Resources in Education ,1997

Adapting Early Childhood Curricula for Children with Special Needs Ruth E. Cook,Annette Tessier,Virginia B. Armbruster,1987 His comprehensive practical book is built on solid theory and evidence based practices from both the fields of Special Education and Early Childhood Education When the first edition was conceived in 1980 the authors encountered students who either had a strong special education background or a strong early childhood child development background Each group had a lot to learn from the other and a lot to contribute to the other The original purpose was to bring together the best from both fields into Early Childhood Special Education The book continues to take a practical activity based approach that is theoretically sound and current It also provides ample detail related to specific intervention strategies that enhance the effective use of embedded learning opportunities within daily curriculum activities and routines Its relatively jargon free readable approach that is built on evidence based practices make it appropriate for a wide range of readers The illustrations of techniques and strategies throughout make it sustainable as a resource It has always encouraged a family centered inclusive approach to working with young children with special needs and their families

Adapting Early Childhood Curricula for Children in Inclusive Settings Ruth E. Cook,Annette Tessier,M. Diane Klein,1996 This comprehensive book takes a non categorical approach to preparing future early childhood teachers to help infants and young children with disabilities meet their challenges and develop to their fullest potential The result is a versatile and compelling resource of field experience Coverage is organized around four themes how all young children learn children in the context of their family traditional developmental domains and the need to take a synthesized view of the whole child Dozens of developmentally appropriate activity based strategies for adapting curriculum to suit both children and their families are provided in every chapter For future early childhood education teachers who will work with exceptional children and need to focus on special needs rather than special labels Video Source Book Gale Group,1999-10-28 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Iml-Exceptional Child Schwartz,Allen,2004-06 Everything Total Fitness Ellen Karpay,2000-04 Explains how to be healthy covering specific topics related to diet exercise injury and illness pregnancy and other aspects
