Wards State Society Without Boomers:

Wards of the State Paula Laureen Henderson, 2015-12-10 What does it take to be a survivor in the world today Or in the future Are world issues becoming so large and common that no one hears them Paula Laureen Henderson author and political activist captivates readers with her unique ability to use her personal cancer experience as an analogy for achieving a healthy proactive nation

The Baby Boomer Nurse Pearley Rufus-Lusan RN, 2015-06-03 The author enthusiastically relates her dramatic unforeseen nursing experiences while practicing in the most unusual places and under unusual circumstances Her nursing practice unexpectedly took an entirely different pathway from caring for patients in the hospital by the bedside to foreign lands and even in an aircraft Considered blessed and privileged she bravely applied her God given skills and faced her challenges head on The book demonstrates how most of her challenges led to many adventurous experiences and quite a diverse education The writer applied her experience from the other side as a patient to encourage and direct potential patients and their families in navigating the health care system to access appropriate and successful medical care An avid believer in natural and alternative medicine the writer struggled when confronted with the aggressive traditional treatments for a life threatening illness A realization that the nursing profession is that of an anyplace anytime lifestyle

Boomer's Guide to Divorce (and a New Life) Marlene M. Browne, 2004 Straight up advice from a divorced boomer While boomers grew up watching solid marriages like those of the Ricardos the Cleavers and the Petries they also learned that marriages sometimes don't work out and that the real life effects emotional and financial are no laughing matter For those who are ending marriages and starting over while coping at the same time with teenaged children aging parents looming retirement health and fitness concerns and other midlife issues this book offers valuable advice on Deciding whether you really want out Setting yourself up for a good divorce rather than a bitter one Finding an attorney and an accountant Dealing with your family and friends who gets custody of whom after a long term marriage Getting through the minefields of the legal process there are complications even in no fault divorce Starting over again establishing credit finding insurance coverage and more
