Talking the Walk & Walking the Talk Marc Shell, 2015-09-01 This book argues that we should regard walking and talking in a single rhythmic vision In doing so it contributes to the theory of prosody our understanding of respiration and looking and in sum to the particular links across the board between the human characteristics of bipedal walking and meaningful talk The author first introduces the philosophical neurological anthropological and aesthetic aspects of the subject in historical perspective then focuses on rhetoric and introduces a tension between the small and large issues of rhythm He thereupon turns his attention to the roles of breathing in poetry as a life and death matter with attention to beats and walking poems This opens onto technical concepts from the classical traditions of rhetoric and philology Turning to the relationship between prosody and motion he considers both animals and human beings as both ostensibly able bodied creatures and presumptively disabled ones Finally he looks at dancing and writing as aspects of walking and talking with special attention to motion in Arabic and Chinese calligraphy The final chapters of the book provide a series of interrelated representative case studies

Walk the Talk, Dress the Part Ed D. Sheryl a. Vasso, McS Cammy Tidwell, 2012-05 Not long after the gospel of Matthew opens and just as it seems reasonable for Jesus to begin His public ministry He is whisked away by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil three times Immediately the schemes of Satan are fully revealed The defeated one suggested that Jesus talk could turn stones into bread Satan proposed that Jesus walk could be impressive and significant if He were to throw Himself off the pinnacle of the temple Finally the devil tried to entice Jesus with the thought of His wardrobe being arrayed with the power of all the kingdoms Satan tempted Jesus by appealing to the desire to be relevant significant and powerful Aren t these the same appealing areas of vulnerability for us as educators How natural to want to be relevant while talking to our students impressive and significant in our profession and powerful in our classroom kingdoms Nothing would please the tempter more than to derail our earthly walk talk and wardrobe He doesn t want us to walk the talk or dress the part of being a follower of Christ and a light in a dark and needy world Like Jesus we don t need to outsmart or outmuscle Satan We need to simply out truth him with the powerful words of God Sheryl Vasso has spent the last several years directing the Masters of Education Program at Philadelphia Biblical University and traveling the world as a professor of teachers enrolled in graduate studies Cammy Tidwell on the other hand took an early retirement from the teaching profession to spend time at home with her children Through the common passion of studying and teaching God s Word Sheryl and Cammy have united first as friends and then
