Walking With Leg Braces Stories:

Three Stories Edward Gilchrist Wright, 2023-11-15 About the Book Three Stories tells the lives of people in American landscapes of the 20th Century Devotion tells of an overbearing preacher who attempts to manipulate the lives of those around him but his younger second wife has a mind of her own as does a rebellious son from the preacher's first marriage Eleanor Packard is a young woman whose childhood was marred by an abusive father and an illness which left her lame making her transition to adulthood difficult This Sad Time reveals the fates of two different fathers each betrayed by a ruthless child About the Author Edward Gilchrist Wright was born in Raleigh NC Raised in the country he has lived in San Francisco for many years His greatest influences have been the European and English authors of the 19th and 20th Centuries

125 True Stories of Amazing Animals National Geographic Kids, 2012 Animals Take Up Thy Bed and Walk Lois Keith, 2001 Heidi The Secret Garden and Pollyanna are all classic girls books featuring a miracle cure of an invalid character who literally gets up and walks away from illness or paralysis Such stories were common in Victorian novels and they implicitly conveyed the idea that disability and physical suffering were punishment for wrongdoing unruly girls could not enter womanhood unless they were tamed and an accident was the perfect plot device for this transformation Other characters like Helen Burns in Jane Eyre or Beth in Little Women were just too good to live and died so that another character could be redeemed by their example Lois Keith points out in this study that the temptation to either cure or kill off disabled characters has surprising tenacity The widespread belief that a disabled life isn't a full life and that patients can cure themselves through force of will endures to the present day In Take Up Thy Bed Walk Lois Keith brings her lively and observant eye to the classic books of childhood from Jane Eyre Heidi and Pollyanna to modern American classics such as Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little House on the Prairie and Judy Blume's Deenie Keith explores the recurring images of impairment and ill health in literature and asks the reader to reconsider the messages they send to a devoted young audience This book is also a testament to the singular passion with which these books are read by younger readers and reminds us of the intensity of our own reading experience as children Videojournalism Kenneth Kobre, 2024-04-19 Videojournalism Multimedia Storytelling for Online Broadcast and Documentary Journalists is an essential guide for solo video storytellers from backpack videojournalists to short form documentary makers to do it all broadcast reporters Based on interviews with award winning professionals sharing their unique experiences and knowledge Videojournalism covers topics such as crafting and editing eye catching short stories recording high quality sound and understanding the laws and ethics of filming in public and private places Other topics include understanding the difference between a story and a report finding a theme and telling a story in a compact time frame learning to use different cameras and lenses from smart phones to mirrorless and digital cinema cameras using light both natural and artificial understanding color and exposure The second edition of this best selling text has been completely revised and updated Heavily illustrated with more than 550 photographs the book also includes more than 200 links to outstanding examples of short form video stories Anatomy of a News Story a short documentary made for the book follows a day in the life of a solo TV videojournalist on an assignment with a surprise ending and helps readers translate theory to practice This book is for anyone learning how to master the art and craft of telling real short form stories with words sound and pictures for the Web or television A supporting companion website links to documentaries and videos and includes additional recommendations from the field s most prominent educators Take My Hand and Walk with Me Anne Carbone,2016-05-27 In this book I share my journey with God and how it unfolded over my life time My journey began on a dark November night when I lost my way I was returning from a cousins birthday party in Brooklyn It was one am I missed the turn on a road I had driven all of my youth growing up in Brooklyn Not quite sure where I was I stopped at a stop sign and began to pray I was scared as the neighborhood was alive with drug activity and crowded street corners In a few minutes of that prayer the front part of a white tractor trailer pulled along side my car I lowered my window and asked this big burly man for directions back to the main artery that would lead me to the ninety mile trip home He told me to follow him as he was going that way but had to make a stop first Had I not heard the compassion in his voice I would have never followed him We weaved through streets unknown to me and made a stop in front of a housing project I left the motor running and waited He returned with a women who climbed into the cab Again we weaved through streets unknown to me Suddenly he stopped and began to walk over to my car I gripped the steering wheel He pointed to a big sign that announced the entrance to the expressway that would lead me home Filled with joy I lowered my window to express my thanks He returned to his truck made a right hand turn as I made the left to enter on to the expressway I had a clear view of the flaps on his back tires as the street lights reflected their glow It said Transportation for Christ My journey had begun

