Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language Polina Vinogradova, Joan Kang Shin, 2020-10-29 This engaging volume on English as an Additional Language EAL argues persuasively for the importance of critical participatory pedagogies that embrace multilingualism and multimodality in the field of TESOL It highlights the role of the TESOL profession in teaching for social justice and advocacy and explores how critical participatory pedagogies translate into English language teaching and teacher education around the world Bringing together diverse scholars in the field and practicing English language teachers editors Polina Vinogradova and Joan Kang

Shin present 10 thematically organized units that demonstrate that language teaching pedagogy must be embedded in the larger sociocultural contexts of teaching and learning to be successful Each unit covers one pedagogical approach and includes three case studies to illustrate how English language teachers across the world implement these approaches in their classrooms The chapters are supplemented by discussion questions and a range of practical sources for further exploration Addressing established and emerging areas of TESOL topics covered include Critical and postmethod pedagogies Translingualism Digital literacy and multiliteracies Culturally responsive pedagogy Advocacy Featuring educators implementing innovative approaches in primary secondary and tertiary contexts across borders Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language is an ideal text for methods and foundational courses in TESOL and will appeal to in service and preservice English language teachers as well as students and teacher educators in TESOL and applied linguistics

Understanding the Impact of INSET on Teacher Change in China Ming Li, 2018-12-18 This pivot considers the impact of INSET courses on EFL teachers practicing under the national curriculum reform in China Providing context specific findings on the policy and implementation of INSET as well as its impact on teacher education initiatives in both China and similar contexts it explores the limitations of one off training events such as INSET and the inconsistency between teacher learning results and their classroom practices The book argues that teachers when returning to pre INSET teaching are influenced by their prior deeply rooted beliefs largely considered more powerful than newly learnt theories Addressing the rarely discussed fact that the complex and dynamic characteristics of teacher learning change over time and support the construct of teacher learning as a social event rather than a one off event the book also offers practical solutions on how to improve teacher education and enhance the long term INSET impact on teacher development with the ambition of promoting education reform for both teachers and students alike

Exploratory Practice in Language Teaching Judith Hanks, 2017-01-28 This book tracks the development of Exploratory Practice since the early 1990s as an original form of practitioner research in the field of English language teaching Drawing on case studies vignettes and narratives from teachers and learners around the world as they experienced Exploratory Practice in their different contexts Hanks examines the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the Exploratory Practice framework and asks what the principles really mean in practice For language professionals considering investigating their classrooms and their teaching learning practices rigorously and thoughtfully this book breaks new ground arguing for a fresh perspective exploratory practice as research Judith Hanks is Lecturer in TESOL at the University of Leeds UK Her work bridges specialist areas in language teacher education intercultural communication TESOL and EAP

International Perspectives on Teachers Living with Curriculum Change Martin Wedell, Laura Grassick, 2017-11-10 This book gives a voice to English language teachers faced with the challenges posed by English language curriculum change As a core component of national state system curricula in virtually every country in the world there has nevertheless been little research exploring how the millions of English teachers worldwide navigate the challenges posed by such curriculum changes This volume includes eleven stories from teachers based across every continent providing a global glimpse of how national English curriculum change projects have been experienced by classroom teachers who are commonly if erroneously viewed as mostly responsible for its implementation success or failure The final chapter synthesises these experiences and suggests wider implications for the development of curriculum change planning processes and how they might better support teachers attempts to achieve curriculum goals Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this ground breaking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of English language teaching teacher education curriculum change and education policy
