Walking Home Growing Up Hispanic In Houston:

Walking Home Sarah Cortez, 2020-03-02 This ground breaking mixed genre memoir journeys from the soil of Texas farmland near Floresville to the shrimpers nets of the Gulf Coast near Matagorda Three generations of Hispanic families are viewed through the faith filled lens of the miraculous and the poignancy of dreams never realized The journey continues to mid twentieth century Houston where what is done is as powerful as that which never happened Growing Up Latino Harold Augenbraum, Ilan Stavans, 1993 A comprehensive collection of Latino writing of fiction and nonfiction works in English U.S. Latino Literature Margarite Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer's The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject The Texas Review, 2012 Going Home Richard F. Fenno, 2011-04-15 Thirty years ago there were nine African Americans in the U S House of Representatives Today there are four times that number In Going Home the dean of congressional studies Richard F Fenno explores what representation has meant and means today to black voters and to the politicians they have elected to office Fenno follows the careers of four black representatives Louis Stokes Barbara Jordan Chaka Fattah and Stephanie Tubbs Jones from their home districts to the halls of the Capitol He finds that while these politicians had different visions of how they should represent their districts in part based on their individual preferences and in part based on the history of black politics in America they shared crucial organizational and symbolic connections to their constituents These connections which draw on a sense of linked fates are ones that only black representatives can provide to black constituents His detailed portraits and incisive analyses will be important for anyone interested in the workings of Congress or in black politics Latino Literature Christina Soto van der Plas, Lacie Rae Buckwalter

Latina Writers A. Quintana, 2003-03-18 This essential teaching guide focuses on an emerging body of literature by U S Latina and Latin American Women writers It will assist non specialist educators in syllabus revision new course design and classroom presentation The inclusive focus of the book that is combining both US Latina and Latin American women writers is significant because it introduces a more global and transnational way of approaching the literature The introduction outlines the major historical experiences that inform the literature the important genres periods movements and authors in its evolution the traditions and influences that shape the works and key critical issues of which teachers should be aware The collection seeks to provide readers with a variety of Latina texts that will guarantee its long term usefulness to teachers and students of pan American literature Because it is no longer possible to understand U S Latina literature without taking into consideration the histories and cultures of Latin America the volume will through its organization argue for a more globalized type of analysis which considers the similarities as well as the differences in U S and Latin American women s cultural productions In this context the term Latina evokes a diasporic transnational condition in order to address some of the pedagogical issues posed by the bicultural nature which is inherent in pan American women s literature Carson

McCullers in the Twenty-First Century Alison Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Caf 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others

Latino Literature in America Bridget Kevane, 2003-12-30 There is growing awareness of the tremendous impact Latino writers have had on the recent literary scene yet not all readers have the background to fully appreciate the merits and meanings of works like House on Mango Street Line of the Sun Bless Me Ultima and In the Time of Butterflies Offering analysis of their most important popular and frequently assigned fictional works this book surveys the contributions of eight notable Latino writers Julia Alvarez Rodolfo Anaya Sandra Cisneros Junot Diaz Christina Garza Oscar Hijuelos Ortiz Cofer and Ernesto Quiroga Each chapter gives biographical background on the author and clear literary analysis of the selected works including a concise plot synopsis Delving into the question of cultural identity each work is carefully examined not only in terms of its literary components but also with regard to the cultural background and historical context This book illuminates such themes as acculturation generational differences immigration assimilation and exile Language religion and gender issues are explored against the cultural backdrop along with the social impact of such historical events as Operation Bootstrap in Puerto Rico the early days of Castro's Cuba and the Trujillo Dictatorship in the Dominican Republic Students and teachers will find their reading experiences of U S Latino works enriched with the literary and cultural perspectives offered here A list of additional suggested reading is included