On the Right Track Marion Jones,2010-10-26 For more than a decade Marion Jones was hailed as the the fastest woman on the planet At the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney Australia she became the first woman ever to win five medals at one Olympics That same year the Associated Press and ESPN named her Athlete of the Year She was on the cover of Vogue and Time She seemed to have it all fame fortune talent and international acclaim Now she is a convicted felon The trouble started in 2003 when she lied to federal agents about her use of a performance enhancing drug and her knowledge of a check fraud scam In 2007 no longer able to live with the lies she admitted the truth In a sad end to what seemed like a storybook career she was stripped of her medals and her track and field records were wiped from the books She was incarcerated at Carswell federal prison in Fort Worth Texas a prison known for its violence and abuse While there she kept herself in shape and her sanity intact by running on a dirt track and a treadmill in the prison s improvised weight room But her imprisonment was not the end for Marion Jones In fact it marked a new beginning She is now using her story to change the lives of people the world over and inspire others who like her face obstacles that seem insurmountable On the Right Track is the candidly told story of how Marion came to grips with her lies and the consequences of her actions and how she found meaning in all of it What she tells her children and has now applied to her own life is that when you make a mistake you admit it you accept the consequences you move on you make the wrong a right She teaches her children and others to take a break and pause before making impulsive and potentially harmful decisions At the heart of this book are real issues that we all face learning to grow through pain making decisions that will help us far into the future overcoming failure and discouragement and applying practical principles that point the way to personal and spiritual breakthrough

Chronicle of the Horse ,1988-10 All Hands ,1984 The Piper Patrick Malone,2004 Kelly O Neill a lovely young and accomplished flautist overcomes her blindness determined to live life to the fullest and obtain her heart s desire playing with the New York Philharmonic She gets by with the help of her close friend and fellow musician Marta her loyal canine companion Beau and Curtis her favorite 12 year old crippled music student All she wants now is that special someone in her life but she learned very early that having a handicap can make romance elusive For the first in a series of events celebrating ancient music from around the world Professor Erik Grossman travels to the U S from Germany with his country s newest archeological treasure a flute as old as it is unique which he will play during the event Marta is determined to see Kelly make a romantic connection with the handsome and worldly professor but catastrophe strikes during Erik s performance The ancient flute is stolen that night and new york detectives investigate the theft while impossibly horrific events lead the professor to entertain an unimagined possibility Professor Grossman s theories are met with disbelief by the detectives but Kelly remains understanding and supportive though her mind reels from the frightening tale it tells her In an unfortunate turn of events involving her student Kelly is forced to become more involved than the professor would wish and soon they all will come to know exactly what it means to pay The Piper

A Summer Plague Tony Gould,1997-09-11 Polio often called the summer plague struck hundreds of thousands of children around the world between its emergence as an epidemic disease in 1916 to its cure in the 1950s Today images of children with crutches and leg braces or encased to their necks in iron lungs may be little more than a painful memory Yet during its height the disease induced panic on a scale reminiscent of the great plagues of history This book is the most comprehensive and compelling account of the century s polio epidemics yet written Interweaving biographical political social and medical history Tony Gould a distinguished British writer and himself a polio survivor traces the rise and fall of the epidemics and describes the individuals who were influential in its treatment and conquest He tells of Franklin D Roosevelt the most celebrated polio sufferer of all who set up his own hydrotherapy center at Warm Springs in Georgia John Enders the Nobel prizewinner who made the crucial breakthrough in the laboratory FDR s lieutenant Basil O Connor whose March of Dimes became a byword for successful fund raising Sister Elizabeth Kenny the larger than life nurse from the Australian outback who challenged medical orthodoxy and invented miracle cures and finally the scientific rivals Jonas Salk and Albert Sabin caught in a dramatic race to produce a viable vaccine Gould then examines the experience of polio survivors on both sides of the Atlantic including a moving autobiographical account of his own struggle with the disease and resulting disability Although the disease has been eliminated in the West it has not disappeared paralytic polio remains a scourge in India the Far East and parts of Africa And there are new worries that fatigue and accelerated muscular weakness a post polio syndrome has come to afflict survivors three or four decades after the initial attack Gould s powerful book published forty years after the successful trial of the Salk vaccine helps us to understand the savage and continuing impact of polio
