But what If We're Wrong? Chuck Klosterman, 2016 But What If We're Wrong visualizes the contemporary world as it will appear to those who'll perceive it as the distant past Chuck Klosterman asks questions that are profound in their simplicity How certain are we about our understanding of gravity How certain are we about our understanding of time What will be the defining memory of rock music five hundred years from today How seriously should we view the content of our dreams How seriously should we view the content of television Are all sports destined for extinction Is it possible that the greatest artist of our era is currently unknown or weirder still widely known but entirely disrespected Is it possible that we overrate democracy And perhaps most disturbing is it possible that we've reached the end of knowledge Kinetically slingshotting through a broad spectrum of objective and subjective problems But What If We're Wrong is built on interviews with a variety of creative thinkers George Saunders David Byrne Jonathan Lethem Kathryn Schulz Neil deGrasse Tyson Brian Greene Junot Diaz Amanda Petrusich Ryan Adams Nick Bostrom Dan Carlin and Richard Linklater among others interwoven with the type of high wire humor and nontraditional analysis only Klosterman would dare to attempt It's a seemingly impossible achievement a book about the things we cannot know explained as if we did It's about how we live now once now has become then
