Women in Culture Bonnie Kime Scott, Susan E. Transforming Otherness Peter Nynas, 2017-07-28 Today people in different situations and contexts face intercultural challenges These are a result of increasing mobility Sometimes such challenges are brought about by crisis situations and an international labor market However people also come in contact with each other through forms of new technology such as the Internet and through literature and film In these multicultural encounters misunderstandings and sometimes clashes are experienced This volume presents studies in culture communication and language all of which strive through a variety of theoretical perspectives to develop understanding of such challenges and perhaps offer practical solutions Encountering otherness may evoke fears negative attitudes and a corresponding will to dismiss the otherness in front of us either consciously or unconsciously This denial of otherness may also be subtle Thinking about otherness as described in this volume also raises questions about how otherness is represented and mediated and about the possible role of third parties in facilitating communication in such situations Sometimes a third party can play a crucial role in facilitating the communication process and serve as a channel of communication Trust in humanity as a bridge to community requires a subtle balance between representations of self and other Various problems arise in intercultural mediation which may be caused by cultural and political differences and these are sometimes used to validate stereotypical beliefs and images The editors argue that in both academic and art circles European perspectives have widely been understood as universal

The Intersectional Approach Michele Tracy Berger, Kathleen Guidroz, 2010-01-01 Intersectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guides new and established researchers to engage in a critical reflection about the broad adoption of intersectionality that constitutes what the editors call a new social literacy for scholars In eighteen essays contributors examine various topics of interest to students and researchers from a feminist perspective as well as through their respective disciplines looking specifically at gender inequalities related to globalization health motherhood sexuality body image and aging Together these essays provide a critical overview of the paradigm highlight new theoretical and methodological advances and make a strong case for the continued use of the intersectional approach both within the borders of women s and gender studies and beyond Contributors Lidia Anchisi Gettysburg College Naomi Andre University of Michigan Jean Ait Belkhir Southern University at New Orleans Michele Tracy Berger University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Kia Lilly Caldwell University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Elizabeth R Cole University of Michigan Kimberle Crenshaw University of California Los Angeles Bonnie Thornton Dill University of Maryland Michelle Fine Graduate Center City University of New York Jennifer Fish Old Dominion University Mako Fitts Seattle University Kathleen Guidroz Mount St Mary s University Ivette Guzman Zavala Lebanon Valley College Kaaren Haldeman Durham North Carolina Catherine E Harnois Wake Forest University AnaLouise Keating Texas Woman s University Rachel E Luft University of New Orleans Gary K Perry Seattle University Jennifer Rothchild University of Minnesota Morris Ann Russo DePaul University Natalie J Sabik University of Michigan Jessica Holden Sherwood University of Rhode Island Yvette Taylor University of Newcastle United Kingdom Nira Yuval Davis University of East London
