Water Wind Earth Fire The Christian Practice Of Praying With The Elements:

Water, Wind, Earth, and Fire Christine Valters Paintner, 2010-03-01 Organized around The Cantic of the Creatures by St Francis of Assisi Water Wind Earth and Fire is the first book to consider the ways in which praying with the natural elements can enliven Christian spiritual life Teacher artist and Benedictine oblate Christine Valters Paintner offers concrete suggestions and guided contemplative exercises for instance she suggests that readers take time to watch the sunrise or sunset and breathe in the beauty of the fiery sky Contemplate what those beginnings and endings have to say in your own life Readers benefit from Paintner s extensive training in theology and Benedictine spirituality as well as her unique work in bringing the expressive arts to spiritual direction The Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman, 2021-11-16 In popular usage mysticism typically refers to New Age or Eastern forms of spirituality However the mystical tradition is also an important component of the Christian tradition At its heart and much like its expression in other faith traditions Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation contemplation worship philosophy the quest for personal enlightenment and the experience of Divine presence This volume is a comprehensive introduction and guide to Christian mysticism It is a big book about a big possibility the hope of achieving real blissful experiential union with God Among the topics covered here are a general introduction to mysticism the Bible and mysticism the history and types of Christian mysticism biographical sketches of leading Christian mystics and practical instructions about practicing mysticism today This is a breathtaking work that explores a form of spirituality that has changed lives over the course of 2 000 years Learning about Christian mysticism and how it has been articulated through the centuries will prove inspirational for today s seekers regardless of the faith tradition The mystic is not a special kind of person every person is a special kind of mytic William McNamara Earth, Our Original Monastery Christine Valters Paintner, 2020-04-03 How can we meet God in our everyday lives In Earth Our Original Monastery Christine Valters Paintner bestselling author and online abbess for Abbey of the Arts shares how living contemplatively with an appreciation for the natural world can make you more aware of the presence of God in every aspect of your life She explores monks mystics and saints who have experienced the goodness of the Divine in nature and invites you to find solace and spiritual revelation in the wonder of God s creation The purpose of contemplative living Christine Valters Paintner suggests is to allow you to integrate the pieces of your life within yourself in your community and in the world around you When you pay attention to each moment you nurture your ability to see God s actions in those moments In Earth Our Original Monastery Paintner invites you to begin the journey of contemplative living by focusing on the image of the earth as your original monastery the place where you learn your most fundamental prayers participate in each day s liturgy of praise and experience the wisdom of the seasons Paintner provides seven ways of seeing the earth in light of faith and pairs each one with a practical invitation to a practice These include the earth as original cathedral where you first learn to worship and feel God s presence around us paired with the practice of stability the earth as original saints plants and animals live their calling without trying to be something they're not and inspire you to do the same paired with the practice of gratitude the earth as original icon nature can serve as a window to the holy in the same way that icons do paired with the practice of lament As you explore what these connections between the earth and faith mean for how to see God in the world around you you can also look at saints and mystics who experienced nature and the flow of the divine in similar ways

Arts-based and Contemplative Practices in Research and Teaching Susan Walsh, Barbara Bickel, Carl Leggo, 2014-11-13 This volume presents a scholarly investigation of the ways educators engage in artistic and contemplative practices and why this matters in education Arts based learning and inquiry can function as a powerful catalyst for change by allowing spiritual practices to be present within educational settings but too often the relationship between art education and spirituality is ignored Exploring artistic disciplines such as dance drama visual art music and writing and forms such as writing witnessing freestyle rap queer performative autoethnograph and poetic imagination this book develops a transformational educational paradigm Its unique integration of spirituality in and through the arts addresses the contemplative needs of learners and educators in diverse educational and community settings

