The War At Home One Familys Fight Against Ptsd:

The War at Home Shawn J. Gourley, 2011-09-01 After Gourley s husband returned home from his third tour in the Middle East cracks in his personality had widen dramatically into full on fractures The next four and a half years were very difficult and at times downright terrifying for her and the children Finally he was diagnosed with PTSD in August 2009 Those are the broad strokes of their story but the details of how she fought to save her family will leave readers transfixed until the end

Not a Blueprint; It's the Shoeprints That Matter Nina Norstrom, 2016-04-07 Every journey leaves an imprint make yours count Allowing us to learn lessons let go of toxicity and gain insight relationship can play a powerful role in our lives They are formed with people alcohol animals battlefields diseases drugs environments and even our emotions Whether toxic or nontoxic relationships are an integral component of daily living Author Nina Norstrom lost her child to a disease but that wasn t the only toxic relationship she endured In this book she explores the effects that her relationships with grief pain trauma and forgiveness have had on her life This tale exposes a mother s struggle to escape her world of toxicity her journey out of the clutches of diseased relationships and the shoe prints the experiences have left on her family s history This story in its raw form projects a remarkable voice to the heroic fight courage and bravery gained when striking back to wipe out toxic relationships Its message reveals that life brings many challenges and that each challenge provides lessons to be learned This book is not intended to be a blueprint for dealing with diseased relationships It s about the shoe prints those symbols of life s journey that are left by our experiences Not a Blueprint It s the Shoe Prints that Matter is an insightful and inspiring personal story of one family s journey through toxic relationships

One Family's Journey Through War Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-09 One Family s Journey Through War is a powerful and moving story of a family s journey through war and displacement Set against the backdrop of a conflict torn country it follows the lives of ordinary people caught in extraordinary circumstances At the heart of the story is a family forced to flee their home and seek refuge in a crowded refugee camp The father a doctor struggles to provide for his family in a world turned upside down The mother a teacher tries to keep her children safe and sane in a place where fear and uncertainty are constant companions And the children uprooted from their familiar surroundings must find a way to cope with the trauma of war and the loss of everything they once knew As the family navigates the challenges of life in the refugee camp they encounter a cast of unforgettable characters There s the elderly woman who lost her husband and children in the war the young boy who dreams of becoming a doctor and the kind hearted aid worker who risks her own life to help others Through their interactions with these characters the family learns about the resilience of the human spirit and the power of love and compassion in even the darkest of times They also come to understand the importance of hope and the belief that even in the most desperate of situations there is always the possibility of a better future One Family s Journey Through War is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading It is a story that will challenge your assumptions and deepen your understanding of the world It is a story that will inspire you to see the world in a new light This book is a must read for anyone who wants to understand the human cost of war and displacement It is a story that will touch your heart and stay with you for a long time to come If you like this book write a review

Women, War, and Violence Mariam M. Kurtz, Lester R. Kurtz, 2015-08-28 This set of original articles probes the breadth of vital issues surrounding the impact of war and violence on women globally and examines what is being done to mitigate their effects The story of men's roles in war and violence fills headlines and history books but the women's narrative too often goes unnoticed This two volume work brings women's voices to the fore highlighting new scholarship and journalism to offer a realistic understanding of this timely topic Including both historical context and contemporary issues the volumes explore types of violence affecting women and girls as victims of war and as combatants in and perpetrators of war Equally important it provides an in depth look at resistance movements and peacemaking efforts examining how these issues can and should be addressed The two volumes bring together a wide range of articles by experts from various fields and backgrounds to provide the first all inclusive overview of women war and violence Other works on the subject tend to be focused on Western nations offering a narrow view of a global issue This compendium in contrast takes a truly international approach It provides general readers policymakers students and scholars with a compelling collection of insights from around the world exposing the varied experiences women have had and continue to have with violence and war

War on the Family Renny Golden, 2013-10-18 In this timely book renowned criminologist and activist Renny Golden sheds light on the women behind bars and the 350 000 children they leave behind In exposing the fastest growing prison population a direct result of Reagan's War on Drugs Golden sets up new framework for thinking about how to address the situation of mothers in prison the risks and needs of their children and the implications of current judicial policies

Family Life, Trauma and Loss in the Twentieth Century Carol Komaromy, Jenny Hockey, 2018-05-16 This book uses personal memoir to examine links between private trauma and the socio cultural approach to death and memory developed within Death Studies The authors two key Death Studies scholars tell the stories that constitute their family lives Each bears witness to the experiences of men who were either killed or traumatised during World War One and World War Two and shows the ongoing implications of these events for those left behind The book illustrates how the rich oral history and material culture legacy bequeathed by these wars raises issues for everyone alive today Belonging to a generation who grew up in the shadow of war Komaromy and Hockey ask how we can best convey unimaginable events to later generations and what practical moral and ethical demands this brings Family Life Trauma and Loss in the Twentieth Century will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including Death Studies Military History Research Methods Family History the Sociology of the Family and Life Writing

Surviving Hitler's War H. Vaizey, 2010-09-22 Telling the stories of mothers fathers and children in their own words Vaizey recreates the experience of family life in Nazi Germany From last letters of doomed soldiers at Stalingrad to diaries kept by women trying to keep their families alive in cities under attack the book vividly describes family life under the most extreme conditions

Echoes of Trauma and Shame in German Families Lina Jakob, 2020-05-05 A study of the generation of Germans dealing with the psychological effects of the parents and grandparents experiences during and after World War II How is it possible for people who were born in a time of relative peace and prosperity to suddenly discover war as a determining influence on their lives For decades to speak openly of German suffering during World War II to claim victimhood in a country that had victimized millions was unthinkable But in the past few years growing numbers of Germans in their 40s and 50s calling themselves Kriegsenkel or Grandchildren of the War have begun to explore the fundamental impact of the war on their present lives and mental health Their parents and grandparents experienced bombardment death forced displacement and the shame of the Nazi war crimes The Kriegsenkel feel their own psychological struggles from depression anxiety disorders and burnout to broken marriages and career problems are the direct consequences of unresolved war experiences passed down through their families Drawing on interviews participant observation and a broad range of scholarship Lina Jakob considers how the Kriegsenkel movement emerged at the nexus between public and familial silences about World War II and critically discusses how this new collective identity is constructed and addressed within the framework of psychology and Western therapeutic culture This complex story is engagingly told through highly readable life histories and analysis and provides much to think about concerning the aftermath of traumatic histories Francesca Merlan Jakob brilliantly traces the transgenerational impact of World War II and the trauma and shame of Germany's dark past that still haunts individuals and scars families A searing inquiry into the multilayered meanings of public rituals social memories and emotional suffering of a generation painfully struggling with the inheritance of war and loss An outstanding achievement Assa Doron Waiting for the Sunrise Elizabeth Gatorano, 2008 This is a personal account of an interracial familys struggle against pervasive racism in the U S and the horrors of the civil war that plagued Rwanda in 1994 Raised in the American Midwest author Elizabeth Gatorano who is White had no idea of the trials she would face after marrying Phanuel who is Black and an immigrant to the U S from Rwanda Prejudice against their marriage followed them and their children wherever they went often making them the focus of racist discrimination and threats of violence at home and at work Throughout these ordeals Liz and Phanuel responded to hostility with love and patience their faith in each other and in God remaining unshakable even in the darkest hours Together they overcame all obstacles in their path and they continue to help those in need today Mental Illness, Culture, and Society: Dealing With the COVID-19 Pandemic Mohammadreza Shalbafan, Renato de Filippis, Samer El Hayek, 2022-12-01
