Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly,1961 Things That Bother Me Galen Strawson,2018-03-13 An original collection of lauded philosopher Galen Strawson's writings on the self and consciousness naturalism and panpsychism Galen Strawson might be described as the Montaigne of modern philosophers endlessly curious enormously erudite unafraid of strange difficult and provocative propositions and able to describe them clearly in other words he is a true essayist Strawson also shares with Montaigne a particular fascination with the elastic and elusive nature of the self and of consciousness Of the essays collected here A Fallacy of Our Age an inspiration for Vendela Vida's novel Let the Northern Lights Erase Your Name takes issue with the commencement address cliché that life is a story Strawson questions whether it is desirable or even meaningful to think about life that way The Sense of the Self offers an alternative account in part personal of how a distinct sense of self is not at all incompatible with a sense of the self as discontinuous leading Strawson to a position that he sees as in some ways Buddhist Real Naturalism argues that a fully naturalist account of consciousness supports a belief in the immanence of consciousness in nature as a whole also known as panpsychism while in the final essay Strawson offers a vivid account of coming of age in the 1960s Drawing on literature and life as much as on philosophy this is a book that prompts both argument and wonder The Novels of Fyodor Dostoevsky: The friend of the family Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1928 On Life-Writing Zachary Leader,2015-10-08 Life writing is a generic term meant to encompass a range of writings about lives or parts of lives or which provide materials out of which lives or parts of lives are composed These writings include not only memoir autobiography biography diaries autobiographical fiction and biographical fiction but letters writs wills written anecdotes depositions marginalia lyric poems scientific and historical writings and digital forms including blogs tweets Facebook entries On Life Writing offers a sampling of approaches to the study of life writing introducing readers to something of the range of forms the term encompasses their changing fortunes and features the notions of life self and story which help to explain these changing fortunes and features recent attempts to group forms the permeability of the boundaries between forms the moral problems raised by life writing in all forms but particularly in fictional forms and the relations between life writing and history life writing and psychoanalysis life writing and philosophy The essays mostly focus on individual instances rather than fields whether historical theoretical or generic Generalizations are grounded in particulars For example the role of the life changing encounter a frequent trope in literary life writing is pondered by Hermione Lee through an account of a much storied first meeting between the philosopher Isaiah Berlin and the Russian poet Anna Akhmatova James Shapiro examines the history of the cradle to grave life narrative as well as the potential distortions it breeds by focusing on Shakespeare biography in particular attempts to explain Shakespeare's so called lost years Supreme Court Appellate Division , Greek Tragedy, a First Reading Nicholas Baechle,2014-06-13 This is an intermediate to advanced textbook for first reading of Greek tragedy This book draws from selections from both Euripides and Sophocles Electra It is designed to provide students with a structured access to reading interesting Greek at the advanced level and as it appears in works of Greek tragedy It provides a careful introduction to the language of tragedy Greek poetry as found in Electra and to the nature and forms of Greek tragedy The book focuses on material relevant for translation and understanding the unique form of drama through translation A Flicker of Hope Lynn Mitchell,2010
