Couples Jill Bystydzienski provides a rare and comprehensive understanding of the multidimensional experiences of intercultural couples drawing mainly upon in depth interviews with persons living in domestic partnerships heterosexual and same sex representing a broad spectrum of ethnic racial religious socioeconomic and national backgrounds In these relationships each partner brings a different set of cultural experiences that may include gender expectations ideas about appropriate relations with family members childrearing financial matters and general lifestyle Sometimes differences may be unrecognized or seen as minimal yet some can become salient forming the basis for conflict enriching diversity or both Bystydzienski s findings show that despite hurtful incidents from persons outside the couple partnerships intercultural unions are a source of satisfaction for the partners and are able to bridge divisions and reduce inequalities between persons of diverse backgrounds providing a rich portrait of how these couples negotiate their identities as individuals and as couples in relation to the outside world Heart Radical Anne Liu Kellor, 2025-07-30 Wanting to understand how her path is tied to her mother tongue Anne a young multiracial American woman travels through China the country of her mother s birth Along the way she tries on different roles seeker teacher student girlfriend artist and daughter and continually asks herself Why do I feel called to make this journey Whether witnessing a Tibetan sky burial teaching English at a university in Chengdu visiting her grandmother in LA or falling in love with a Chinese painter Anne is always in pursuit of intimacy with others even as she is all too aware of her silences and separation For two years she settles into a comfortable routine in her boyfriend s apartment and regains fluency in Chinese a language she spoke as a young child but has used less and less as an adult Eventually however her desire to know herself in other ways surfaces again She misses speaking English she feels suffocated by urban polluted China and she starts to fall for another man Ultimately Anne realizes that to live her truth as a mixed race bilingual woman she must embrace all of her influences and layers In a world that often wants us to choose a side or fit an ideal she learns that she can both belong and not belong wherever she is and that home is ultimately found within
