What Does God See When God Looks At Me For Kids:

What Does God Look Like? Linda Wilson, 2012-12-14 When a little boy asks his mother about what God looks like and many other questions as well, she answers him with lots of details. This story began when author Linda Wilson's three daughters were young. This story was written and illustrated in response to their questions and the questions of many other children through the years about God. Children yearn for the literal touchable truth about all things including the unseen God of the universe. Understanding that truth is quite a task for children in their formative years. Their eager and open minds deserve good answers to their good questions. What Does God Look Like seeks to help each child know who God is and how much He loves and cares about each of them, relieve any fears or misconceptions about death, and reveal a biblical pleasant picture of heaven for them and reinforce the teaching that God is not only our Lord and Savior but also our comforter, teacher, and everlasting Father. What Does God Look Like encourages each child to see God's reflection in his or her face and to make an indelible impression on them that they are made in God's image.

What Does God See When God Looks at Me? for Kids Deborah Worley, 2013-05-26 Children often think that God is always watching them, keeping track of the good and bad things they do, feel, and even think, and then determining their worth based on this list. Moving from externals, Does God see my fingernails filled with dirt? Does God see the grape jelly stain on my shirt? To things more internal, Does God see when I get frightened and my chest starts feeling tight? When I'm lying in my bed and I hear my parents fight, this book seeks to offer a different message that while God does know all of that, those parts of us that we're proud of as well as the those that we're ashamed of, God continues to deeply love each of us in the midst of it all. For any child who might wonder, What does God see when God looks at me, this book offers this answer from God: I see it all, and to you I call you my Beloved.
