Di Leo, Peter Hitchcock, 2016-04-08 What are the theoretical parameters that produce the category public intellectual By pondering the conceptual elements that inform the term this book offers not just a political critique but a sense of the new challenges its meanings present This collection complicates the notion of public intellectual while arguing for its continued urgency in communities formal and informal institutional and abstract While it is not quite accurate to say public intellectuals have disappeared entirely it is clear they function differently in an age of global neoliberalism and techno digital overdrive Today the idea of the public intellectual bears only the slightest resemblance to what it was fifty or even twenty five years ago The essays in this collection provide a number of different ways to imagine the fate of public intellectuals and offers a thorough exploration of the commonplace ideologies and politics associated with them The Intellectual Species John Rodden, 2022-01-17 This book explores the prospects for survival of what we have come to know as the intellectual in the post Gutenberg age It addresses the contemporary history of this species spawned in the print age meditating on the precarious future of international intellectual life in the digital era of nanosecond soundbites fake news smart phones and clicks and scrolls in lieu of reading The book ponders these issues as it addresses the examples of a diverse group of British American French and German intellectuals of the post World War II era These case histories showcase concretely the state of the culture in the context of particular lives offering diverse intellectual portraiture featuring a wide range of writers across the ideological spectrum The key family resemblance of these figures is that most of them are contrarians regardless of whether they were freelance writers or academic intellectuals American or British or European and chiefly imaginative writers or non fiction writers and scholars Among the intellectuals discussed are George Orwell Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Camille Paglia Albert Camus Robert Havemann and others Regardless of which intellectual domains occupied their energies the histories of all of them yield insight into the transformation of cultural life in recent decades and the contrasting challenges faced by intellectuals of earlier eras versus our own These issues are of paramount significance for all those who care about the life of the mind and the future of homo sapiens Intellectuals and Power François

Laruelle, 2014-12-23 In this important new book the leading philosopher Fran ois Laruelle examines the role of intellectuals in our societies today specifically with regards to criminal justice He argues that rather than concerning themselves with abstract philosophical notions like justice truth and violence intellectuals should focus on the human victims Drawing on his influential theory of non philosophy he shows how we can submit the theorizing of intellectuals to the scrutiny of the everyday suffering of the victims of crime In the course of a wide ranging discussion with Philippe Petit Laruelle suspends the presumed authority of intellectuals by challenging the image of the dominant intellectual exemplified by philosophers such as Sartre Foucault Lyotard and Debray In place of domination he puts forward instead a theory of determination the determined intellectual is one whose character is conditioned by his relationship to the victim rather than one who attempts to dominate the victim sexperience through a process of theorizing While philosophy consistently takes the voice away from victims of suffering non philosophy is able to construct a theory of violence and crime that gives voice to the victim This highly original book will be essential reading for all those interested in contemporary French philosophy and all those concerned with justice in the modern world

Civility and Subversion Jeffrey C. Goldfarb,1998-11-12 This 1998 book provides a sophisticated alternative to existing accounts of the role of the intellectual in modern democracy Arguing that society suffers from a systemic deliberation deficit Jeffrey Goldfarb explores the potential of the intellectual as democratic agent at once civilizing political contestation and subverting complacent consensus The sentimental Leftist view of the intellectual as guardian of democracy and the demonising Rightist view of the intellectual as obstructor of progress are both shown to be flawed Instead intellectuals are portrayed as special kinds of strangers who pay careful attention to their critical faculties equipping them uniquely to address the most pressing issues of today Professor Goldfarb deploys classical and contemporary social theory to analyse a diverse set of intellectuals in action from Socrates in fifth century Athens to Malcolm X and Toni Morrison in twentieth century America and drawing on personal acquaintance the political dissidents in Communist and post Communist Central Europe
