Walking With The Wind Voices And Visions In Film:

Abbas Kiarostami Monika Raesch, 2023-04-21 The cinephile community knows Abbas Kiarostami 1940 2016 as one of the most important filmmakers of the previous decades This volume illustrates why the Iranian filmmaker achieved critical acclaim around the globe and details his many contributions to the art of filmmaking Kiarostami began his illustrious career in his native Iran in the 1970s although European and American audiences did not begin to take notice until he released his 1987 feature Where's the Friend's House His films defy established conventions placing audiences as active viewers who must make decisions about actions and characters while watching the narratives unfold He asks viewers to question the genre construct Close Up and challenges them to determine how to watch and imagine a narrative Ten and Shirin In recognition for his approach to the craft Kiarostami was awarded many honors during his lifetime including the top prize at the Cannes Film Festival in 1997 for Taste of Cherry In Abbas Kiarostami Interviews editor Monika Raesch collects eighteen interviews several translated into English for the first time lectures and other materials that span Kiarostami's career in the film industry In addition to exploring his expertise the texts provide insight into his life philosophy This volume offers a well rounded picture of the filmmaker through his conversations with journalists film scholars critics students and audience members

Hamrāh Bā Bād Abbas Kiarostami, 2001 This bilingual edition of recent verse by the celebrated Iranian filmmaker Abbas Kiarostami award winning director of such films as Close Up and Taste of Cherry includes English translations of more than two hundred crystalline haiku like poems together with their Persian originals The translators noted Persian literature scholars Ahmad Karimi Hakkak and Michael Beard contribute an illuminating introduction to Kiarostami's poetic enterprise examining its relationship to his unique cinematic corpus and to the traditions of classic and contemporary Persian poetry Of interest to enthusiasts of cinema and literature alike Walking with the Wind the second volume in Harvard Film Archive's series Voices and Visions in Film sheds light on a contemporary master who transforms simple fragments of reality into evocative narrative landscapes

Voice and Vision Mick Hurbis-Cherrier, 2012-11-12 Voice Vision is a comprehensive manual for the independent filmmakers and film students who want a solid grounding in the tools techniques and processes of narrative film in order to achieve their artistic vision This book includes essential and detailed information on relevant film and digital video tools a thorough overview of the filmmaking stages and the aesthetic considerations for telling a visual story The ultimate goal of this book is to help you develop your creative voice while acquiring the solid practical skills and confidence to use it Unlike many books that privilege raw technical information or the line producing aspects of production Voice Vision places creativity visual expression and cinematic ideas front and center After all every practical decision a filmmaker makes like choosing a location an actor a film stock a focal length a lighting set up an edit point or a sound effect is also an expressive one and should serve the filmmaker's vision Every decision from the largest conceptual choices to the smallest practical solutions has a profound impact on what appears on the screen and how it moves an audience In Practice sidebars throughout connect conceptual aesthetic and technical issues to their application in the real world Some provide a brief analysis of a scene or technique from easily rentable films which illustrate how a specific technology or process is used to support a conceptual narrative or aesthetic choice Others recount common production challenges encountered on real student and professional shoots which will inspire you to be innovative and resourceful when you are solving your own filmmaking challenges

Out of Asia Bert Cardullo, 2008 Out of Asia: The Films of Akira Kurosawa, Satyajit Ray, Abbas Kiarostami, and Zhang Yimou is a collection of interviews with and essays about the four filmmakers who introduced the cinema of their respective countries to the West Kurosawa Japan and Ray India in the 1950s Kiarostami Iran and Zhang China in the 1980s Kurosawa and Ray were post World War II phenomena as the new breed of American cinephiles demanded more contact with Asian cultures of which they had known little until the 1940s Kiarostami and Zhang for their part are both post revolutionary filmmakers whose films have helpfully introduced Americans to two Eastern cultures with which the American government has long had and continues to have a problematic relationship As a whole then Out of Asia documents an alternative to Western brands of cinema even as these four foreign directors with the possible exception of Kiarostami integrate Western forms styles and genres into their own native traditions As such these artists could be said to represent a global filmmaking perspective that now more than ever this world and the American nation can use Each of the interviews in this volume is accompanied by an overview of the director's career or an essay on representative films by him In addition Out of Asia is preceded by a contextualizing introduction it is followed by filmographies a bibliography and an index and the book is interspersed with photographs of the four directors in question or stills from their films There are books devoted to individual filmmakers like Kurosawa Ray Kiarostami and Zhang but until Out of Asia there has not been one that treats representatives of four national cinemas from their own point of view as well as from an international perspective

All the Voices of the Wind Donald James Parker, 2008-07 LOVE BECOMES A REAL SCIENCE For Jeremy a high school senior growing up near Seattle there are five seasons rainy dry football basketball and baseball season Jeremy s world has always revolved around his father and sports Now there is a new Heavenly body in town whose gravity is pulling Jeremy away from the orbit around his dad Maria Masterson the new girl in school is on a mission to make her voice heard in the debate over the theory that man evolved from lower life forms Jeremy s father adamantly believes in Charles Darwin s theory Who will win the tug of war over Jeremy s heart and mind

The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins, 2004-03-24 American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message Formal Matters in Contemporary Latino Poetry F. Aldama, 2016-01-26 Today s Latino poetry scene is incredibly vibrant With original interviews this is the first meditation on the thematic features of such poetry Looking at how Julia Alvarez Rhina Espaillat Rafael Campo and C Dale Young use structures such as meter rhyme and line break this study identifies a poetics of formalist Latino poetry School Library Journal ,1998
