United Nations Convention On The Law Of The Sea:

United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, 1982 Myron H. Nordquist, Shabtai Rosenne, Satya N. Nandan, 1985 Volume III is the fourth substantive volume to be published in this series covering articles 86 to 132 of the 1982 Convention These articles address the issue of States rights and jurisdiction in maritime areas beyond the limits of national jurisdiction with the exception of the international seabed area as well as the regime to be applied to islands in enclosed and semi enclosed seas and with the access of landlocked States to and from the sea Volume III is a direct continuation of Volume II which deals with maritime areas under the sovereignty or jurisdiction of a State and completes the commentary on the provisions of the Convention negotiated under the auspices of the Second Committee at UNCLOS III The work of the Second Committee was an integrated whole and the unity of the theme has been spread over two volumes solely as a matter of convenience A number of documentary annexes have been included in this volume

United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, 1982 Myron H. Nordquist, 1985 These commentaries are based almost entirely on the formal and informal documentation of the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS III 1973 1982 coupled where necessary with the personal knowledge of editors contributors or reviewers many of whom were principal negotiators or UN personnel who participated in the Conference

The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea Alexander Proelß, 2017-04-20 The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS entered into force in 1994 and has since been ratified by about 160 states including all the Member States of the EU and the EU itself The Convention defines the rights and duties of national states with regard to the use of the seas UNCLOS consolidates customary international law and various Conventions previously adopted by the international community This Treaty the most comprehensive ever concluded is often referred to as the constitution for the seas This Commentary focuses particularly on the interaction between UNCLOS and the European legal order for example in the field of the prevention or the reduction of environmental pollution and the fair distribution of natural resources
