Handbook of Research on Digital Tools for Writing Instruction in K-12 Settings Anderson, Rebecca S., Mims, Clif, 2014-04-30 More emphasis is being placed on writing instruction in K 12 schools than ever before With the growing number of digital tools in the classroom it is important that K 12 teachers learn how to use these tools to effectively teach writing in all content areas The Handbook of Research on Digital Tools for Writing Instruction in K 12 Settings will provide research about how students use digital tools to write both in and out of school settings as well as discuss issues and concerns related to the use of these learning methods This publication is beneficial to educators professionals and researchers working in the field of K 12 and teacher education Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language Polina Vinogradova, Joan Kang Shin, 2020-10-29 This engaging volume on English as an Additional Language EAL argues persuasively for the importance of critical participatory pedagogies that embrace multilingualism and multimodality in the field of TESOL It highlights the role of the TESOL profession in teaching for social justice and advocacy and explores how critical participatory pedagogies translate into English language teaching and teacher education around the world Bringing together diverse scholars in the field and practicing English language teachers editors Polina Vinogradova and Joan Kang Shin present 10 thematically organized units that demonstrate that language teaching pedagogy must be embedded in the larger sociocultural contexts of teaching and learning to be successful Each unit covers one pedagogical approach and includes three case studies to illustrate how English language teachers across the world implement these approaches in their classrooms The chapters are supplemented by discussion questions and a range of practical sources for further exploration Addressing established and emerging areas of TESOL topics covered include Critical and postmethod pedagogies Translingualism Digital literacy and multiliteracies Culturally responsive pedagogy Advocacy

Featuring educators implementing innovative approaches in primary secondary and tertiary contexts across borders Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language is an ideal text for methods and foundational courses in TESOL and will appeal to in service and preservice English language teachers as well as students and teacher educators in TESOL and applied linguistics

Designing Learning with Digital Play Fei Victor Lim, Weimin

Toh, 2025-12-15 Lim and Toh provide updates on recent research on digital play and learning and unite game based learning with multimodal and social semiotic theories They adopt the position that teachers or caregivers scaffolding is required when games are used in a pedagogical context such as the classroom The book offers a nuanced view of the nature and properties of games beyond motivation including the students interest and use of digital play The chapters explore the varied ways in which games are designed to promote critical thinking and reflection It expands on the teachers or caregivers scaffolding of students digital play in pedagogical contexts such as in a classroom setting where students are guided to reflect on how they perceive the representations in the game world With this openness and interest towards digital play the authors argue that it is timely for us to examine the value of digital play for learning that it can foster literacy development as well as promote growth in the affective domain They echo the call for design principles in digital play to inform the design of students learning experiences and explore ways in which digital play can be integrated into teaching and learning This book covers a topic which is both relevant and urgent in today's digital age Of interest to anyone involved in designing learning with digital play this volume will be of particular value to students and scholars in education curriculum design pedagogy as well as multimodality

Multiliteracies, Multimodality, and Learning by Design in Second Language Learning and Teacher Education Agustín Reyes-Torres, María Estela Brisk, Manel Lacorte, 2025-04-30 Multiliteracies Multimodality and Learning by Design in Second Language Learning and Teacher Education offers valuable insights and practical strategies for addressing the language and literacy needs of students in diverse multilingual classrooms This edited volume delves into the dynamic interplay between multimodality multiliteracies and Learning by Design LbyD providing evidence based research and actionable guidance for their effective implementation in second language learning and teacher education Examining the advantages of incorporating multimodality and multiliteracies in second language teacher training this book emphasizes the use of multimodal texts to create engaging and meaningful lessons for L2 learners By empowering students as active co constructors of knowledge this book equips educators with the necessary tools to foster a vibrant and inclusive learning environment Designed specifically for pre service and practicing teachers this book serves as an indispensable resource for integrating the pedagogy of multiliteracies into both coursework and classroom practices

New Challenges for Research on Language for Special Purposes Ingrid Simonnæs, Øivin Andersen, Klaus Schubert, 2019-08-23 This anthology consists of selected papers presented by European scholars at the 21st LSP Conference 2017 on Interdisciplinary knowledge making challenges for LSP research held at NHH Norwegian School of Economics in Bergen Norway The multifarious

aspects of LSP research publication cover issues on terms and terminology LSP texts from a text linguistic approach training in LSP settings and translation of LSP texts The volume gives an up to date selection of the ongoing research endeavours in specialised communication in subject fields ranging from maritime accidents over healthcare and financial accounting to climate change

Multimodal Literacies Across Digital Learning Contexts Maria Grazia Sindoni, Ilaria Moschini, 2021-11-29 This collection critically considers the question of how learning and teaching should be conceived understood and approached in light of the changing nature of learning scenarios and new pedagogies in this current age of multimodal digital texts practices and communities The book takes the concept of digital artifacts as being composed of multiple meaning making semiotic resources such as visuals music and design as its point of departure to explore how diverse communities interact with these tools and develop and explore their understanding of digital practices in learning contexts The first section of the volume examines different case studies in which involved participants learn to grapple with the introduction of digital tools for learning in children's early years of schooling The second section extends the focus to secondary and higher education settings as digital learning tools grow more complex as do students' parents and teachers interactions with them and the subsequent need for new pedagogies to rethink these multimodal artifacts A final section reflects on the implications of new multimodal tools technologies and pedagogies for teachers such as on teacher training and community building among educators In its in depth look at multimodal approaches to learning as meaning making in a digital world this book will be of interest to students and scholars in multimodality English language teaching digital communication and education
