Voices First Day Awakening Aboriginal:

The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston, Robert Zeller, 2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aboriginals and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia

Voices of the First Day Robert Lawlor, 1993 Voice and Identity Rockford Sansom, 2024-10-25 Voice and Identity draws from the knowledge and expertise of leading figures to explore the evolving nature of voice training in the performing arts The authors in this international collection look through both practical and theoretical lenses as they connect voice studies to equity diversity inclusion and belonging and to gender and gender diversity The book offers chapters that focus on practical tools and tips for voice teachers and the text also includes chapters that give rich social cultural and theoretical discussions that are both academic and accessible with a particular focus on gender diverse gender non binary transgender and inclusionary voice research Offering interdisciplinary insights from voice practitioners and scholars from the disciplines of actor training singing public speaking voice science communication philosophy women s studies Indigenous studies gender studies and sociology this book will be a key resource for practitioners and researchers engaged in these fields The chapters in this book were originally published in the Voice and Speech Review journal

Something Happened on the Way to Heaven Nish Gunawardena, 2011-05-26 Raye is in love His life on the East Coast is unfulfilled without her She lives in another country He takes a summer off from his busy graduate school life to be with her but his journey to get out of his trap is interrupted by a mysterious messenger in the most unlikely of places Raye is taken off his planned course and taken unwittingly on a path of his initiation and preparation for the girl of his dreams who had previously rejected him for his incompatibility He is stunned by the messengers down to earth delivery of unearthly intelligence and the message of timely incisive magic with seductive mystery Raye is mesmerized by the messengers golden arm bracelet of Uraeus which epitomizes the potency of the revelation he receives There is a battle in his heart He must win it to be with the one he sought in the beginning Will he see the true source of the light he is illuminated with

Forgotten Origin Steven Strong,Evan Strong,2011-03-29 Forgotten Origin is the third in a series of books dedicated to the first Homo sapiens the Australian Aboriginal people Steven Strong and Evan Strong continue in their investigation into the global impact of Aboriginal people sailing from never to Australia no less than 50 000 years ago paying particular attention to the shared principles found within many Gnostic scriptures and the Dreaming As radical as this theory may appear the rigor applied whether through mtDNA Y Chromosomes skull morphology or historical accounts and the religious ancestry upon which this hidden history is founded demands serious consideration This is not their story Steven Strong and Evan Strong make no claim to speak on behalf of anyone They do however have the right to relay that which Aboriginal culture custodians insist is true The First Australians are unique and in no way descended from Africans or any other race Forgotten Origin is merely another reminder of this hidden truth

The Woman's Belly Book Lisa Sarasohn,2006 From belly laughs to gut reactions people acknowledge the power and wisdom within our body s center every day yet many women sabotage their bellies with tight clothes and shame This book demonstrates that by celebrating their centers instead of trying to reshape them women can tap into their source energy to boost vitality release stress spice up sexual pleasure and unleash creativity The Woman s Belly Book helps women rejoice in their womanly center The book takes a soul powered approach to building confidence and better health presenting simple exercises and movements to help women awaken their core Lisa Sarasohn presents the concepts with humor and insight and the movements which incorporate techniques such as yoga breath work belly dancing qigong and tai chi are fun and invigorating Reclaiming the belly as honorable even sacred the book also provides a foundation for a body centered spiritual practice that invokes the presence of the sacred feminine Exploring Place in the Australian Landscape David S.

Jones,2022-08-30 This book offers an original framework on how to investigate understand and translate sense of place at a regional scale The book explores contemporary sense of place theory and practice drawing upon the Western District of Victoria in Australia being the Country of the White Cockatoo It offers a unique multi temporal and thematical analytical approach towards comprehending and mapping the values that underpin and determine strengths of human relationships and nuances to this landscape Included is a deep ethno ecological and cross cultural translation that takes the reader through both the Western understanding of sense of place as well as the Australian Aboriginal understanding of Country Both are different intellectual constructions of thoughts values and ideologies but which share numerous commonalities due to their archetypal meanings feelings and values transmitted to humans Acorns: Windows High-Tide Foghat Joshua Morris,2013-01-23 Acorns delineates the future of humanity as a reunification of intellect with the Deep Self Having chosen to focus upon ego established securely by the time of Christ much more beta brain wave development will destroy our species and others which process has already begun We create our own realities through beliefs intents and desires and we were in and out of probabilities constantly Feelings follow beliefs not the other way around
