The War On Human Trafficking Us Policy Assessed Paperback 2008 Author Anthony Destefano:

The War on Human Trafficking Anthony DeStefano, 2007-08-14 The United States has taken the lead in efforts to end international human trafficking the movement of peoples from one country to another usually involving fraud for the purpose of exploiting their labor Examples that have captured the headlines include the 300 Chinese immigrants that were smuggled to the United States on the ship Golden Venture and the young Mexican women smuggled by the Cadena family to Florida where they were forced into prostitution and confined in trailers The public s understanding of human trafficking is comprised of terrible stories like these which the media covers in dramatic but usually short lived bursts The more complicated long term story of how policy on trafficking has evolved has been largely ignored In The War on Human Trafficking Anthony M DeStefano covers a decade of reporting on the policy battles that have surrounded efforts to abolish such practices helping readers to understand the forced labor of immigrants as a major global human rights story DeStefano details the events leading up to the creation of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 the federal law that first addressed the phenomenon of trafficking in persons He assesses the effectiveness of the 2000 law and its progeny showing the difficulties encountered by federal prosecutors in building criminal cases against traffickers The book also describes the tensions created as the Bush Administration tried to use the trafficking laws to attack prostitution and shows how the American response to these criminal activities was impacted by the events of September 11th and the War in Iraq Parsing politics from practice this important book gets beyond sensational stories of sexual servitude to show that human trafficking has a much broader scope and is inextricable from the powerful economic conditions that impel immigrants to put themselves at risk

Trafficking in Persons Alison Siskin, Liana Sun Wyler, 2010-12-23 Trafficking in persons TIP for the purposes of exploitation is believed to be one of the most prolific areas of international criminal activity and is of significant concern to the United States and the international community According to Department of State estimates roughly 800 000 people are trafficked across borders each year If trafficking within countries is included in the total world figures official U S estimates indicate that some 2 to 4 million people are trafficked annually As many as 17 500 people are believed to be trafficked into the United States each year and some have estimated that 100 000 U S citizen USC children are victims of trafficking within the United States Since enactment of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000 TVPA P L 106 386 the Administration and Congress have aimed to address TIP by authorizing new programs and reauthorizing existing ones appropriating funds creating new criminal laws and conducting oversight on the effectiveness and implications of U S anti TIP policy Most recently the TVPA was reauthorized through FY2011 in the William Wilberforce Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act of 2008 P L 110 457 Obligations for global and domestic anti TIP programs not including operations and law enforcement investigations totaled approximately 103 5 million in FY2009 Activity on combating TIP may continue into the 112th Congress particularly related to efforts to reauthorize the TVPA Ongoing international policy issues include how to measure the effectiveness of the U S and international responses to TIP including the State Department s annual TIP rankings and the use of unilateral sanctions and how to prevent known sex offenders from engaging in child sex tourism Domestic issues that may arise include whether there is equal treatment of all victims both foreign nationals and U S citizens as well as victims of labor and sex trafficking and whether current law and services are adequate to deal with the emerging issue of domestic minor sex trafficking i e the prostitution of children in the United States Other issues are whether to include all forms of prostitution i e children and adults in the definition of TIP and whether sufficient efforts are applied to addressing all forms of TIP including not only sexual exploitation but also forced labor and child soldiers On June 14 2010 the State Department issued its 10th annual congressionally mandated report on human trafficking In addition to outlining major trends and ongoing challenges in combating TIP the report provides a country by country analysis and ranking based on what progress foreign countries have made in their efforts to prosecute traffickers protect victims and prevent TIP For the first time the United States was included as one of the ranked countries The report categorizes countries into four tiers according to the government s efforts to combat trafficking Those countries that do not cooperate in the fight against trafficking Tier 3 may be subject to U S foreign assistance sanctions On September 13 2010 President Barack Obama determined that two Tier 3 countries will be sanctioned for FY2011 without exemption Eritrea and North Korea In addition he determined that four Tier 3 countries will be partially sanctioned Burma Cuba Iran and Zimbabwe The 2010 TIP report also included for the first time a list of six countries that recruit use or harbor child soldiers Inclusion on this list subjects these countries to possible U S assistance sanctions Trafficking in Persons Library of Congress. Congressional Research Service, 2009 Reviews worldwide problem of human trafficking of primarily women and children for prostitution or forced labor Discusses U S funding for global anti trafficking programs and examines international response estimates of human trafficking into U S U S response and policy issues Includes tables and graphs
