What Is Touch Senses Close Up:

Touching (Learn About: The Five Senses) Sonia W. Black,2023-09-05 How do we experience the world Let s learn all about the five senses The sense of touch is one of our five senses And it is amazing Every day it starts working the very same moment we wake It tells us that our pillow feels soft the floor is hard the shower is hot and the juice is cold Touch also tells us that tickling feels good and bumping into something feels bad Learn about feeling how it works and common problems and diseases connected with it with this perfect first introduction to the sense of touch ABOUT THE SERIES The human body is amazing It gives us five different ways to learn about the world around us through the eyes through the skin through the tongue through the ears and through the nose Thanks to these parts of our bodies we can see feel taste hear and smell These are the five senses Why do bananas taste so good Why does tickling cause so much laughter Illustrated with familiar examples this fun nonfiction set in the Learn About series gives readers a close up look at the five senses and it teaches them how each of the senses work

Touch and the Ancient Senses Alex Purves,2017-11-17 Unlike the other senses touch ranges beyond a single sense organ encompassing not only the skin but also the interior of the body It mediates almost every aspect of interpersonal relations in antiquity from the everyday to the erotic just as it also provides a primary point of contact between the individual and the outside world The essays in this volume explore the ways in which touch plays a defining role in science art philosophy and medicine and shapes our understanding of topics ranging from aesthetics and poetics to various religious and ritual practices Whether we locate the sense of touch on the surface of the skin within the body or less tangibly still within the emotions the sensory impact of touching raises a broad range of interpretive and phenomenological questions This is the first volume of its kind to explore the sense of touch in antiquity bringing a variety of disciplinary approaches to bear on the sense that is usually disregarded as the most base and obvious of the five In these pages by contrast we find in touch a complex and fascinating indicator of the body s relation to object environment and self

The Sense of Touch and Its Rendering Antonio Bicchi,Martin Buss,Marc O. Ernst,Angelika Peer,2008-08-26 Sense of Touch and its Rendering presents a unique and interdisciplinary approach highlighting the field of haptic research from a neuropsychological as well as a technological point of view This edited book is the outcome of the TOUCH HapSys European research project and provides an important contribution towards a new generation of high fidelity haptic display technologies The book is structured in two parts A Fundamental Psychophysical and Neuropsychological Research and B Technology and Applications The two parts are not however separated and the many connections and synergies between the two complementary domains of research are highlighted in the text The eleven chapters discuss the recent advances in the study of human haptic kinaesthetic tactile temperature and multimodal visual auditory haptic perception mechanisms Besides the theoretical advancement the contributions survey the state of the art in the field report a number of practical applications to real systems and discuss possible future developments

The Switch Image Lorenz Engell,2021-04-22 Television is the most powerful system of images in the late 20th and early 21st centuries Nonetheless TV has attained only little philosophical attention so far especially compared to other visual media such as film This book looks at TV as what happens on the screen and beyond it which is mainly the operation of switching images It therefore proposes a new definition of TV as the first picture that can be switched on off and over which stresses that TV is more tactile than visual Through the operation of switching TV figures the world from within and as the course of its figuration This is grasped here by the term of ontography Through the ongoing interlacing and bridging of TV 1 0 the image is being switched and TV 2 0 the image is a switch TV exponentially increases the production and circulation of images It transforms the world and itself from an analogue state to a digital one and from central perspectivism to pluri perspective In terms of time through switching and the switch it develops and reworks new temporal orderings such as instantaneity synchronicity flow and seriality TV makes its own history In space it creates a mediasphere as its habitat and hence new forms of being in the world of proximity and distance and scale Anthropologically it works on what a subject and an object is on what makes the human being and ontographically how it is possible that there is something at all instead of nothing through switch images

Senses of Touch: Human Dignity and Deformity from Michelangelo to Calvin Marjorie O'Rourke Boyle, 2021-10-11 Senses of Touch anatomizes the uniquely human hand as a rhetorical figure for dignity and deformity in early modern culture It concerns a valuational shift from the contemplative ideal as signified by the sense of sight to an active reality as signified by the sense of touch From posture to piety from manicure to magic the book discovers touch in a critical period of its historical development in anatomy and society It features new interpretations of two landmarks of western civilization Michelangelo's fresco of the Creation of Adam and Calvin's doctrine of election It also accords special attention to the typing of women as sensual creatures by using their hands as a heuristic Its alternative interpretations explore in theory and in practice the sensuality the creativity and the plain utility of hands thus integrating biology and culture

The Senses of Democracy Francine R. Masiello, 2018-05-02 In The Senses of Democracy Francine R Masiello traces a history of perceptions expressed in literature the visual arts politics and history from the start of the nineteenth century to the present day A wide transnational landscape frames the book along with an original and provocative thesis when the discourse on democracy is altered when nations fall into crisis or the increased weight of modernity tests minds and nerves the representation of our sensing bodies plays a crucial role in explaining order and rebellion cultural innovation and social change Taking a wide arc of materials periodicals memoirs political proclamations and travel logs along with art installations and fiction and focusing on the technologies that supplement and enhance human perception Masiello looks at the evolution of what she calls sense work in cultural texts mainly from Latin America that wend from the heights of romantic thought to the startling innovations of modernism in the early twentieth century and then to times of posthuman experience when cyber bodies hurtle through globalized space and human senses are reproduced by machines Tracing the shifting debates on perceptions The Senses of Democracy offers a new paradigm with which to speak of Latin American cultural history and launches a field for the comparative study of bodies experience pleasure and pain over the continental divide In the end sense work helps us to understand how culture finds its location

The Cinema of Sensations Ágnes Pethő, 2015-01-12 Following a previous international conference at the Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania in Cluj Napoca Romania and the subsequent publication of a volume of studies with the title Film in the Post Media Age Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2012 which insisted citing the words of Jacques Rancière that the ecosystem of contemporary moving images should be understood not as a unified digital environment but as a highly diversified multisensory milieu another conference was organised focusing this time directly on the multisensory nature of moving images Pairing the keywords cinema and sensation an invitation was extended for presentations offering a closer examination of the sensual aspects of moving images in order to identify and map out at least some of the possible new directions perceived as taking shape as sensuous film studies The questions contributors addressed included What kind of paradigms authors and styles can be identified in the practice of a cinema exploring the palpable presence of bodies in film history How can sensory audiovisual perception and cognitive knowledge be connected when watching moving images What does the experience of so called haptic images entail in film and video art How does an emphasis on sensations and the body relate to representations of social issues and cultural difference How are representations of other arts in films or the filmic image appearing as a painterly tableau perceived How can new images incorporate a sensation of old images What is the difference between haptic images and hyper cinema in the form of 3D movies How can the new naturalistic trends in contemporary cinema be interpreted What kind of sensual forms are devised for what is unrepresentable or impalpable The conference took place between the 25th and 27th of May 2012 with the title The Cinema of Sensations and attracted researchers from all over the world for what turned out to be three days of presentations on extremely varied subjects and lively discussions conducted in a memorably cheerful atmosphere The present volume is the palpable outcome of these debates and publishes a selection of articles that have been written for or after this conference
