Zwischen Ideal Ambivalenz Geschwisterbeziehungen Soziokulturellen:

Zones of Focused Ambiguity in Siri Hustvedt's Works Johanna Hartmann, Christine Marks, Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10

This collection comprises essays from various interdisciplinary perspectives e.g. literary scholarship, intermediality, art history, psychoanalysis, philosophy and medicine to analyze and interpret the fictional and non-fictional works by Siri Hustvedt, an author whose reputation and public presence have been growing steadily in the 21st century and who is recognized as one of the most widely read and appreciated contemporary American writers. In her significance and stature as a public intellectual, she is not merely an American writer but a transnational cosmopolitan author who develops new forms not only of literary narrative but of interdisciplinary thought and writing, bringing together otherwise separated genres and branches of knowledge in a broad spectrum between literature and philosophy, historiography and art, psychoanalysis and neuroscience, narrative and medicine. The present volume is structured into the parts: Literary Creation and Communication, Psychoanalysis and Philosophy, Medicine and Narrative, Vision, Perception and Power, and Trauma, Memory and the Ambiguities of Self, and closes with an interview of Siri Hustvedt by Susanne Becker in which Hustvedt elucidates her personal conception of her own creative processes of writing.

Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion Volume 4, 2025, 2025-08-14 The Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion is an annual collection of double anonymous peer-reviewed articles that seeks to provide a broad international arena for an intellectual exchange of ideas between the disciplines of philosophy, theology, religion, cultural history and literature and to showcase their multifarious junctures within the framework of Jewish studies. Contributions to the Review place special thematic emphasis on scepticism within Jewish thought and its links to other religious traditions and secular worldviews. The Review is interested in the tension at the heart of matters of reason and faith, rationalism and mysticism, theory and practice, narrativity and normativity, doubt and dogma.

Gender and Second-Temple Judaism Kathy Ehrensperger, Shayna Sheinfeld, 2020-09-24 Ancient literature was generally written by and produced for elite men. That fact creates specific challenges to modern interpreters of gender roles in the ancient world, especially once contemporary understandings of gender as construction and performance are embraced. In Gender and Second Temple Judaism, world-renowned scholars take on these challenges with regard to ancient Judaism, here including early Christianity and early rabbinic Judaism as well as at once examining the ancient evidence and quite consciously addressing difficult methodological questions regarding gender. Taken together, these chapters further complicate discussions of the construction of identity, e.g. who is a Jew, by inflecting them with questions of gender construction as well. Scholars of ancient Judaism and of gender alike will find much to grapple with in these pages.

Geschwisterkonflikte und Familienerziehung Jan Frederik Bossek, 2025-11-21 Wie Geschwister ihre Konflikte bewältigen lernen, sie nicht durch eine selbstläufige kognitive Entwicklung, sondern durch Sozialisation und Erziehung. Die vorliegende rekonstruktive Studie fokussiert die Familienerziehung und fragt, wie Eltern ihren Kindern eine Konfliktpraxis vermitteln, was sie ihnen vermitteln