A Midwinter God Christine Valters Paintner, 2024-09-13 I believe we all carry grief that has gone unnamed and unmourned writes best selling author Christine Valters Paintner Nothing in our culture prepares us to deal with darkness and grief We are told to cheer up and move on to shop or drink our way to forgetting the pain we carry Yet I believe that being faithful to our own dark moments is the path of true prayer In her book A Midwinter God Encountering the Divine in Seasons of Darkness Paintner offers an invitation to enter the wisdom of holy darkness and to find there a path toward hope and spiritual maturity Paintner has experienced multiple journeys through grief that have brought her face to face with what she calls the midwinter God the seeming absence of the God of life in dark and fallow seasons of loss She has learned to confront her own terror in that darkness and to approach it with curiosity to see what it has to teach her This endeavor has illuminated a path for her to embrace a life of profound depth one that honors both the trials of suffering and the richness of joy With her characteristic integrative and creative practices Paintner abbess of the online Abbey of the Arts guides her readers to view darkness as a place where seeds of holiness begin to germinate Each chapter of this book unfolds as an invitation to grow in understanding of holy darkness and also meditate reflect and create with these elements Paintner s reflections on various themes of loss and acceptance Insights on a scripture passage written by Paintner s husband John A guided meditation to bring the teachings into your heart Prompts for an expressive arts practice to process these insights through creativity Reflection questions to integrate what you have experienced Writing samples from people who have worked through this material in an online retreat Autumn and winter are vital to the health of nature and to our own bodies It is a time of releasing and letting go a season that invites us to slow down to welcome the growing darkness and to grow stiller and quieter Darkness can be an uncomfortable and uneasy place but it is also a place of profound incubation and gestation a source of tremendous and hard wrought wisdom With Paintner as our guide we can encounter this midwinter God with vulnerable courage that leads us to hope filled wholeness Nature Spirituality Mark G. Boyer,2013-09-17 The presence of the Divine is everywhere That is both a comfort and a challenge We are consoled to know that God is with us but being human we need a sign something to touch see hear taste smell We need something of the ordinary to name the non touchable invisible unable to be heard tasteless odorless God s presence with us So we employ metaphors figures of speech which literally denote one kind of object in place of another to suggest a likeness or analogy In this book the metaphors used for God come out of the Bible they are the four elements of nature for the Greeks wind water earth and fire Wind is a metaphor for God s Spirit Water refers to God as the source of life Earth from which we are created bears God s fingerprints and footprints And fire reminds us of the God who purifies and draws all creation to himself This nature spirituality book consists of four chapters wind water earth fire each of which contains twenty four part exercises of prayer a few verses from Scripture a reflection a journal exercise and a concluding prayer The Western Christian Advocate ,1909 The Youth's Companion ,1916 Includes songs for solo voice with piano accompaniment Awakening the Creative Spirit Christine Valters Paintner,Betsey Beckman,2010-02 The resource is designed to help spiritual directors and others use expressive arts in the context of spiritual direction It is the latest book in the unique SDI series designed for professional spiritual directors but also useful for clergy therapists and Christian formation specialists The Spiritual Directors International Series This book is part of a special series produced by Morehouse Publishing in cooperation with Spiritual Directors International SDI a global network of some 6 000 spiritual directors and members Youth's Companion ,1916

Christian life      Earth Water Wind and Fire Richard J. McQueen, Fernand D'AMICO, Jacques WISMAN, 2011-02-13 The subject of Earth Water Wind and Fire based on the research topics conducted by Fernand D Amico and Jacques Wisman is proposed in this book as a themed walk through the passages of Scripture from the Old and New Testament The biblical text KJV is presented deliberately devoid of additional comments to offer an immediate and direct perception of the selected track The thematic reading of the biblical text opens to the reader as a fascinating experience that allows him to benefit in a short time a surprising and rich picture of content Earth water air and fire represented the primordial elements by which the ancient philosophy had interpreted the natural world both physically and psychologically These elements are present in the Bible with new symbolic meanings The biological function of these elements is dominated by a meaning which refers often through subtle similar path the supernatural dimension from which everything originates      Prayer on Fire Fred

Hartley, 2014-02-27 Prayer on Fire is what happens when your initiative to meet with God in prayer connects with His desire to meet you Learn the biblical steps to take to experience the reality of the Holy Spirit's presence in your daily prayer life

The Way We Pray Maggie Oman Shannon, 2001-10-01 Collecting prayer practices from around the world the author introduces readers to her favorites fifty forms of prayer worship and meditation with details about their history and roots in particular religious traditions Original      Earthen Vessels Gabriel Bunge, 2010-06-10 The Fathers of the Church deeply rooted in the Scriptures have left us a rich treasure as inheritance not only of texts but also of manners forms and gestures of prayer Today western Christianity in a special way needs to rediscover the intimate union which must exist in prayer just as in any aspect of Christian life between theory and practice between contemplation and practical exercise One learns how to pray by praying and the whole of our being is called to participate in this work the mind the heart but also the body the gaze the senses Fr Gabriel Bunge a hermit with great spiritual discernment and profound knowledge of the Fathers of the desert presents with masterly coherence this important unity between what one believes and what one expresses in the practice of prayer a fascinating rediscovery of the valuable treasure contained in the teachings of the Church Fathers on the practice of personal prayer      Prayer Primer Thomas Dubay, 2002-03-01 A renowned teacher and writer on prayer and the spiritual life presents a simple profound and practical book on the most important of all human activities communion with God
