Trinity In Relation Creation Incarnation And Grace In An Evolving Cosmos:

Trinity in Relation Gloria L. Schaab, 2012 This book is about relations intimate relations that exist between all that is living between the cosmos and humanity between the cosmos and God and between God and humanity It is also about relations essential relations that exist within all that is living within an evolving cosmos within a developing humanity and within the living God It is moreover about relations that are fundamentally constitutive of cosmic human and divine being and thus provide a clue to the nature of reality itself Intro p 11 Reinventing Theology in Post-Genocide Rwanda Marcel Uwineza, Elisé Rutagambwa, Michel Segatagara Kamanzi, 2023 In the year 2019 Rwanda marked twenty five years after the genocide against the Tutsi Sadly Catholic priests and nuns were complicit or even participated in the killing of an estimated 800 000 ethnic Tutsis Thousands of people were slaughtered in Catholic Churches where they took refuge For example 5000 people are estimated to have been killed at the Ntarama Catholic Church in August 1994 In March of 2017 Pope Francis issued an apology remarking that the sins and failings of the Church and its members had disfigured the face of Catholicism This statement recognized that the Catholic Church's role in the genocide has implicated the entire Church and is an invitation to reimagine the very essence of the meaning of the Church theology in its multiple dimensions the missionary enterprise the mission of the Church and the place of human dignity in the Catholic faith The task of rethinking what it means to be the Church and restoring fraternal identity as Christians in post genocide Rwanda is thus crucial if theology is to make sense again This is particularly imperative in as much as theology is compelled to reflect upon the very evils that have disfigured the Church's image and people's identity namely the evils of sin suffering the indifference of bystanders the increasing number of genocide deniers the complexity of memory the lack of credible and prophetic leadership that invites a new way of thinking about theology This book brings together bishops theologians historians and other scholars to reflect on how the Rwandan Catholic Church can restore fundamental peace and rebuild lasting reconciliation Extraterrestrials in the Catholic Imagination Jennifer Rosato, Alan Vincelette, 2021-02-10 What do scientists know about the possibility of life outside our solar system How does Catholic science ction imagine such worlds What are the implications for Catholic thought This collection brings together leading scientists philosophers theologians and science fiction authors in the Catholic tradition to examine these issues In the first section Christian scientists detail the latest scientific findings regarding the possibility of life on exoplanets The second part brings together leading Catholic science fiction authors who describe how alien life forms have been prevalent in the Catholic imagination from the Middle Ages right up to the present day In the final section Catholic philosophers and theologians examine the implications of discovering intelligent life elsewhere in the universe Rather than worrying that the discovery of intelligent extraterrestrials might threaten the dignity of humans or their existence the contributors here maintain that such creatures should be welcomed as fellow creatures of God and potential subjects of divine salvation The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics Andrew Linzey, Clair

Linzey,2018-09-29 The ethical treatment of non human animals is an increasingly significant issue directly affecting how people share the planet with other creatures and visualize themselves within the natural world The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics is a key reference source in this area looking specifically at the role religion plays in the formation of ethics around these concerns Featuring thirty five chapters by a team of international contributors the handbook is divided into two parts The first gives an overview of fifteen of the major world religions attitudes towards animal ethics and protection The second features five sections addressing the following topics Human Interaction with Animals Killing and Exploitation Religious and Secular Law Evil and Theodicy Souls and Afterlife This handbook demonstrates that religious traditions despite often being anthropocentric do have much to offer to those seeking a framework for a more enlightened relationship between humans and non human animals As such The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies theology and animal ethics as well as those studying the philosophy of religion and ethics more generally Worship and the New Cosmology Catherine Vincie,2014 What is the Christian response to developments in the hard sciences What do discoveries at the macro and micro levels have to say about Christian theology about a theology of God Christology pneumatology and creation How do the developments in systematic theology that do take the advances in cosmology and the New Sciences seriously come to bear on our worship life These are the questions that are addressed in this text It is an initial effort to bring cosmology and the New Sciences into dialogue with developments in systematic and sacramental theology This book also suggests some ways in which these developments might appear in our worship Overall the author is concerned to reduce the cognitive dissonance between our scientifically informed everyday lives and our life of faith Planetary Solidarity Grace Ji-Sun Kim,Hilda P. Koster,2017-08-23 Planetary Solidarity brings together leading Latina womanist Asian American Anglican American South American Asian European and African woman theologians on the issues of doctrine women and climate justice Because women make up the majority of the world s poor and tend to be more dependent on natural resources for their livelihoods and survival they are more vulnerable when it comes to climate related changes and catastrophes Representing a subfield of feminist theology that uses doctrine as interlocutor this book ask how Christian doctrine might address the interconnected suffering of women and the earth in an age of climate change While doctrine has often stifled change it also forms the thread that weaves Christian communities together Drawing on postcolonial ecofeminist womanist analysis and representing different ecclesial and denominational traditions contributors use doctrine to envision possibilities for a deep solidarity with the earth and one another while addressing the intersection of gender race class and ethnicity The book is organized around the following doctrines creation the triune God anthropology sin incarnation redemption the Holy Spirit ecclesiology and eschatology Ask the Beasts: Darwin and the God of Love Elizabeth A. Johnson,2014-03-13 An examination of the relationship between faith in God and the concept of ecological care within a crisis of biodiversity Preservation and

Protest Ryan Patrick McLaughlin, 2014-11-01 Preservation and Protest proposes a novel taxonomy of four paradigms of nonhuman theological ethics by exploring the intersection of tensions between value terms and teleological terms. McLaughlin systematically develops the paradigm of cosmocentric transfiguration arguing that the entire cosmos shares in the eschatological hope of a harmonious participation in God's triune life. With this paradigm, McLaughlin offers an alternative to anthropocentric and conservationist paradigms within the Christian tradition, an alternative that affirms both scientific claims about natural history and the theological hope for eschatological redemption. All God's Animals

Christopher Steck, 2019-10-01 The book is the first of its kind to draw together in conversation the views of the early Church, contemporary biblical and theological scholarship, and post-conciliar teachings. Steck develops a comprehensive Catholic theology of animals based on an in-depth exploration of Catholicism's fundamental doctrines: trinitarian theology, Christology, pneumatology, eschatology, and soteriology. All God's Animals makes two central claims. First, we can hope that God will include animals of the present age in the kingdom inaugurated by Christ. Second, because of this inclusion, our responses to animals should be guided by the values of the kingdom. As Christians await the final liberation of all creation, they are to be witnesses to God's kingdom by embodying its ideals in their relations with animal life. Because the kingdom's fullness is yet to come, and because our world remains marked by the wounds of sin, however, Christian treatment of animals will at times require acts that are at odds with the kingdom's ideals, for example, those causing suffering and death. Steck examines each of these ideas and explores all of their complexities. To Unite the Scattered Children of God

Stephen Finlan, 2022-11-07 To Unite the Scattered Children of God is an accessible exploration of hope for the spiritual uniting of humankind in worship and in other ways from Isaiah on down to present times. Several prophets shared this hope: "Many nations shall join themselves to the Lord on that day and shall be my people" (Zech 2:11). To an even greater degree, Jesus set in motion a universalizing power. Jesus and Paul inspired hope for the uniting of Jews, Samaritans, and Gentiles into one fold in the unity of the faith. The book also builds upon the work of Teilhard de Chardin regarding the convergence of the human race under the spiritual influence of Christ, the omega point of evolution. Insights from pneumatology, process theology, personalism, interfaith discussions, and world peace advocacy add to the discussion.
